STUDENT LIFE

Just like all the other groups of Sam Houston exes, this one thinks, "Well, it all looks good, but it will never be as great as the three years I spent here."

Homecoming '71 proved to be very distinguishable from those of Sam Houston's past. Returning exes recognized many changes in the traditional activities from the decorations to the selection of queen.

Reigning queen, Karlos Thomas, added a special touch to the Homecoming pep rally, as former Texans gathered into the gym to hear Mayor Tom Vandergriff.

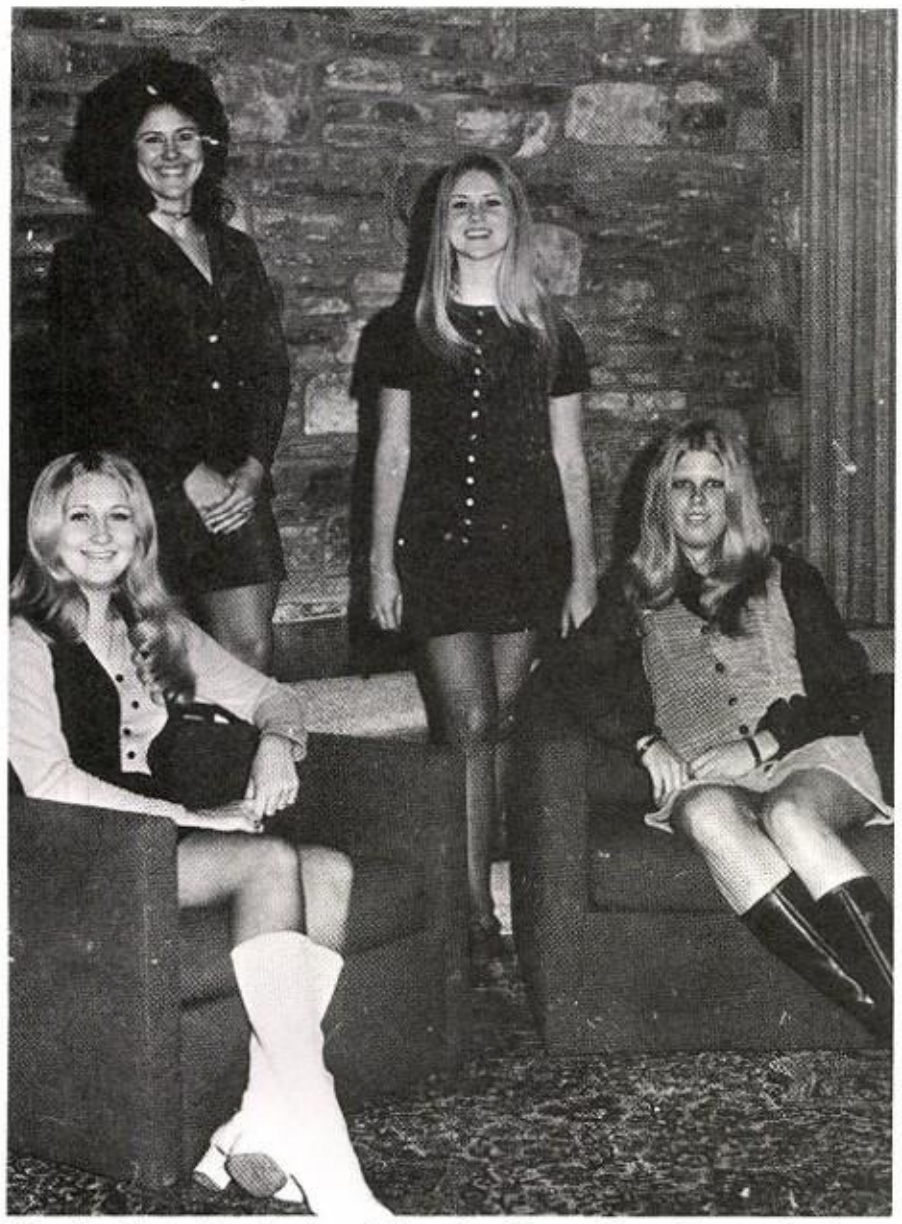
Each sponsored by an organization, 27 senior girls were chosen as nominees. The number of contenders for the crown was reduced, as this year for the first time eight finalists were elected by an all school student body vote.

The finalists and their escorts were presented twice during the lively week of poster parties and preparations for the coronation. To top off the entire week, the Varsity Texans won the Homecoming game by a 36-point margin.

Nominees Narrowed to Eight for First Time

Before throwing footballs to onlookers, Mayor Vandergriff instructed the Texan team to take notes on his techniques.

Karlos Thomas, the 1970-'71 Homecoming queen, is welcomed by seniors Rex Perry and Ron Lutz on her visit back to Sam.



Cheryl Mitchell, Donita Schenck, Mary Hanzelka, and Stacy Johnson were among four of the eight Homecoming finalists.

Other nominees for Homecoming queen were Ruth Acker, Rhonda Pennington, and Dori Williams. Not pictured is Jan Norman.

Homecoming Title Captured by Ruth Acker

Ruth Acker, the newly crowned and congratulated Homecoming queen, poses with a smile for city photographers beside her escort, ROTC commander Terry Vernon.

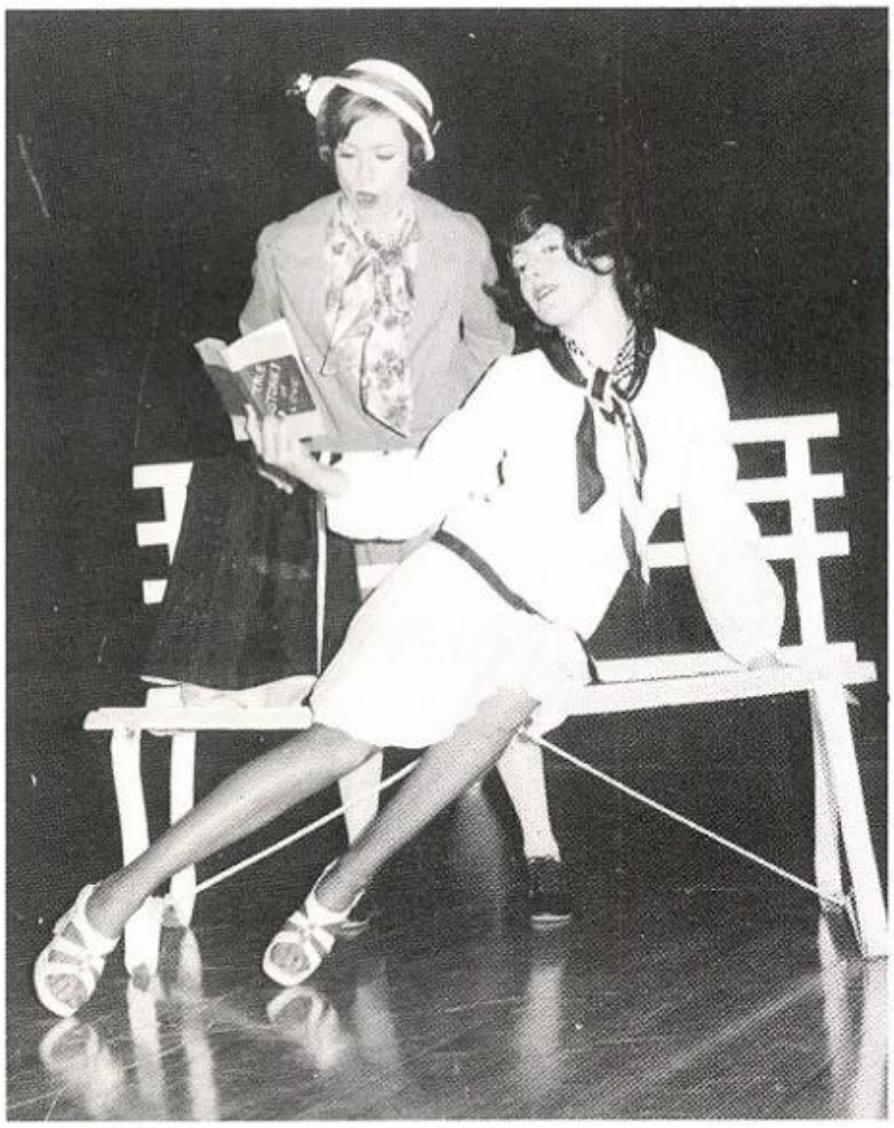
One of the most exciting weeks of the year came to a climax, Oct. 29, 1971, as Ruth Acker was crowned the Homecoming queen. Escorting the ROTC nominee, Terry Vernon was the first to congratulate the new queen, before Rex Perry, Student Congress president, bestowed the traditional kiss.

Active as the SHHS varsity cheerleader, Ruth has also served as an ROTC sweetheart for three years. A member of Interact, she has participated in the Youth-to-Youth Program. In her past years at Sam Houston, Ruth has been elected to the Student Congress and served as an officer of the Tex-Annes.

Keeping busy is no problem for Ruth, who enjoys her cheerleading duties.

After she received her 12, count 'em, 12 roses, Ruth smiled at everybody.

Accompanied by Terry Vernon, Ruth Acker is presented to the student body.



"Doris was not strictly beautiful," reads Teresa Shouse to Julee Moore as she looks on with an interested expression.

"How come babies can't be understood?" Craig Brinker asks Ron Lutz as John Rainone demands that they both be silent.

One-Act Play Places Second in District

The nuisances, Tom LeVesque, Barbara Johannesen, Paul Brake, Judy Makowski, and Pam Boyett, set the mood at the one act's beginning by creating disturbances.

Thornton Wilder's "Infancy" won second place for UIL one-act play competition. The contest was held for the second consecutive year at Sam. Five other schools participated for top honors.

Illustrating how a child views an adult world, the play is set in New York City's Central Park.

The comedy revolves around the actions of the two babies, Tommy and Moe, and their futile attempts at learning and growing up.

John Rainone, who was student director for the play, was named best actor. Junior Julee Moore was placed on the all-star cast and a runner-up for best actress. Teresa Shouse and Craig Brinker also won honorable mentions for best supporting cast members.

Land of Oz Created for Saturday Playhouse

The first children's theatre in the school's history, "The Wizard of Oz," was presented as the Drama Department's opening production of the year.

It ran for four consecutive Saturday afternoons in October with the last performance on Oct. 23. The cast and crew members, having been chosen the spring before, began working on lines and sets during the summer.

As a special treat, punch and cookies were served to the children after every show in the cafeteria. Cast members were present at the "party" to autograph the free programs.

The show proved to be a successful venture as it brought in $1763 to cover the costs of the royalty, costumes, sets, and sound. The combined Drama and Choral Departments cleared over $900 in profits.

Mark Ramirez, with companions Tom LeVesque and Dan'l Gansert, has become so involved with the play that for a moment he fantasizes he is the Wizard of Oz.

'Inherit' Runs Three Nights

Written by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee, the all-school play at Sam this year was "Inherit the Wind," which ran Nov. 18-20.

The play is based on the Scopes trial. Dating to the 1920's, the trial, sometimes called the monkey trials, concerned the legality of evolutionary concepts in schools.

The cast for the production was rather large. More than 35 people took part in the show. In order to play a more realistic character, each actor studied a set of facts about the monkey trials.

Even though little profit was made from the production, director Miss Mildred Peveto said she considered the show a success.

Mr. Meeker looks on as Rachel Brown pleads with Bertram Cates to surrender his fruitless battle before his career is destroyed completely by the opposition.

Mathew Brady and Henry Drummond wonder how they could become so distant when in the past they were such friends.

Betci Aaron, Barbara Renfro, and Judy Makowski work backstage with Gloria Murff on props and ideas for the play.

2800 Attend Musical, 'West Side Story'

Receiving acclaim as the most successful play in Sam's History, West Side Story set the stage for the school's first all-school musical production.

The show ran for three nights from Feb. 17-19. The Drama and the Choir Departments brought in over $3,600 from ticket sales. The show cleared over $2,500 in profits.

West Side Story deals with the prejudices of the American street gang, the Jets, and the Puerto Rican gang, the Sharks, in the New York City ghettos.

More than 80 students, juniors, seniors, and sophomores, gave their services in producing the play.

Riff and Bernardo meet in the gym before the group fight.

Maria is advised not to love Tony after he kills Bernardo.

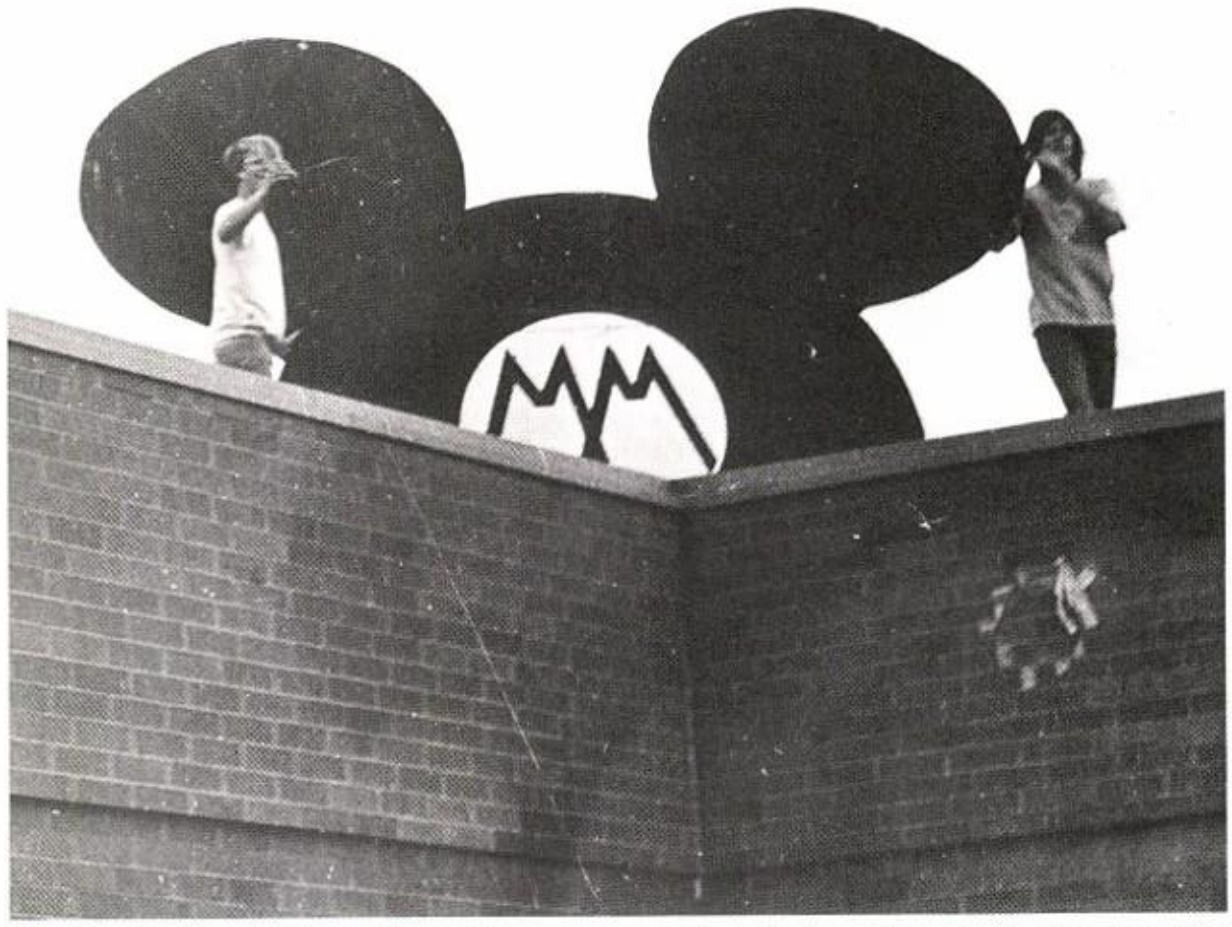
Singing Heard As Welcome

Howdy Day fell on the morning of Friday, Sept. 10. Although it came earlier than expected, it proved to be a successful initiation of the Sophomore Class to Texan spirit.

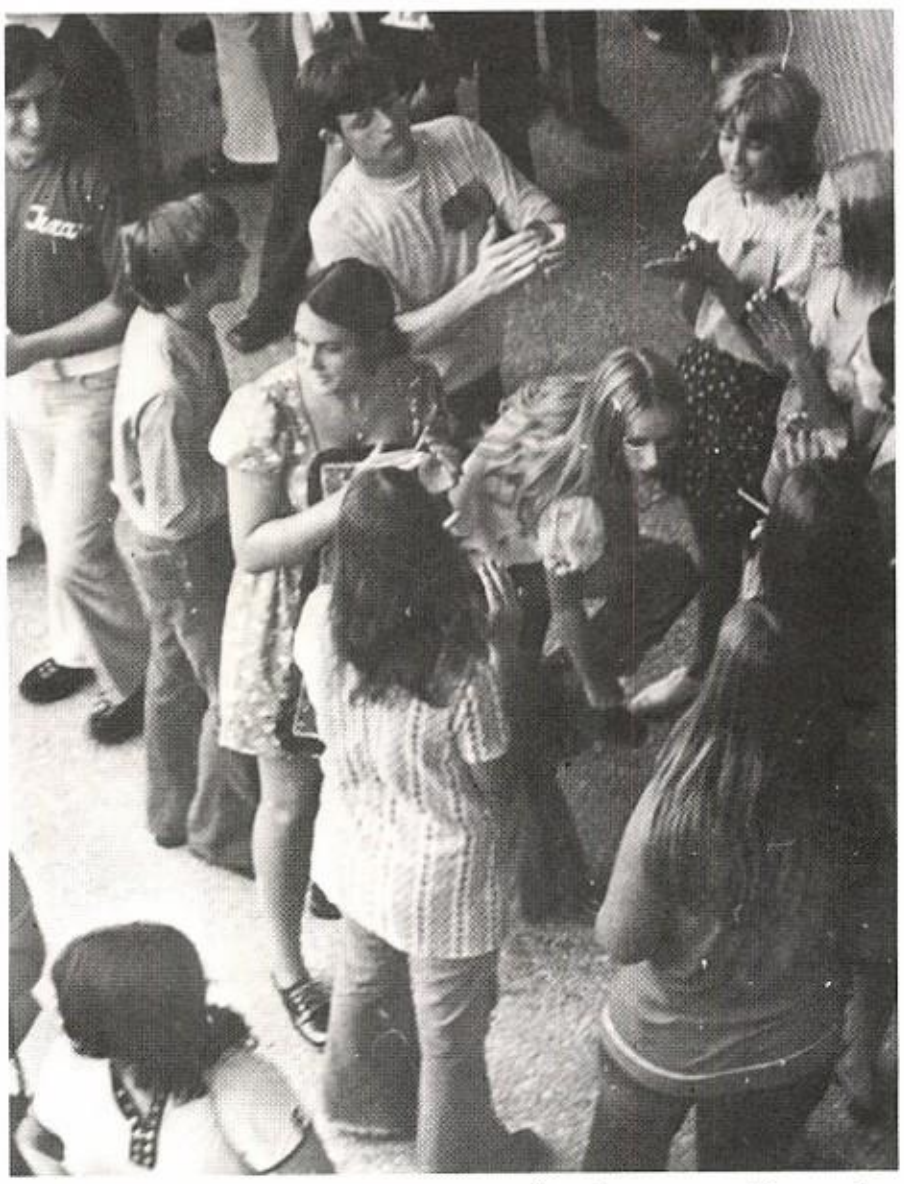
The first pep rally of the year for the game against Southwest set the stage for the slaughter of the Mickies. After the pep rally, seniors and juniors retreated to the courtyard where they anxiously awaited the release of the sophs from their "class meeting."

The singing session was continued until about 11 that morning. An assembly reenacting the tradition was scheduled for the following week's pep rally but was cancelled.

After the game that night was over, a dance was held in the cafeteria to round out the day's events.



On Howdy Day, Mickey Mouse becomes more than just a Disneyland character. The Mickey Mouse ears have become a symbol of sophomores before they become Texans.



Juniors find it is not as easy to "catch a mouse" as they thought it would be. Seniors are always easier to be found.

Jimmy Adkins and Pam Morris enjoy being able to pull rank on those underclassmen they have vowed to get even with.

West Relived At Sam City

On March 24, the Old West was revived as once again the Student Congress sponsored Texan Day. Held annually, the day permitted students to use their imagination not only with their dress but assuming the familiar characters and citizens of old western boom towns.

Constructed in the courtyard, "Sam City" was the scene for gun battles, saloon girls and a live show for spectators. Each building was erected by the joint efforts of two organizations.

A Texan Day Dance was held to climax the day's activities.

Junior Terry Johannesen thinks he might like it better in Dangerfield than in Sam City so he decides to get a ticket and leave on the junior-sponsored stage.

Darla Cochran, a newcomer to Sam Houston, found that hospitality around Sam City, and especially around the jail, was a little less than desirable when she was arrested and put in the house of detention by Sheriff Ron Lutz and his cronies.

Cheerleaders, Bellguards Back Texan Teams

Each year, 16 spirited Texans are elected to act as cheerleaders and bellguards to attend all athletic events and encourage school unity and enthusiasm at games and pep rallies.

Supporting all varsity team members this year were Karen Wiser, Donita Schenck, Sharon Apel, Ruth Acker, Debbie Gowin, Janie Clark, Pam Jankowiak and Lou Ann Underwood, while Jean Fearheiley, Carol McCants, Debra Mitchell, and Cindy Adkins cheered B-teamers.

This year for the first time SHHS Bellguards were chosen by the student body instead of the traditional selection by faculty members alone. Applications were reviewed by teachers, and finalists were later presented to the Junior and Sophomore Classes for a vote.

Guarding the Texan mascot and sounding its ring of victory for the '71-'72 season were Wayne Jolly, Cheryl Mitchell, Danny Henderson, and Judy Makowski.

AFS Student Enjoys American Activities

Ricardo Bogaert, Sam Houston's '71-'72 foreign exchange student is originally from the Dominican Republic in the Caribbean.

Raised on a plantation owned by his father, Ricky likes the neighborhood of his American family because of the short distances between friends in Arlington. He also has become friends with several of the area's Spanish speaking foreign exchange students.

Ricky is fond of music, enjoys bicycle riding, and has had the opportunity to make the track team here at Sam Houston.

The equivalent of a high school graduate in his native land, Ricky is interested in physics, calculus, economics, and politics.

Quick to appreciate some American customs and fads, Ricky doesn't mind trying something different, especially if it happens to be a new record album or tape.

Ricky finds enjoyment in almost any pastime, even though it takes concentrated effort. Chess is Ricky's favorite game when spending time with his brother Sam.

While at the Massey's home, Ricky also makes friends with the family pet.

Definition of School Spirit — Cheryl, Danny

First nominated by the Senior Class and then selected by the entire Student Body are Danny Henderson and Cheryl Mitchell as this year's Mr. and Miss School Spirit.

Continual participation in all school activities and their enthusiastic display of spirit served as the basis for their selection.

Having been a member of Texans Talk staff, Cheryl was active in Quill & Scroll for two years. She was also a member of Thespians.

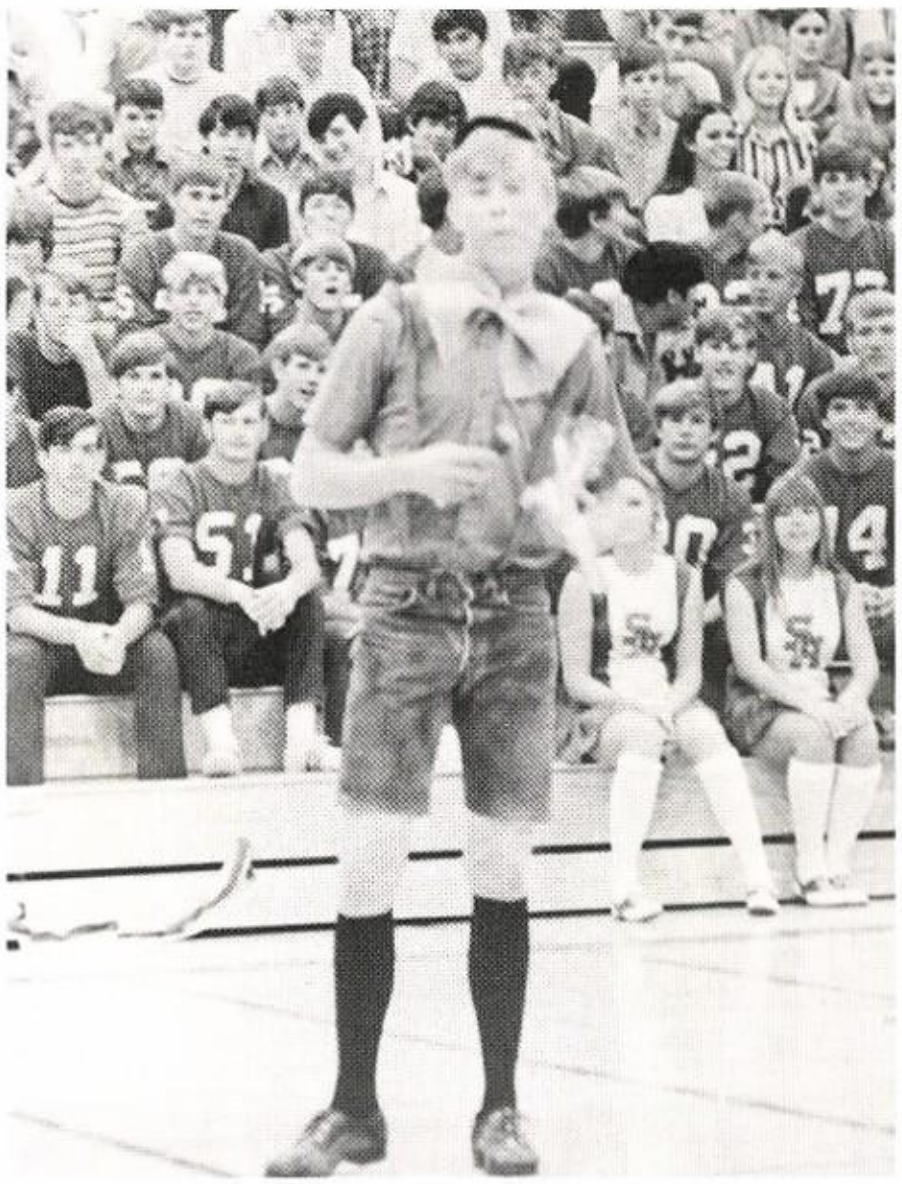
Cheryl served as a Junior Class social chairman and was nominated for Homecoming Queen. She was also elected as a bellguard.

Danny was an active member of A Cappella Choir and Thespians. He was elected as a bellguard and was a member of the Key Club.

Bellguard Cheryl Mitchell sings the alma mater at the end of a pep rally.

Along with his bellguard activities, Danny is part of the Singing Texans.

As she portrays the part of Dorothy in the "Wizard of Oz," Cheryl Mitchell pleads with the wicked witch of the West.



"What do you mean only sissies wear short pants and knee socks?" says Danny Henderson as he relives his childhood.

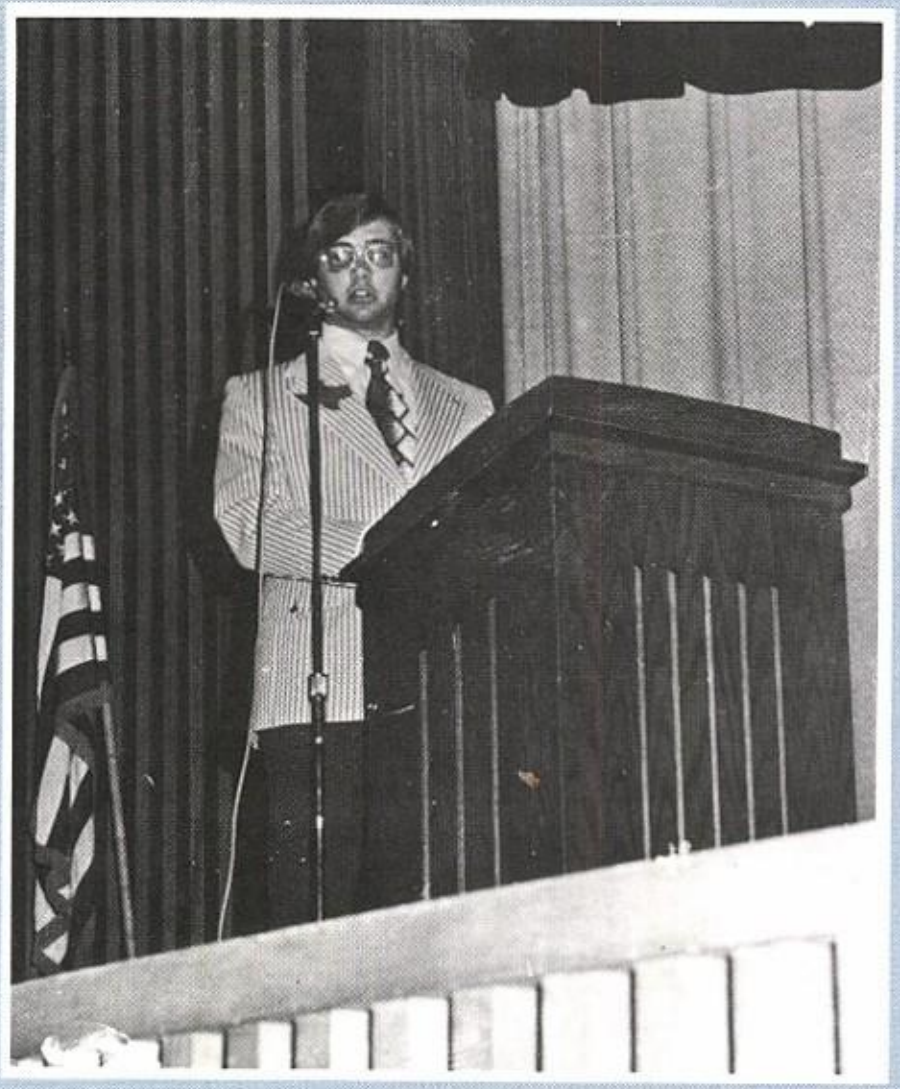
Besides being an active member of A Cappella Choir, Rex Perry puts in several extra hours practicing on some solo music to perform at weddings and luncheons.

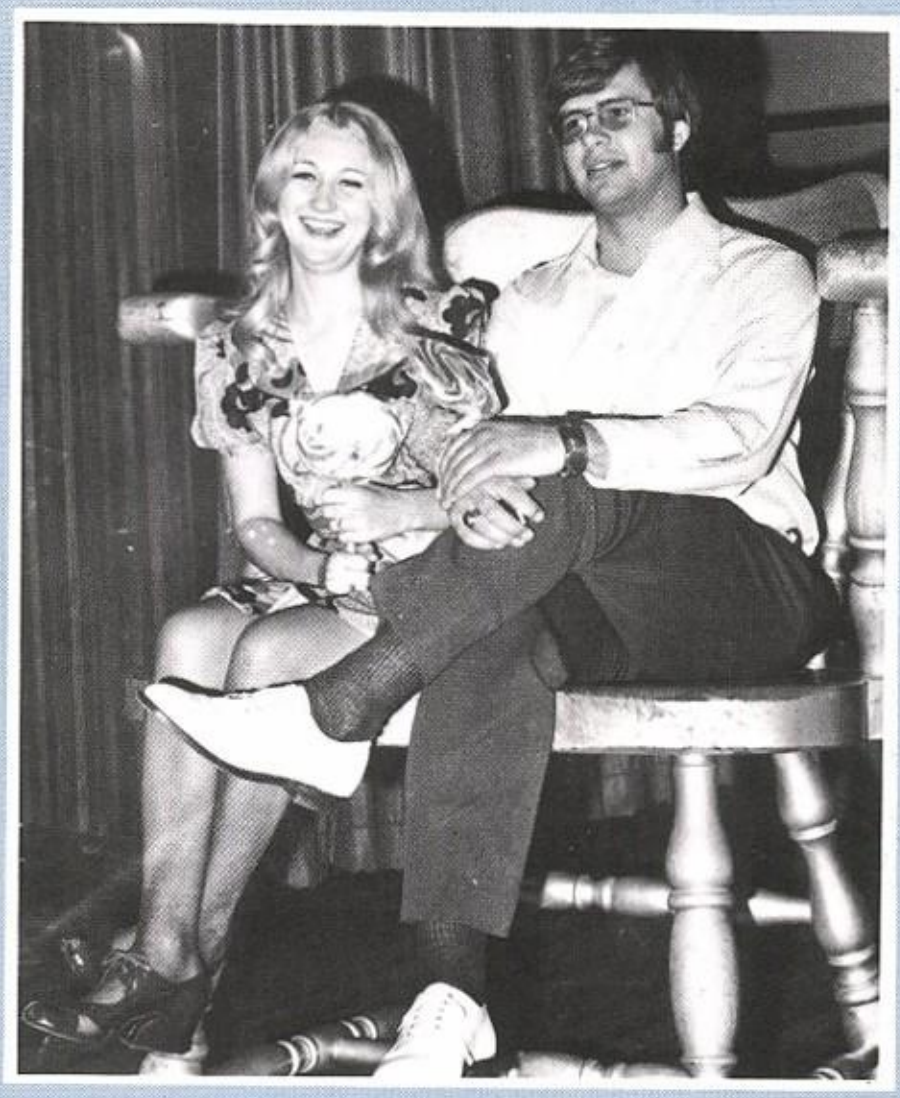
Climaxing the annual assembly on May 2, Cheryl Mitchell and Rex Perry were named Mr. and Miss Sam Houston. Elected by popular vote, they were chosen from a list of 12 seniors found to be outstanding in character and activities.

Cheryl has served as bellguard and was named Miss School Spirit. A page editor for Texans Talk, she was voted Most Valuable Staffer. An AFS member, Cheryl also played Dorothy in the "Wizard of Oz" and served as girls' social chairman her sophomore year.

Rex, Student Congress president and class officer for two years, has been a trainer for the football, basketball and track teams. Key Club vice-president, AFS social chairman and a cappella choir member, Rex was named an Outstanding Teen of America.

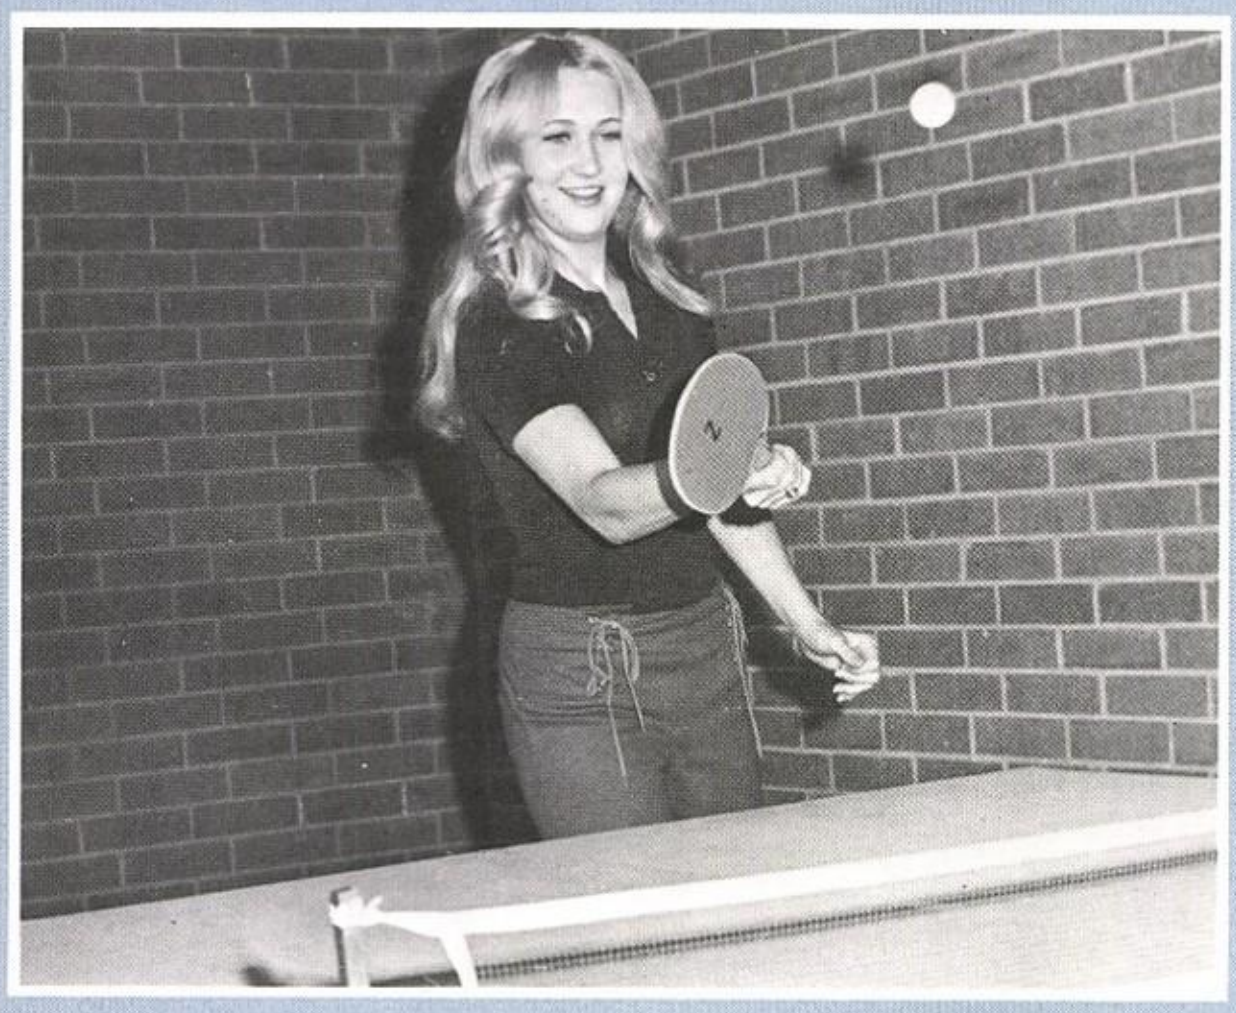


As one of his Student Congress responsibilities, Rex Perry leads the pledge and presides over all school assemblies.



After being selected Mr. and Miss Sam Houston High School, Cheryl Mitchell and Rex Perry relax while having a seat.

Chooses Rex, Cheryl Mr., Miss SHHS



During her time off from work, Miss Sam Houston, Cheryl Mitchell, enjoys a game of ping pong. Some of Cheryl's other interests include dancing and sports cars.

A member of Texans .Talk, Cheryl was elected as the Most Valuable Staffer.

As office assistant, Cheryl has many duties which keep her busy during the period. She is responsible for answering the phone and running errands for Mr. Remynse. Cheryl also issues parking stickers and lockers, along with taking inventory.

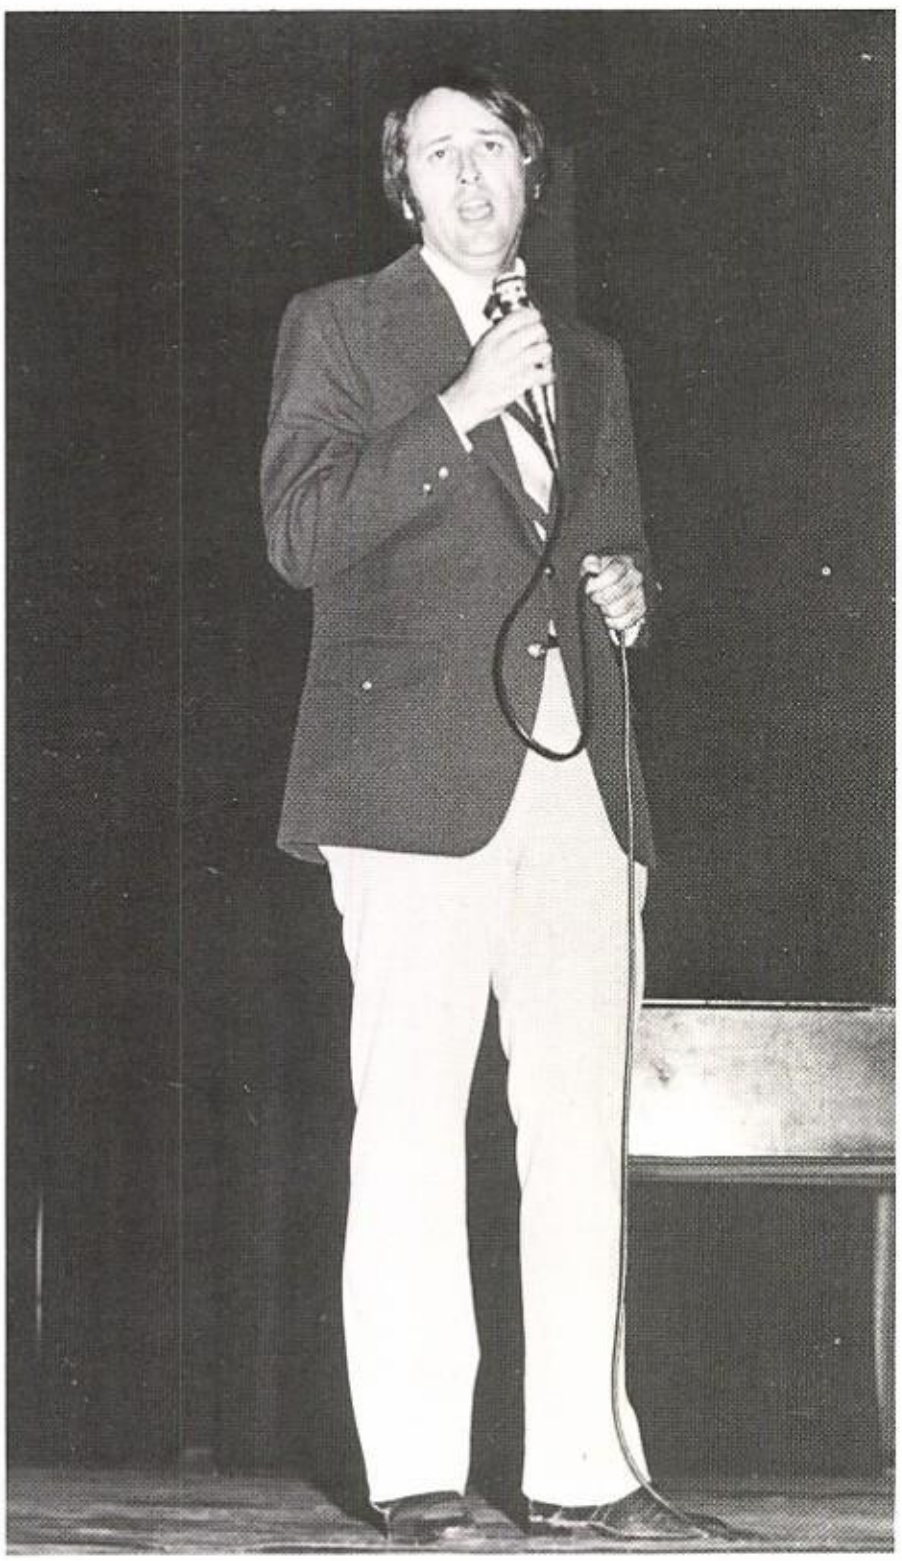
AFS Hosts First Follies

Faculty Follies, alias "The Tonight Show," was presented Friday, May 12. AFS sponsored and organized the presentation.

Proceeds from the ticket sales will go towards the financing of next year's foreign exchange student. The show was so successful that it may be held annually.

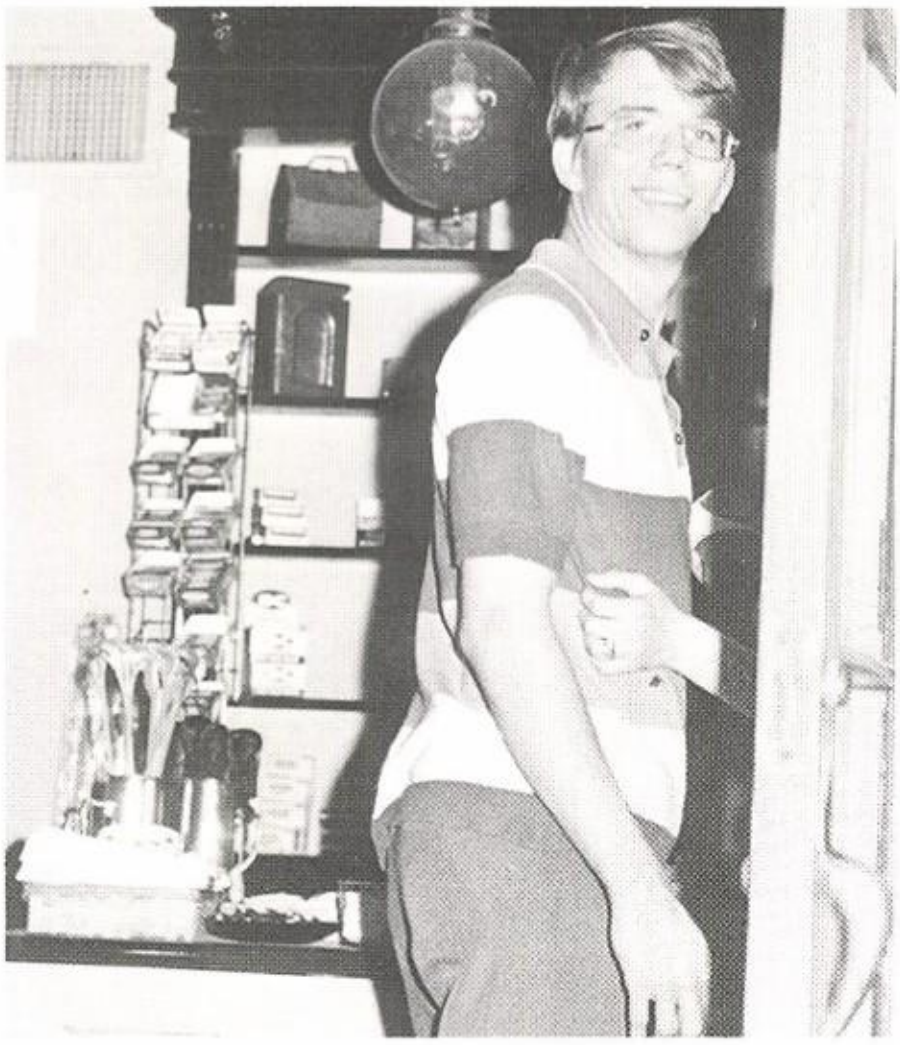
Students were shown a preview during two assemblies, while Mr. David Adams, Johnny Carson, and Mr. David Ware, Ed McMahon, introduced some of the highlights of the show in which 25 teachers performed.

Using the "Tonight Show" theme, Mr. David Adams presents many talented guests.

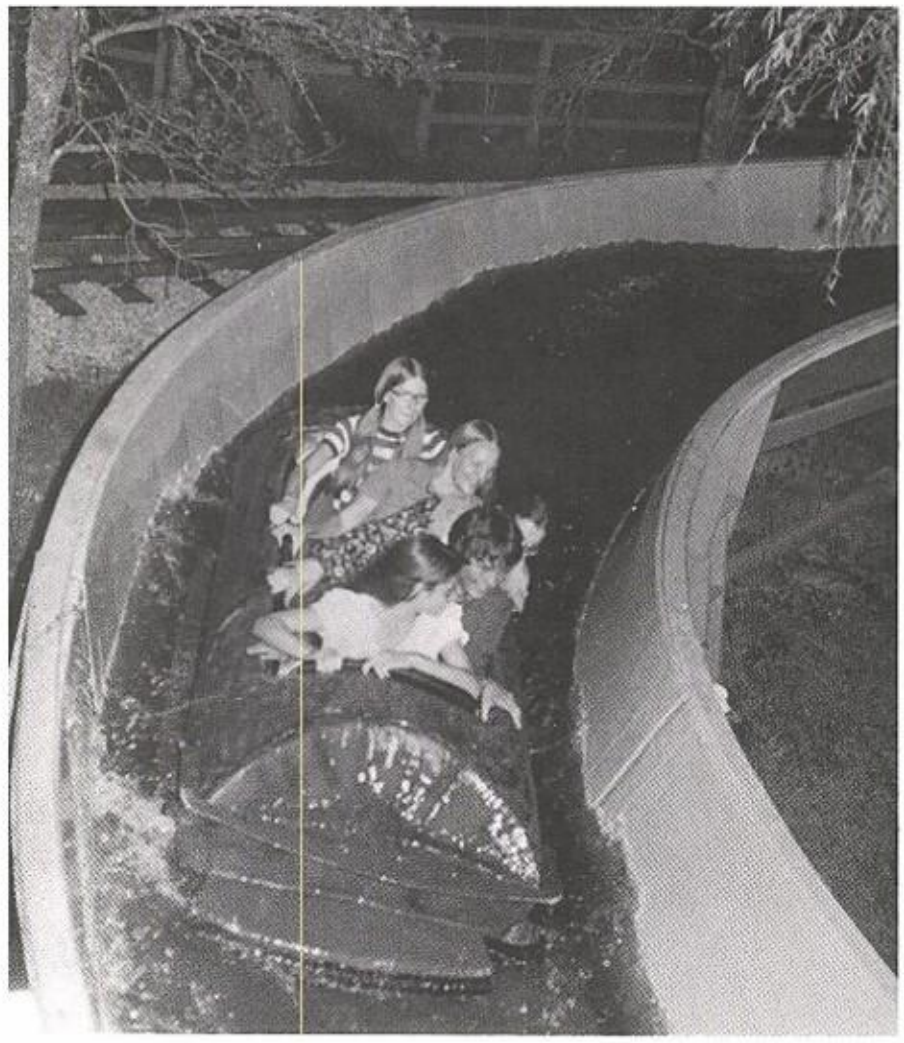


Mr. James Farmer makes his first appearance as a singer.

Mrs. Wietkoswki, alias Lily Tomlin, poses as an operator.



"Nope, I don't mind this at all!" Bob Cearnal says as he's dragged off by an unknown hand into the land of no return.



. . . And it's another successful and suspenseful run on the log ride on the seniors' night at Six Flags Over Texas.

Seniors Hold 'Flags' Party

The traditional senior social was held May 26 at Six Flags Over Texas. About 250 seniors attended the party. Groups of students from three other states also came.

Sponsored by the PTSA, members sold tickets to the seniors in the cafeteria. Several of the members also volunteered to chaperone the large crowds of students. The seniors were not allowed to leave the park until it closed.

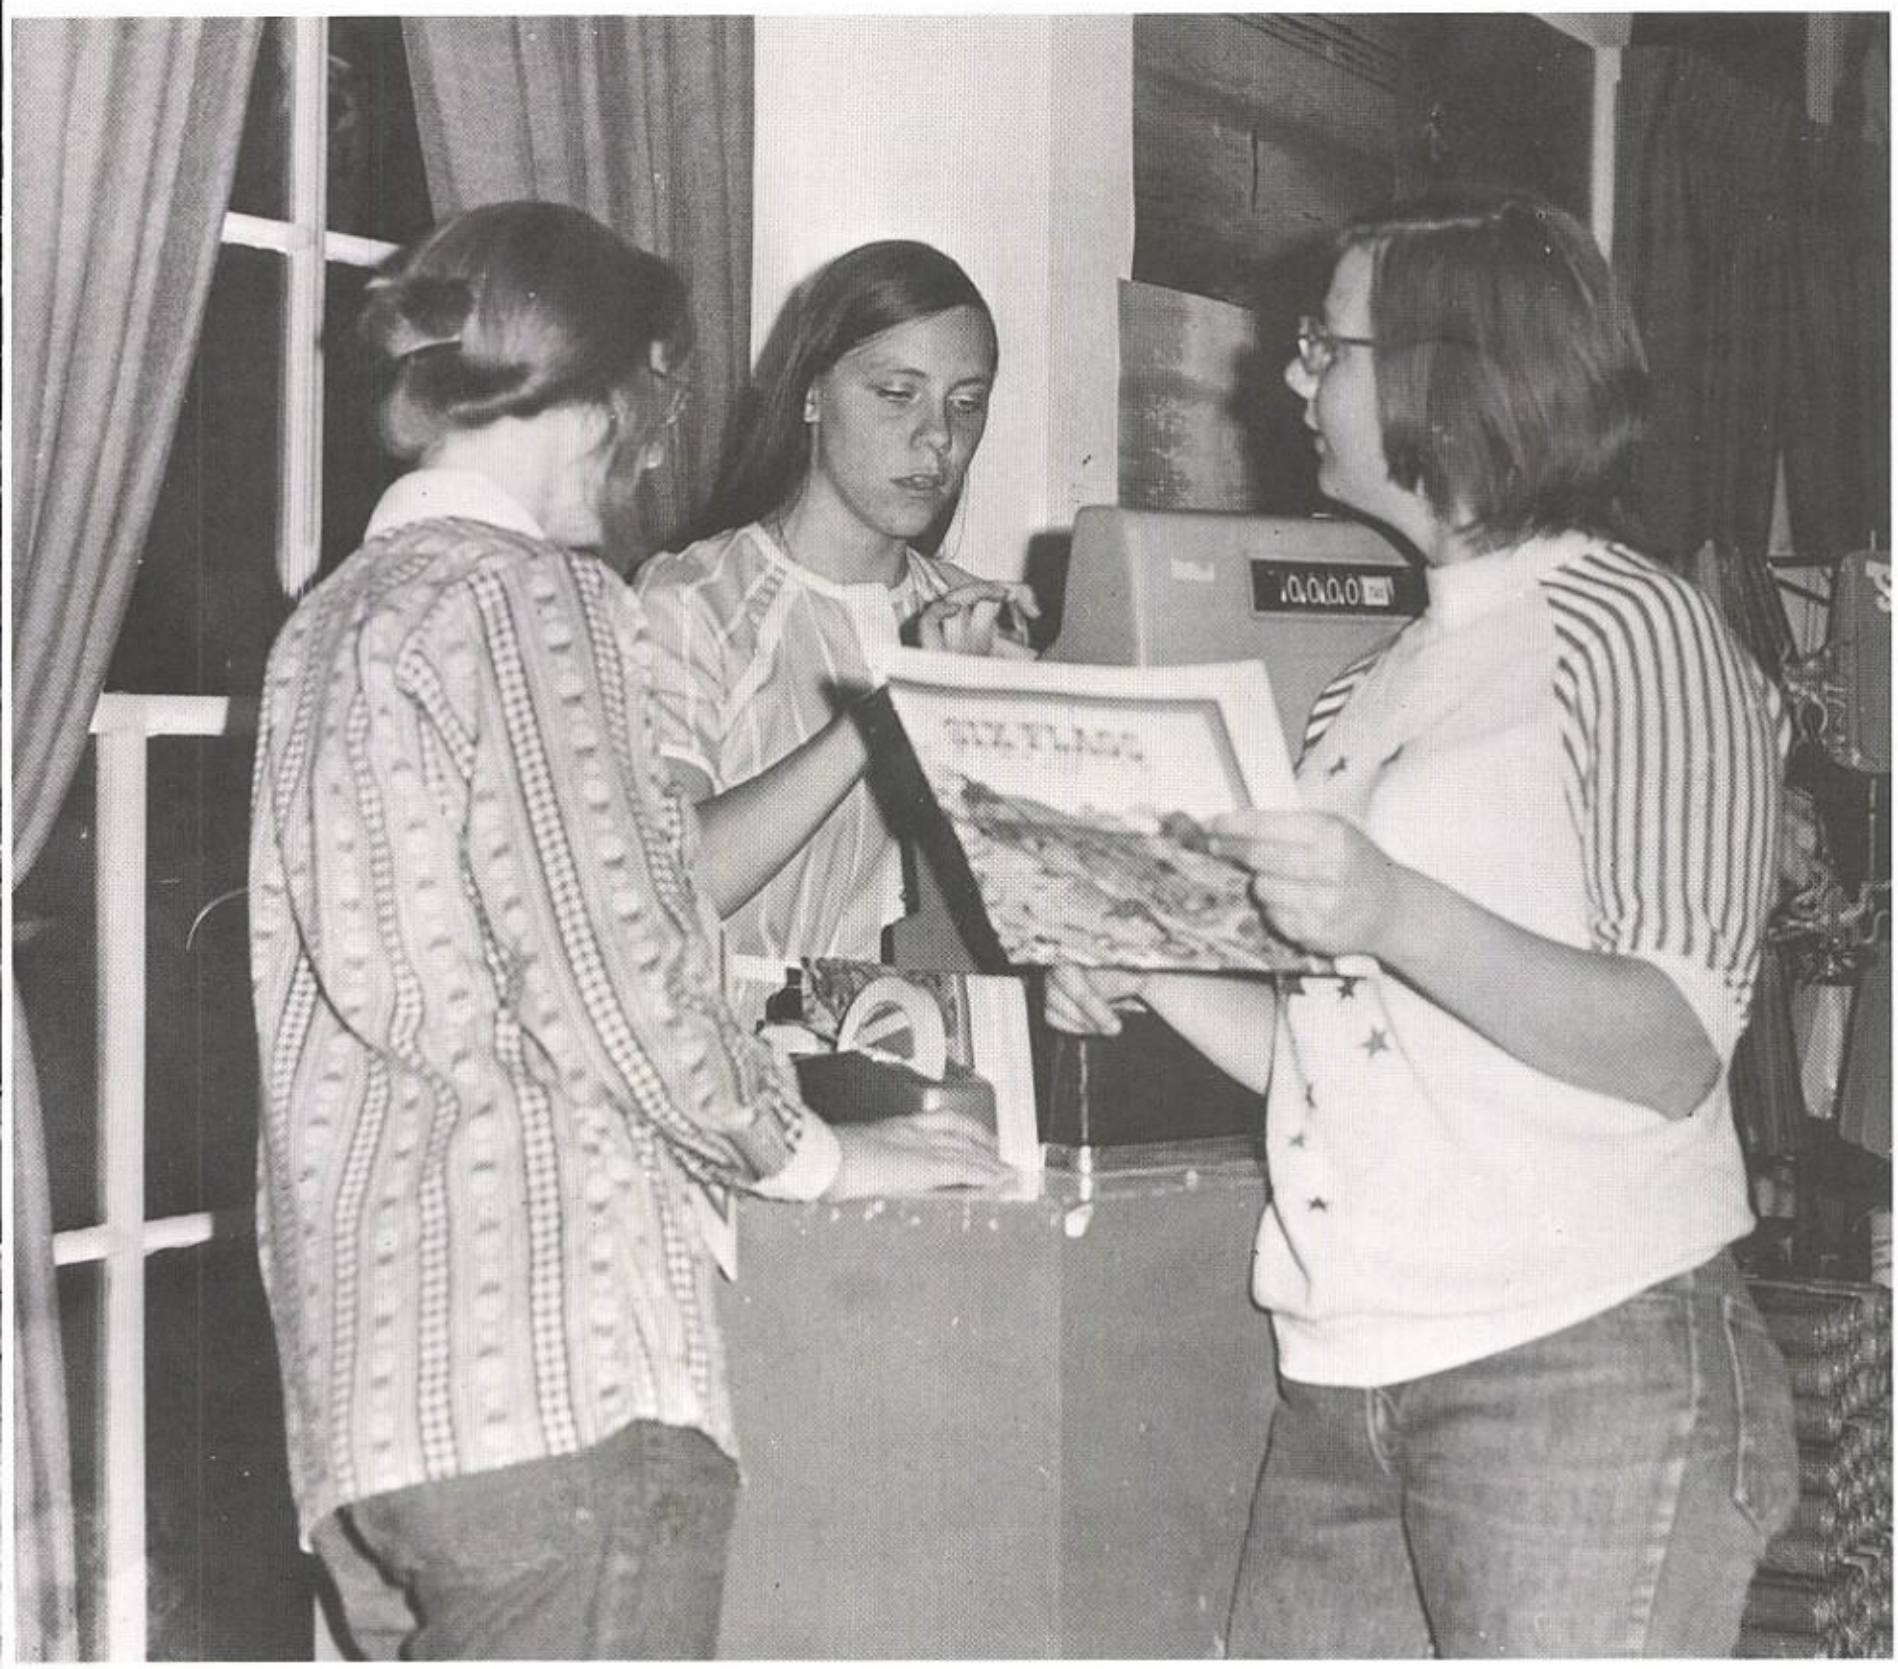
The park was open from 9 p.m. till 3 a.m. Tickets were sold for $6.50 per person. The price of the ticket included parking and also paid for the shows.

Three rock groups gave performances. The band "Texas," formerly "Courtship," played in the Southern Palace while the "Lead Stamp" performed at the bottom of the tower.

A local group called "Alice in Wonderland" put on numerous light shows in the pavilion.

The expressions on the faces of these seniors as they end their ride on the Big Bend testify to the statement that it is the "most exciting ride in the park."

Seniors from all over Texas and their guests gathered at Six Flags Over Texas on Friday, May 26 for the Senior All-Night Party. The park was open especially for seniors, and parents from the different schools served as chaperones for the event.



"Could you tell me how to get to the Runaway Mine Train from here?" Velinda Sloan asks Vicki Narramore, as she and Denise Lowe buy a map of Six Flags so they will be able to find their way around the rather large, and sometimes confusing, park.

Graduates Honored at Early Morning Meal

Sponsored by the Junior Class, the traditional Senior Breakfast was held on Friday, May 19. Sweet rolls, ham, orange juice, coffee, and milk were served to the senior students in the cafeteria.

The breakfast began at 6 a.m. while the "Sammie" Awards were presented to numerous deserving senior students at 7 a.m. Appropriate gag gifts were awarded.

Presiding over the awards ceremony were next year's bellguards, David Hicks, Barbara Acker, Glenn Davis and Sandy Petty.

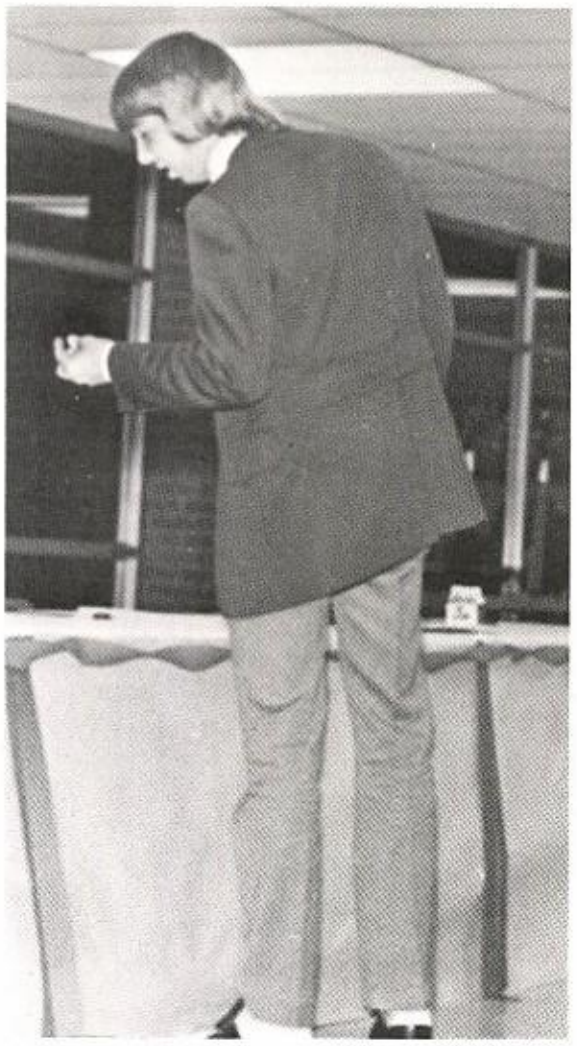
Everyone who was honored represented a letter in the alphabet.

Famous for being "the man-about-town-in-the-Jaguar," Wesley Karasek receives a minature replica of his "Jag" from the juniors, who can appreciate fine cars.

"You're gonna look like a girl!" Dan'l Gansert's told by Sandy as he gets beads for his "almost a hippie award."

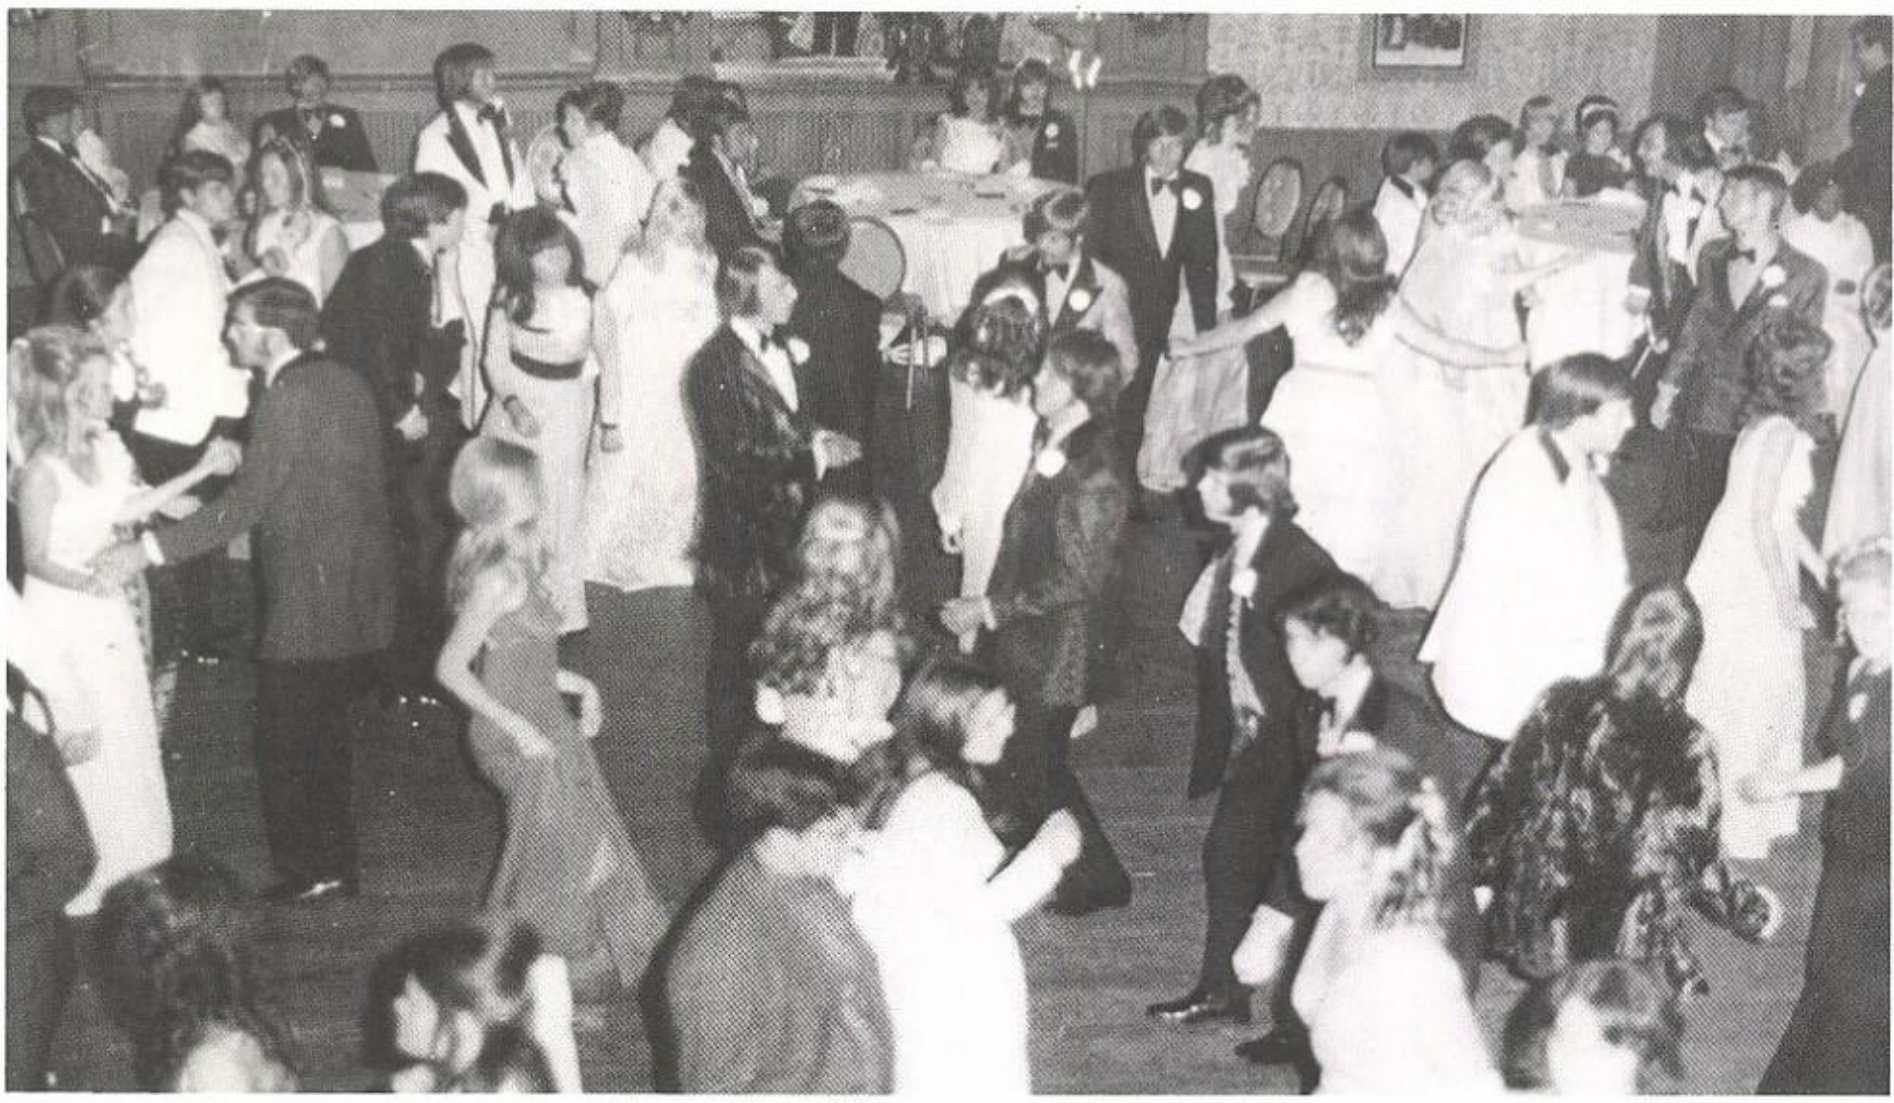
Graduates think about their futures as Janna Hopson sings "You'll Never Walk Alone" for the honored seniors, May 19.

As most other seniors, Rhonda Pennington finds the reward of coming to the Senior Breakfast barely surpasses the pain of having to get up at an earlier hour.



An idea to stop Vernon Gardner's frown is to present him with a smile button.

Many seniors showed up in the cafeteria for the first time this year to attend the Senior Breakfast held on May 19. Members of the Junior Class presented the entertainment and helped prepare food for the event held in honor of the seniors.



More than 240 people attended the dinner-dance. This third annual prom was held at the Golden Palace Ballroom at the Six Flags Inn in Arlington. The roast beef dinner began at 7 p.m. with the dance following at 9 and coming to an end at 12.

Golden Palace Site for Prom

On May 20, the Senior Class of '72 gathered in the Golden Palace Ballroom at the Inn of Six Flags for the annual Senior Prom. Tickets for the dinner-dance were $13.00, while $6.00 a couple paid for the dance alone. Over 200 attended the meal at 7 p.m., and others joined the dancing from 9-12.

This year's theme, "One thing is forever good, that one thing is success," was the subject of Mr. David Adam's talk as guest speaker. Honored guests, class sponsors, and seniors listened as they were told about the positive attitude needed to achieve success in life.

After a dinner including roast beef with gravy, green beans almondine, baked potato, salad, and a chocolate french eclair, couples danced to music provided by "Lynx." This local group also played for the senior dance in the fall.

"Lynx," the band that provided the music for the Senior Prom, also performed at the senior dance that was held in the cafeteria during the '71 football season.

Rex Perry is busy telling about his experiences as "Dr. Perry" to Bubba Gambrell, Janna Hopson and other members of their party. However, they are not as interested as Rex thinks they are; they just want to enjoy their meal in peace and quiet.

One of the guitarists of "Lynx," an Arlington group, entertains guests at the prom by playing modern dance music.

At the prom, ex-student Buddy Rose instructs Mr. Remynse on how to conduct his duties as the new principal next year.

12 Students Elected as Favorite Nominees

For his piano music, John Rainone was awarded the Chopin Accompanist Award.

Receiving the Daughters of American Revolution Award was Kaleen Hurley.

Awards, Scholarships Presented at Assembly

Forty students were recognized May 19 by school and community organizations. The occasion was the traditional Senior Awards Assembly held in the auditorium.

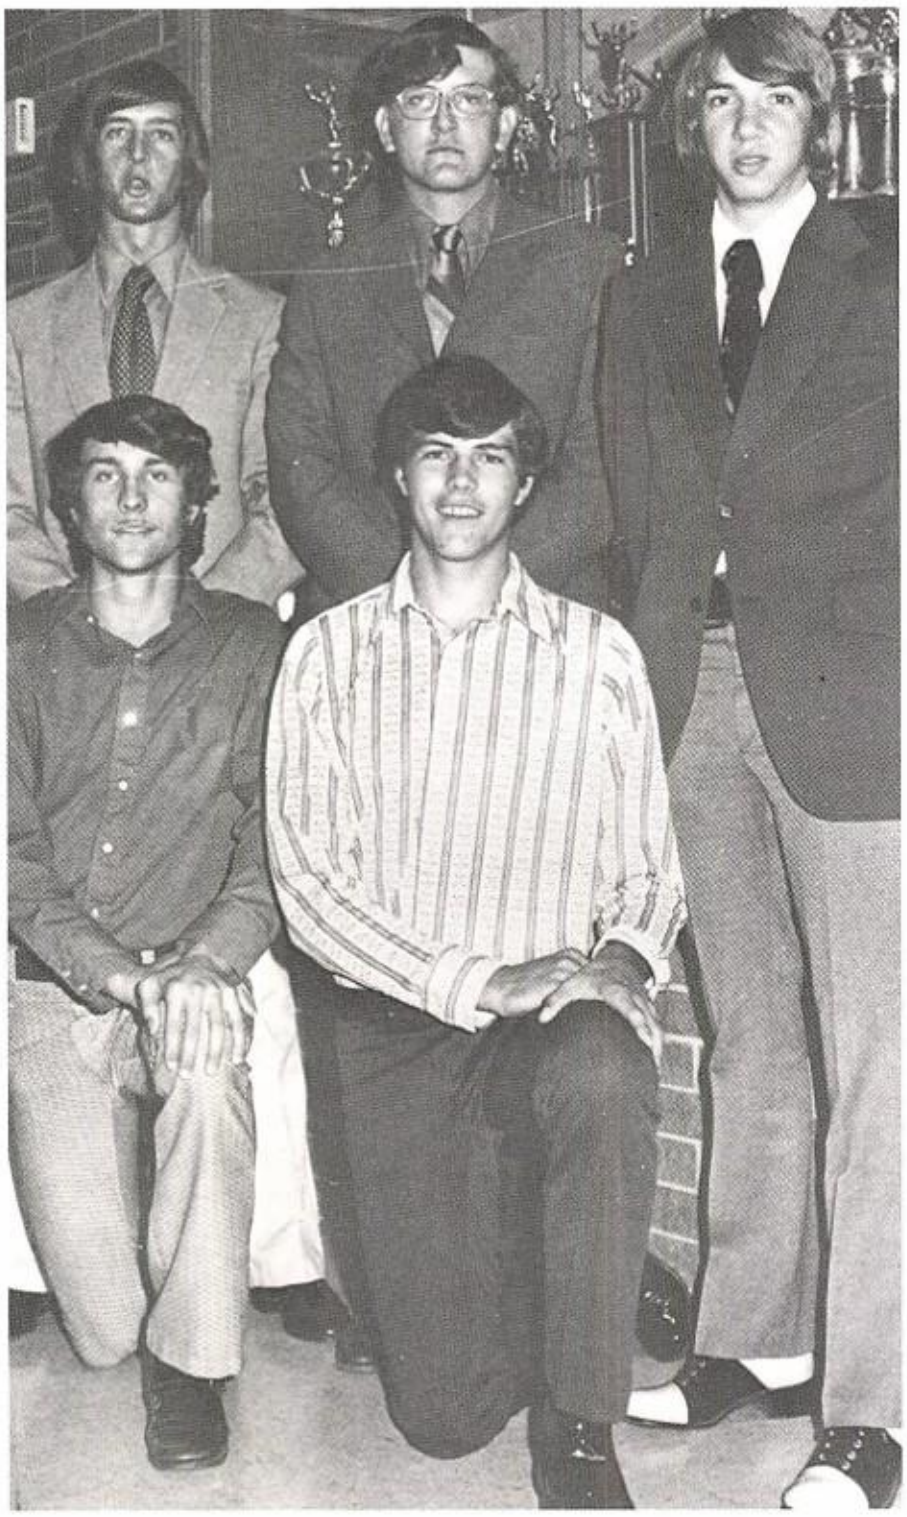
Participants in the program for juniors and seniors only included Mike Patterson and Craig Brinker, masters of ceremony; John Rainone, pianist; and the Texan Belles and the Singing Texans. Presentations were made by teachers, counselors, and service club representatives.

Cathy Pogar and Steve Cain were given Rotary scholarships to UTA for their high scholastic achievements. The American Legion award was given on the basis of service, character, and leadership to Karen Wiser and Bill George.

Kaleen Hurley was presented the DAR award for her participation in school activities, while the Mike Green Memorial Award was received by Dennis O'Donnell for his endeavors and excellence in sports.

Seniors who had won any honor or award during their attendance at Sam Houston and those who had previously been notified of scholarships were also recognized. The top 10 in academic standing from the Senior Class were announced.

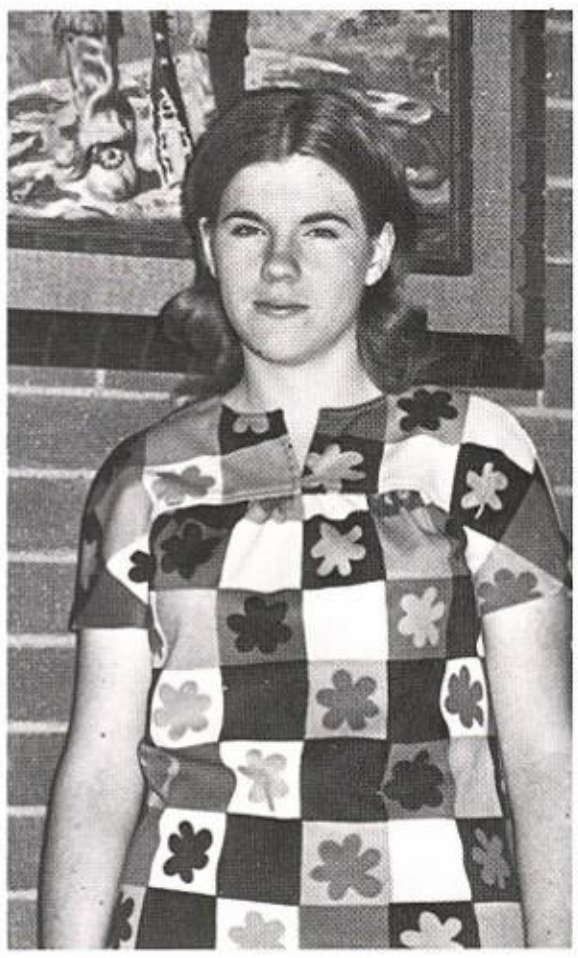
Mr. Bud Remynse presents the annual Rotary Award to seniors Steve Cain and Cathy Pogar for their involvement in the school and community.



Awarded college athletic scholarships were Grady O'Neal, Larry Cope, Vernon Gardner, Paul Acker, and Donny Latham.

Thom Ramsdell and Joy Beebe were the recipients of the Dr. Joe Rape and the Blanton Memorial nursing scholarships.

Receiving scholarships from the American Business Woman's Assocation were Suzi Anthony and Kathy Tadlock. The PTSA presented Wesley Nute with a scholarship.



The Arlington Civic Council PTA gave Sandra Cheney a scholarship to TWC.

The first 10 honor graduates are Ann Wettengel, Judy Makowski, Thom Ramsdell, Barbara Birdwell, Leah Camp, John Rainone, Steve Loving, Brenda Melton, Kathy Kennedy and Vicki Carusi. They were recognized at the Awards Assembly held on May 19.

Honors Given To Who's Who

Each year recognition is given to outstanding senior students for their achievements in a particular field of study.

These departmental awards are presented to the students at the annual Awards Assembly. Heads of each department choose one qualified student for the honor. Each receives an engraved plaque.

Departmental awards were given to Gay Cox, Judy Makowski, Susan Pitts, Stan Miller, Lisa Gregory, Margaret Honea, and Marla Stephens.

Other winners were Steve Cain, Vicki Carusi, Chris Krueger, John Rainone, Pam Polk, Gene Oldham, Brenda Dietrich, Bernard Egenberger, James Robinson, Ronald Johnson, and Terry York.

Other departmental award winners were Joyce Overman, Lexy Gunter, Marty Williams, Sammy Bass, Ginger Parker, John Kaemmerling, Sherry Atwood, and Tom Clark.

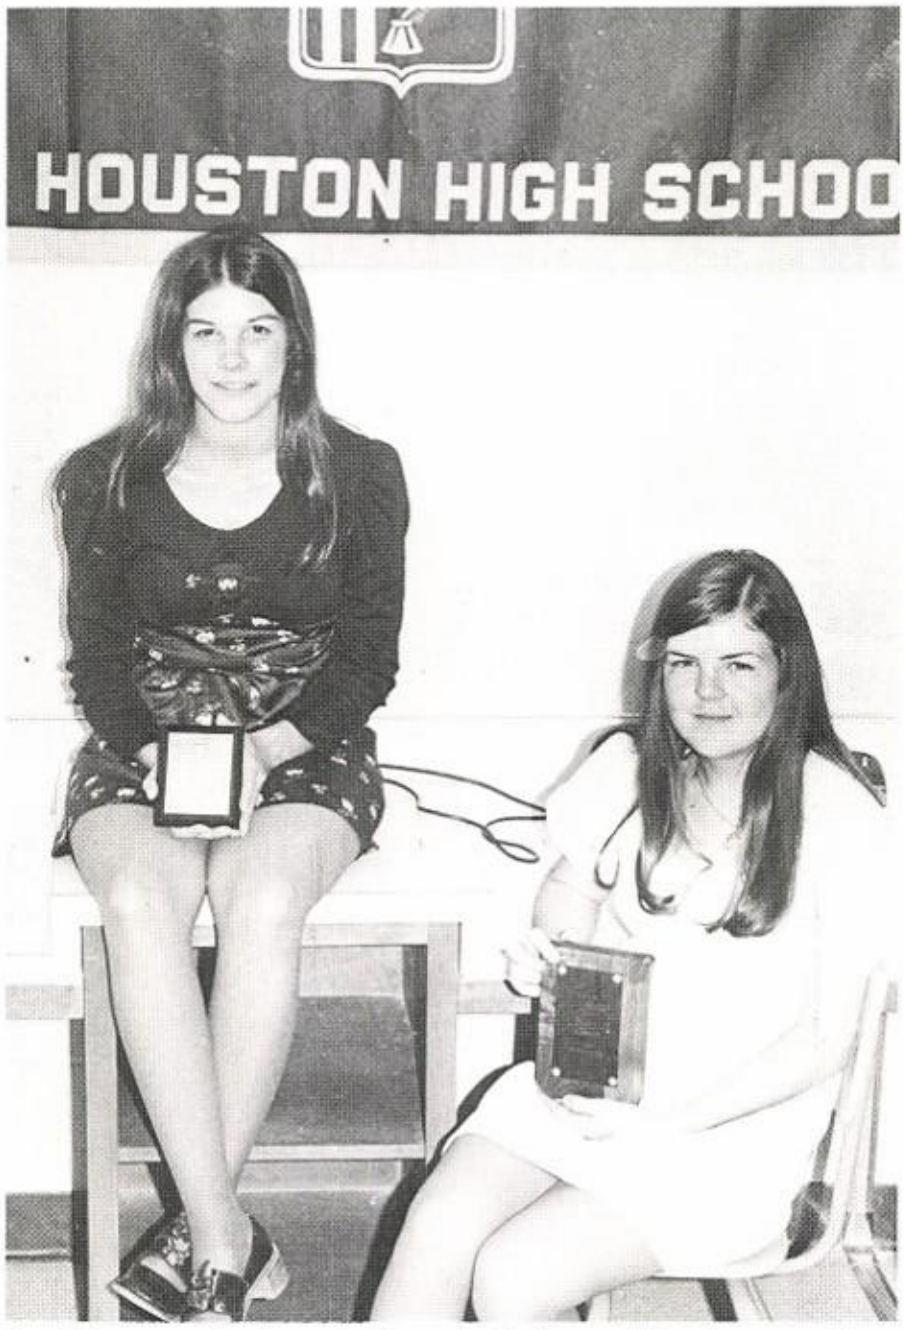
Receiving honors for achievement in the Social Science, Science, Math and English Departments are Chris Krueger, Vicki Carusi, Steve Cain, and Judy Makowski.

Recognized are John Rainone for speech and drama, Margaret Honea in foreign languages, and Stan Miller from the choir.

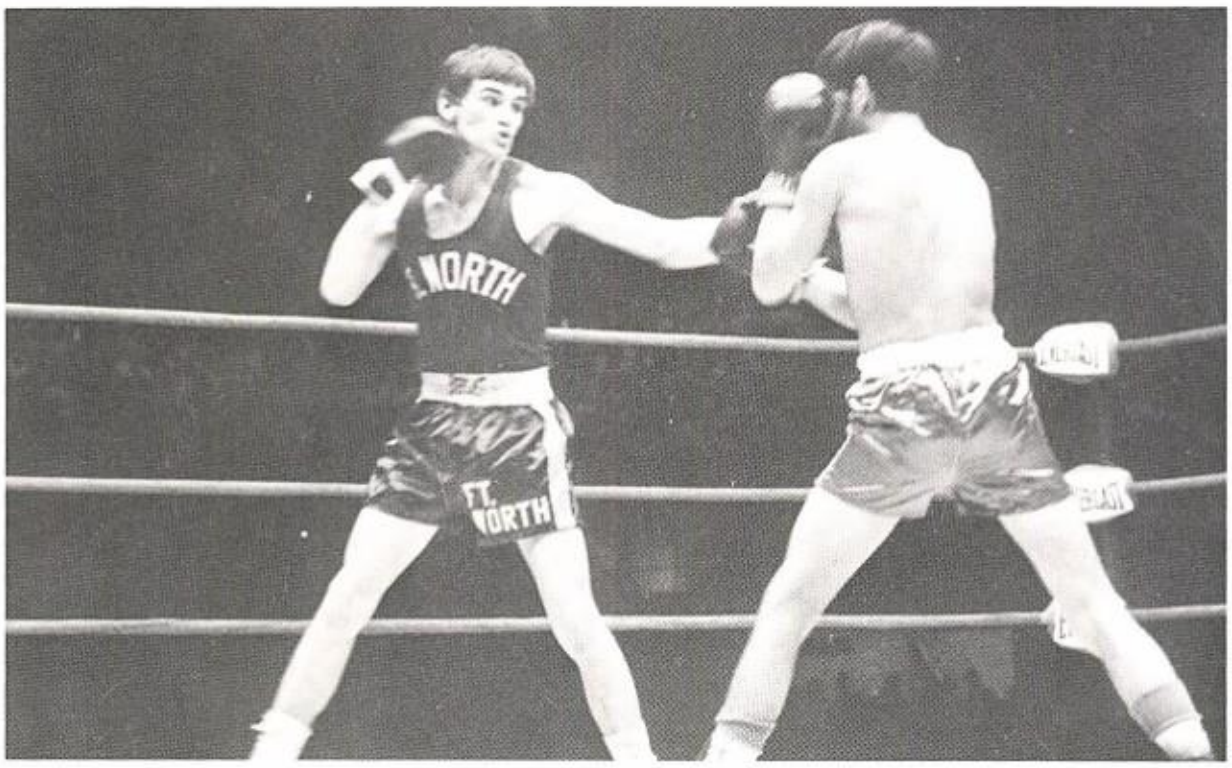
Given awards are Gay Cox from the Art Department, Pam Polk from the library staff, and Marla Stephens for journalism.

Excelling in a field of job training, seniors Tom Clark, Auto Body Repair; Gene Oldham, Industrial Cooperative Training; Sammy Batts, Building Trades; Brenda Dietrich, Industrial Cooperative Training; John Kaemmerling, Radio and TV Repair; and Lexy Gunter, Auto Mechanics; were recognized for their outstanding abilities and achievements during the Awards Assembly.

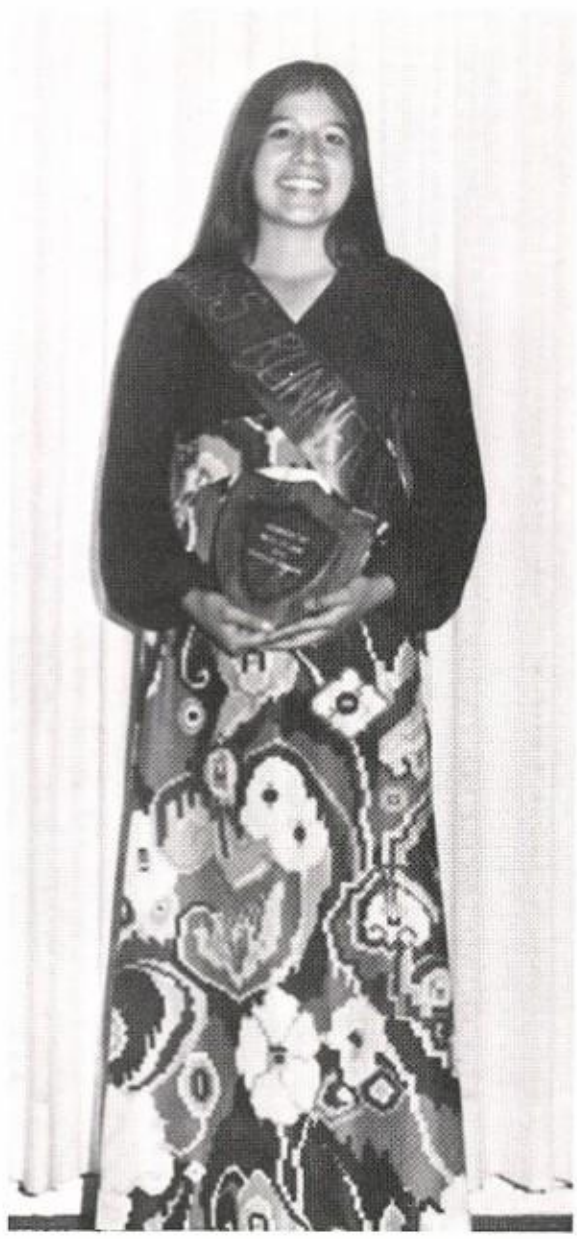
Recipients of 1972 departmental awards are Ginger Parker, HECE; Lisa Gregory, Homemaking; Sheri Atwood, Cosmetology.



Receiving awards from OEA and Business Education are Joyce Overman and Susan Pitts. Not pictured is Marty Williams, DE.



Boy of the Year for the Arlington Boys' Club, senior Ronnie Ford was the state champion for the featherweight division of the Golden Gloves Boxing Tournament.



During the Miss Flame Pageant, Teresa Uranga was selected first runner-up.

18 Receive Special Honors

Every year special honors are given to several outstanding students for their achievements.

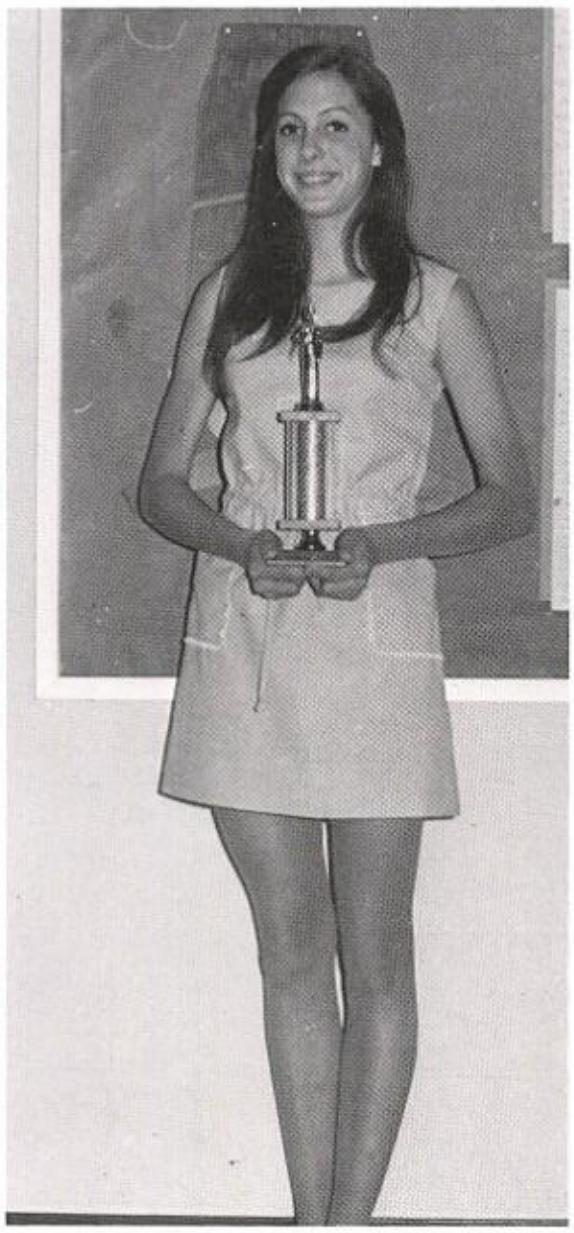
Rex Perry, Kaleen Hurley, Ron Lutz, and Karen Wiser were named Outstanding Teens of America.

Teresa Uranga was first runner up in the Miss Flame Contest.

Marla Stephens, Larry Maxwell, Judy Makowski, Vicki Carusi, Thom Ransdell, Steve Loving, and James Robinson were named Commended Students for their high scores on the National Merit Scholarship Test.

Ronnie Ford was named the state featherweight boxing champion.

Because of their participation in school and community activities, Ron Lutz, Kaleen Hurley, Rex Perry, and Karen Wiser became Outstanding Teens of America.



Lisa Love was voted Miss Congeniality by the '71-'72 Cinderella candidates.

Traveling to Austin for state competition, Jan Bunch won first in the 100-yard backstroke and 50-yard free style.

Honored as Commended Students, Marla Stephens, Thom Ramsdell, Vicki Carusi, Larry Mayer, Judy Makowski, Steve Loving, and James Robinson made high scores on their NMSQT.

Judy Makowski, National Merit Scholarship finalist, and Ann Wettengel, National Merit Scholar, discuss college plans.

Chamber of Commerce, Civic

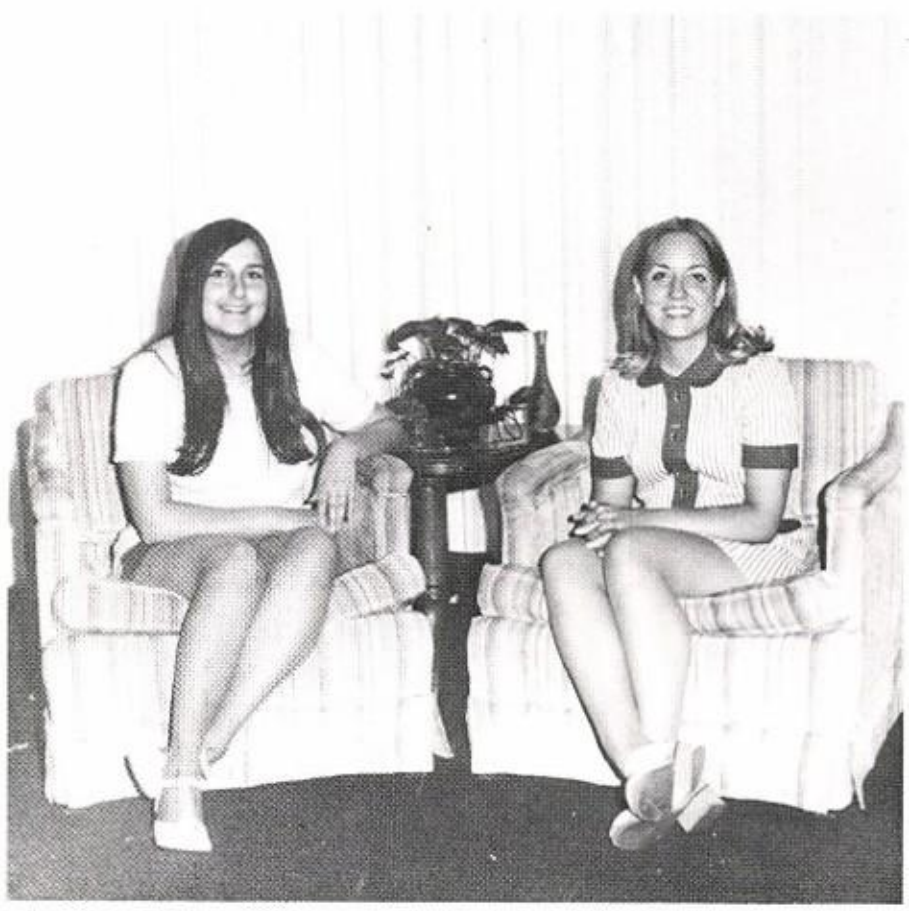
Each year the Arlington Civic League and the Chamber of Commerce sponsor 18 seniors as girls of the month. Chosen according to their character, scholastic achievement and participation in school activities, two girls are honored for each month during the year.

In April, the Arlington Civic League gave a salad supper for the girls and their mothers where Ann Wettengel was announced as girl of the year. The Chamber of Commerce scheduled a luncheon following a skit which the girls participated in and organized.

At the luncheon, December girl Donita Schenck served as the vice-president.

Representing the Chamber of Commerce as girl of the month for November was Tracey Ashton. October girl was Karen Wiser and Sandy Tichenor was chosen for January.

The Chamber of Commerce recognized Kaleen Hurley, Brenda Melton, and Barbara Johannesen in March, April, and May.



Acting as September and February girls of the month for the Chamber of Commerce are Cynthia Farhat and Chris Krueger.

Club Recognize 18 Seniors

Designated as Arlington Civic League's girls of the month were Vickie Braziel, May; Marla Stephens, April; Cheryl Mitchell, December; and Sharon Apel, October.

Chosen from a group of nine girls, Ann Wettengel was named girl of the year.

Arlington Civic League girls of the month, Stacy Johnson, January; Ann Wettengel, September; Karen Dority, March; Cindy Bode, February; and Judy Makowski, November; were honored with a salad supper in the Richard Cavender home.

Ann, Judy, Thom Earn Most Grade Points

Earning top scholastic honors as valedictorian is Ann Wettengel. Ann has maintained an average of 12.200 throughout her four years in high school. She is an active member in the National Honor Society, American Field Service, and is president of FLC.

Another first occurred at Sam this year with the presentation of double salutatorians. Sharing the title of salutatorian are seniors Judy Makowski and Thom Ramsdell. Both of the honor graduates have maintained a grade point average of 12.100 for four years.

Judy has been an active member of A Cappella, American Field Service, National Honor Society, and treasurer of Thespians.

A member of the National Honor Society, Thom received the Dr. Joe Rape Award. He was named a National Merit Commended Student.

Long, bare legs peek out from the "midi" graduation robes which are in direct contrast to today's hot pants styles. However, nobody was any the wiser for the dress which didn't show except for the various boots, sandals, and colorful clogs.

574 Graduate from Senior Class of '72

Anxiously awaiting the presentation of the valuable "sheepskin," the first row, made up of the honor graduates, is signaled to rise and begin the procession.

Climaxing the end of a 12-year career of study, the Senior Class of '72 commencement exercises were held on Friday, June 2 at 8 p.m. in UTA's Texas Hall.

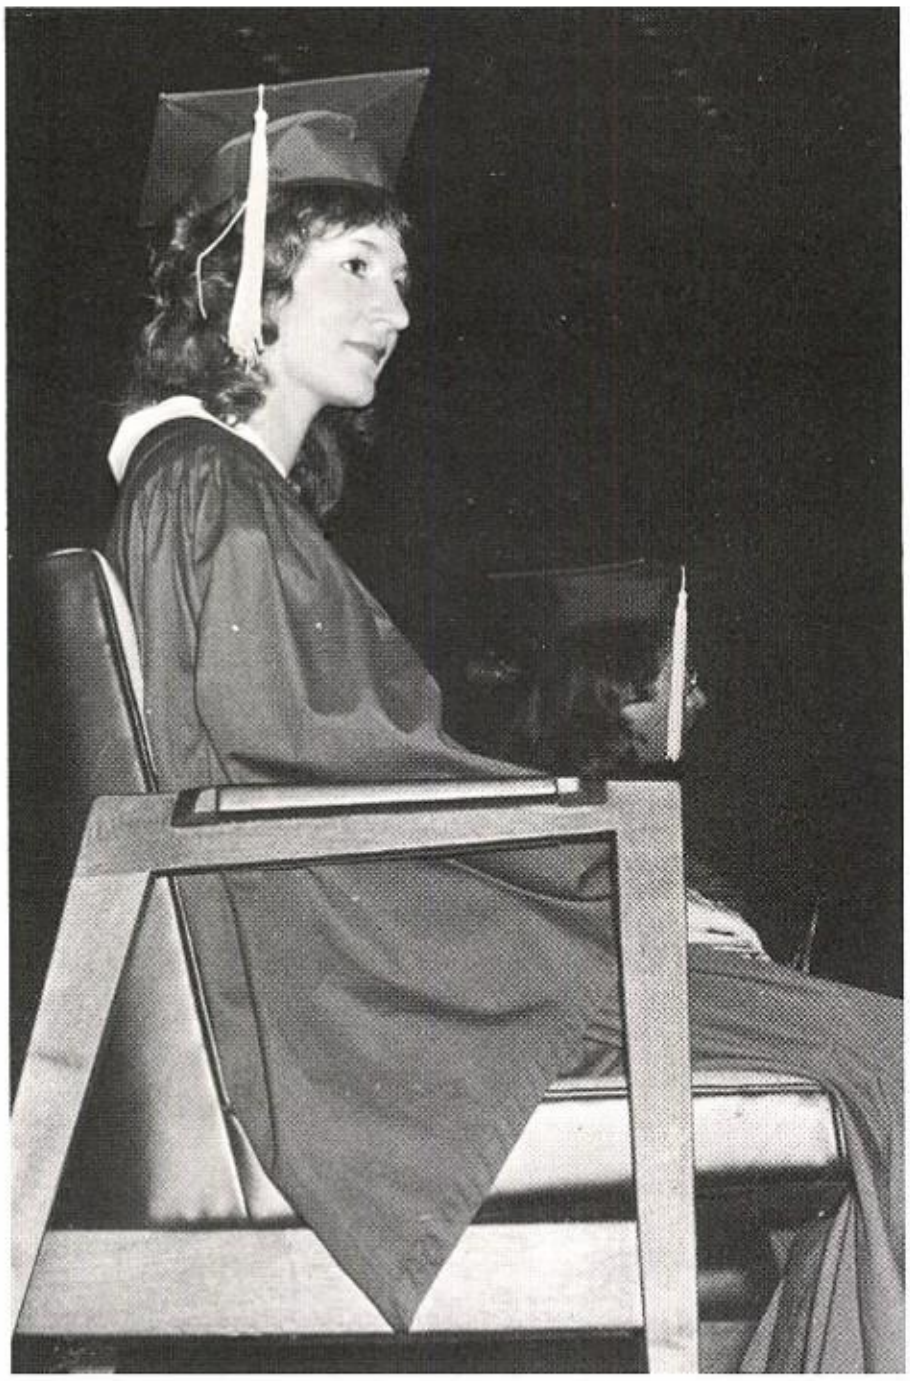
Vice Principal Bud Remynse and Band Director Robert Roper handed out 574 diplomas to the seniors.

Beginning the commencement exercises, salutatorians Thom Ramsdell and Judy Makowski delivered their speeches. Valedictorian Ann Wettengel then talked on "Faith."

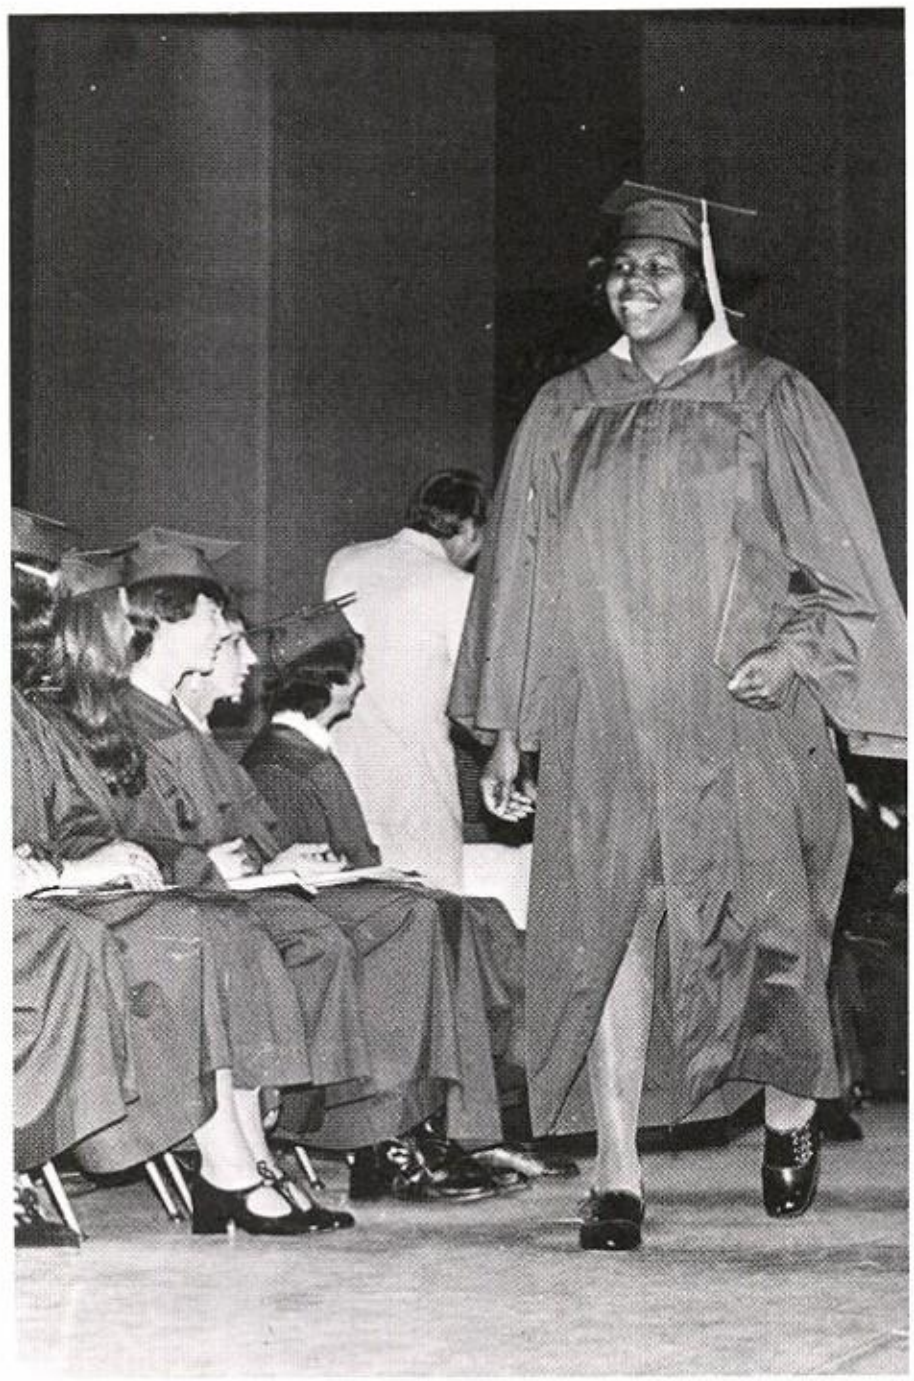
On the retirement of Mr. Key, he received an honorary diploma, a plaque and three pieces of luggage from the student body.

Baccalaureate services were held May 28 in Texas Hall. Reverend D. Warren Neal of the First Presbyterian Church spoke to the class.

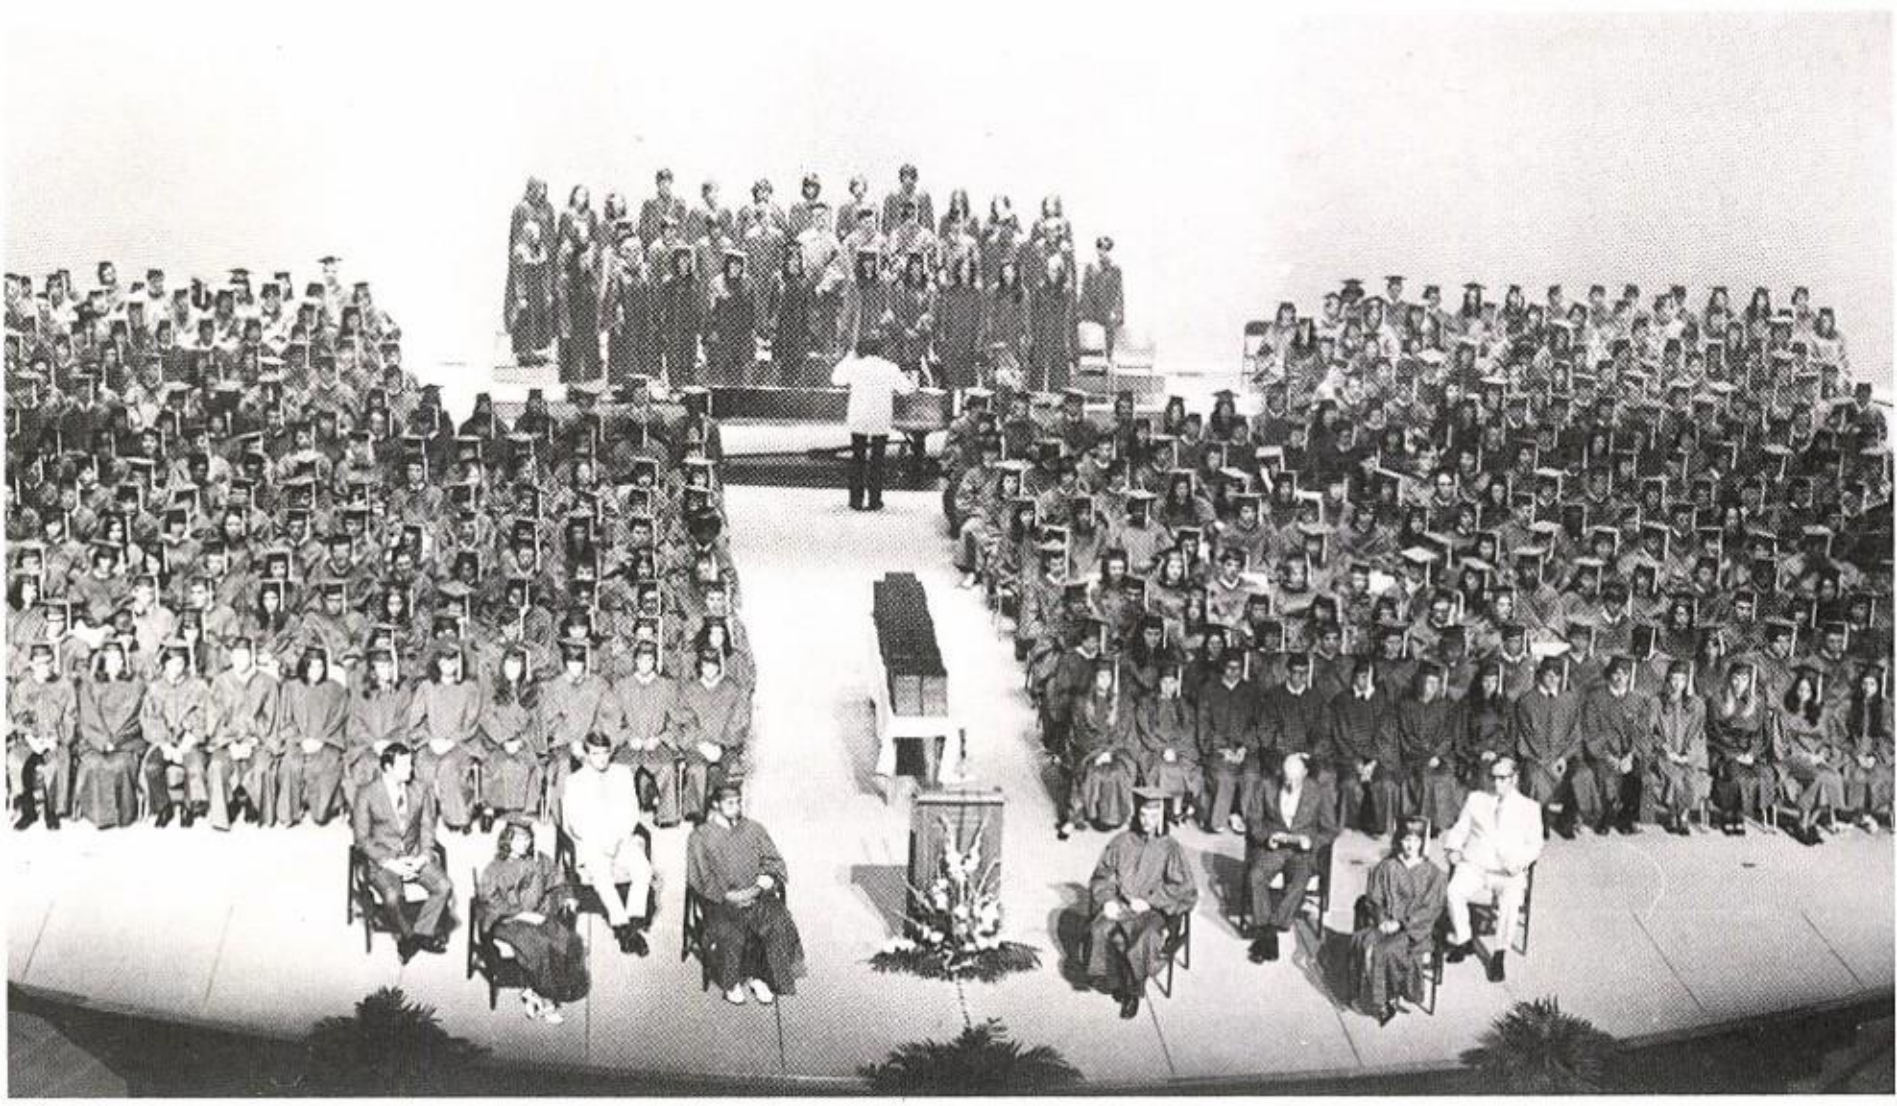
Mr. Key is presented with a diploma and plaque in appreciation of the nine years that he was Sam Houston's principal. He was also given three pieces of Samsonite luggage from the student body to be used for any travels during his retirement.



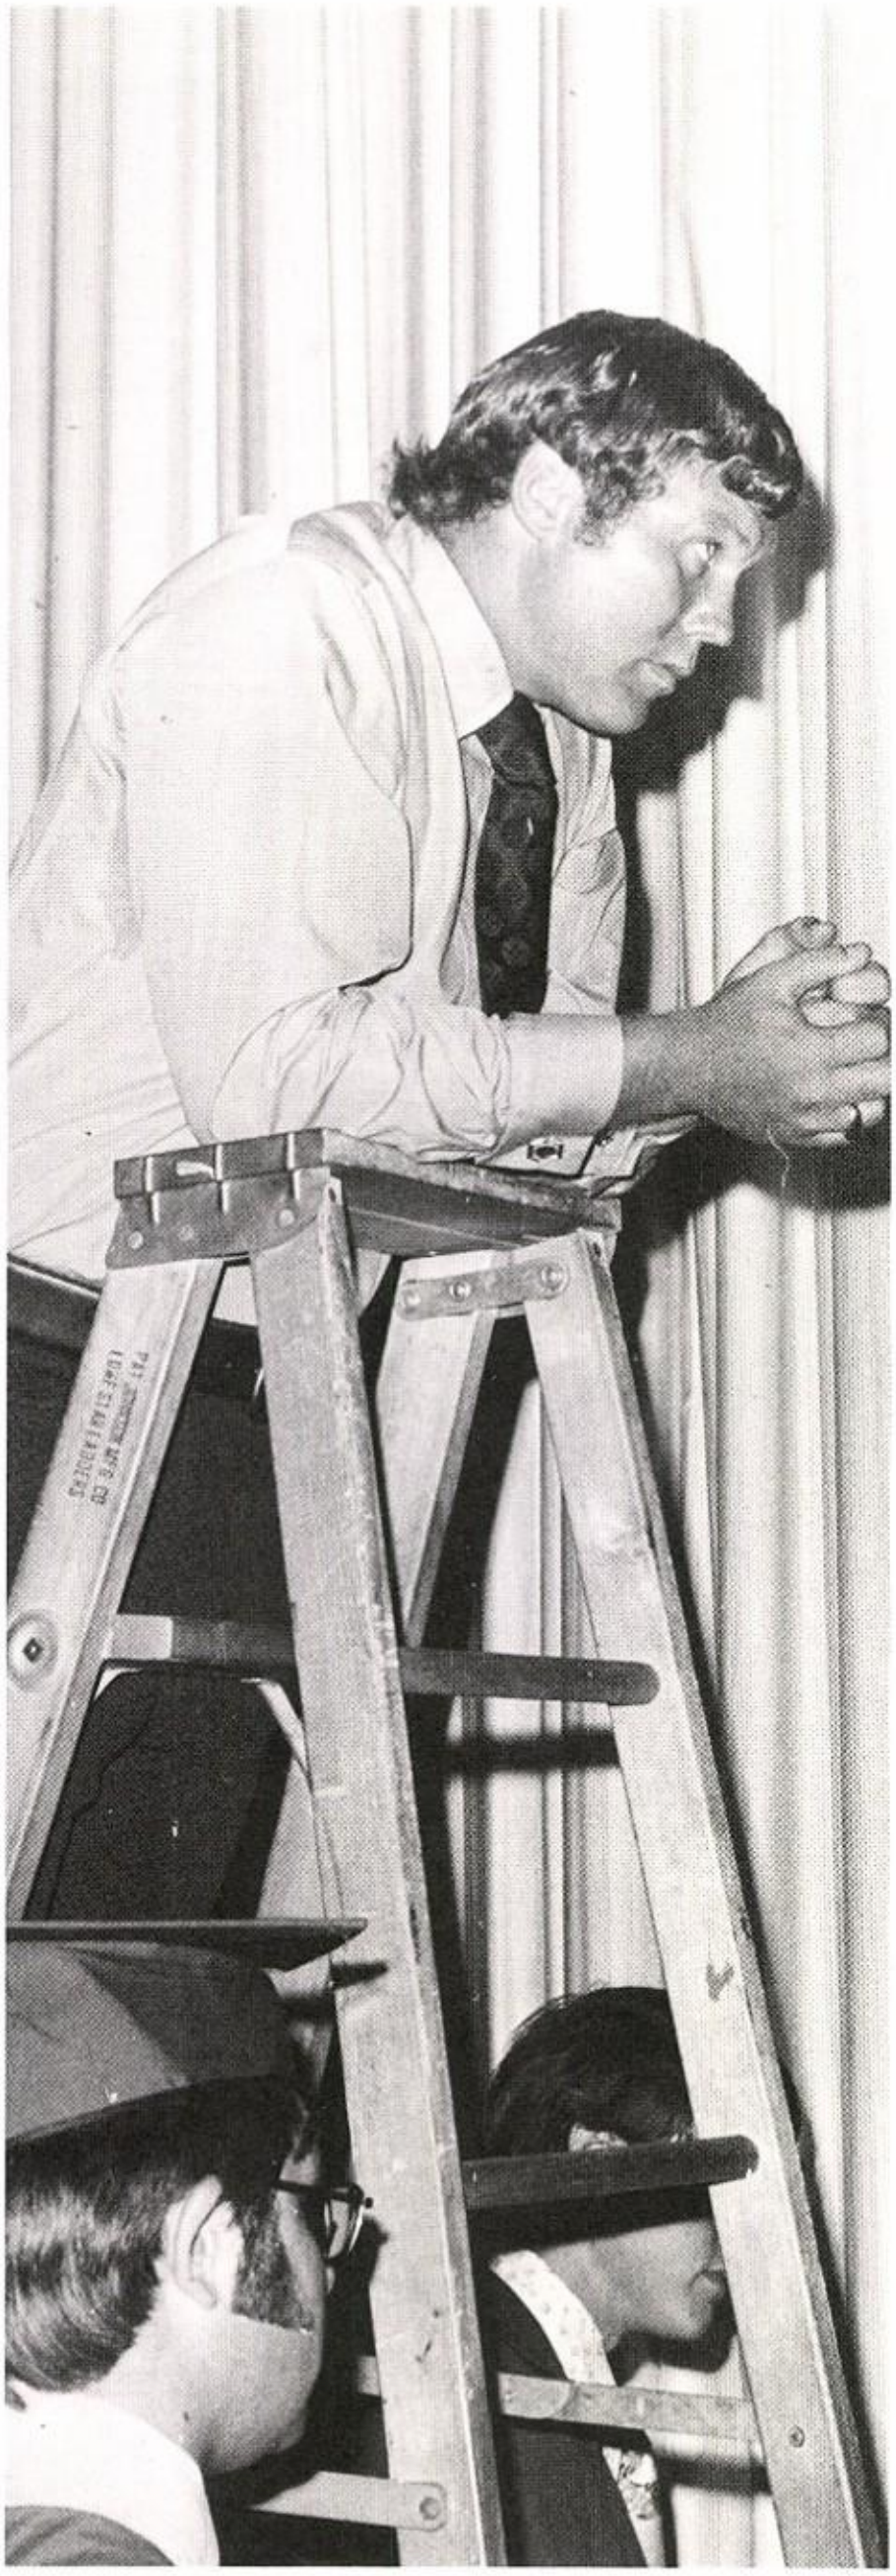
Ann Wettengel listens to the other speeches before giving the final essay on the subject "Faith in Simple Manhood."



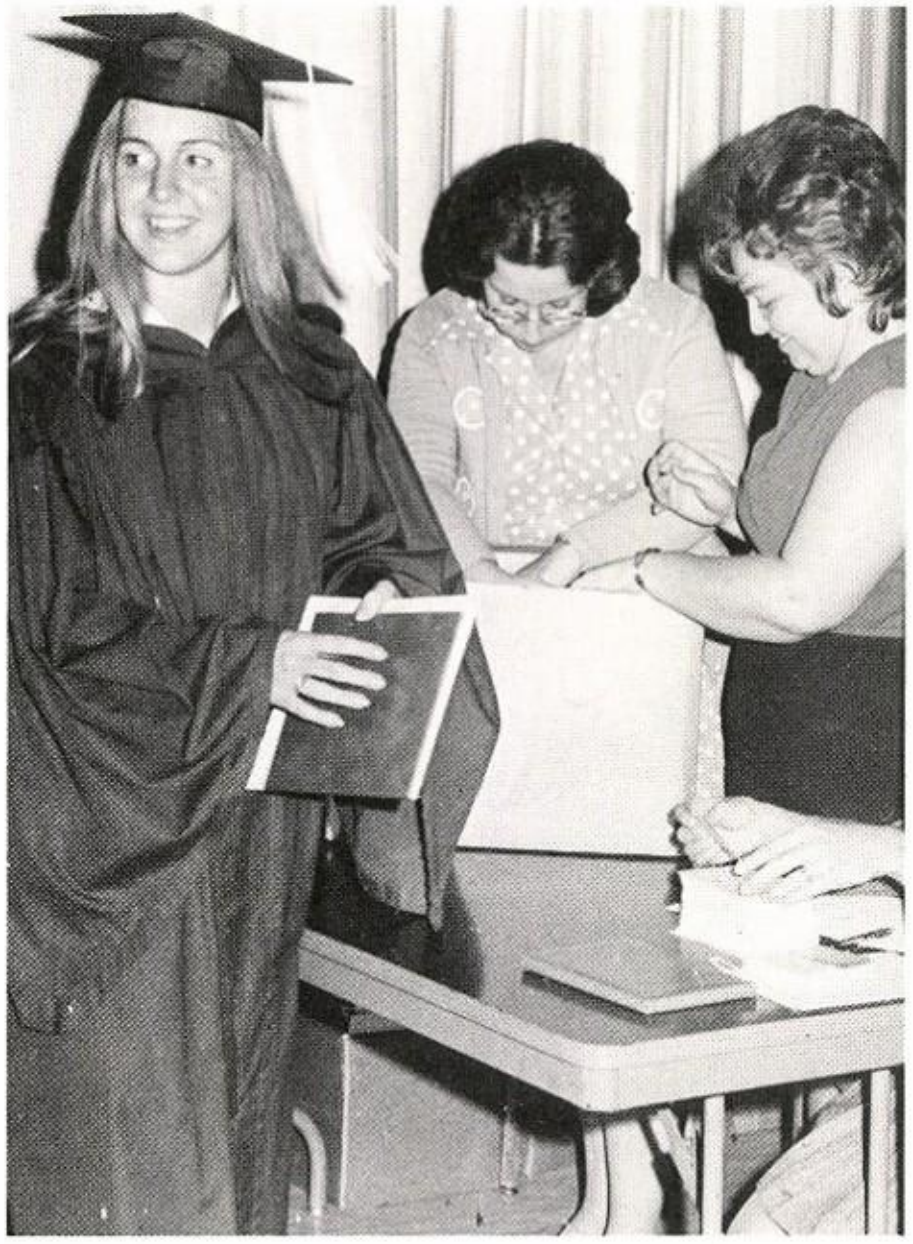
Everybody is smiling, including Joyce Gilbert, after she danced across the stage in celebration of her graduation.



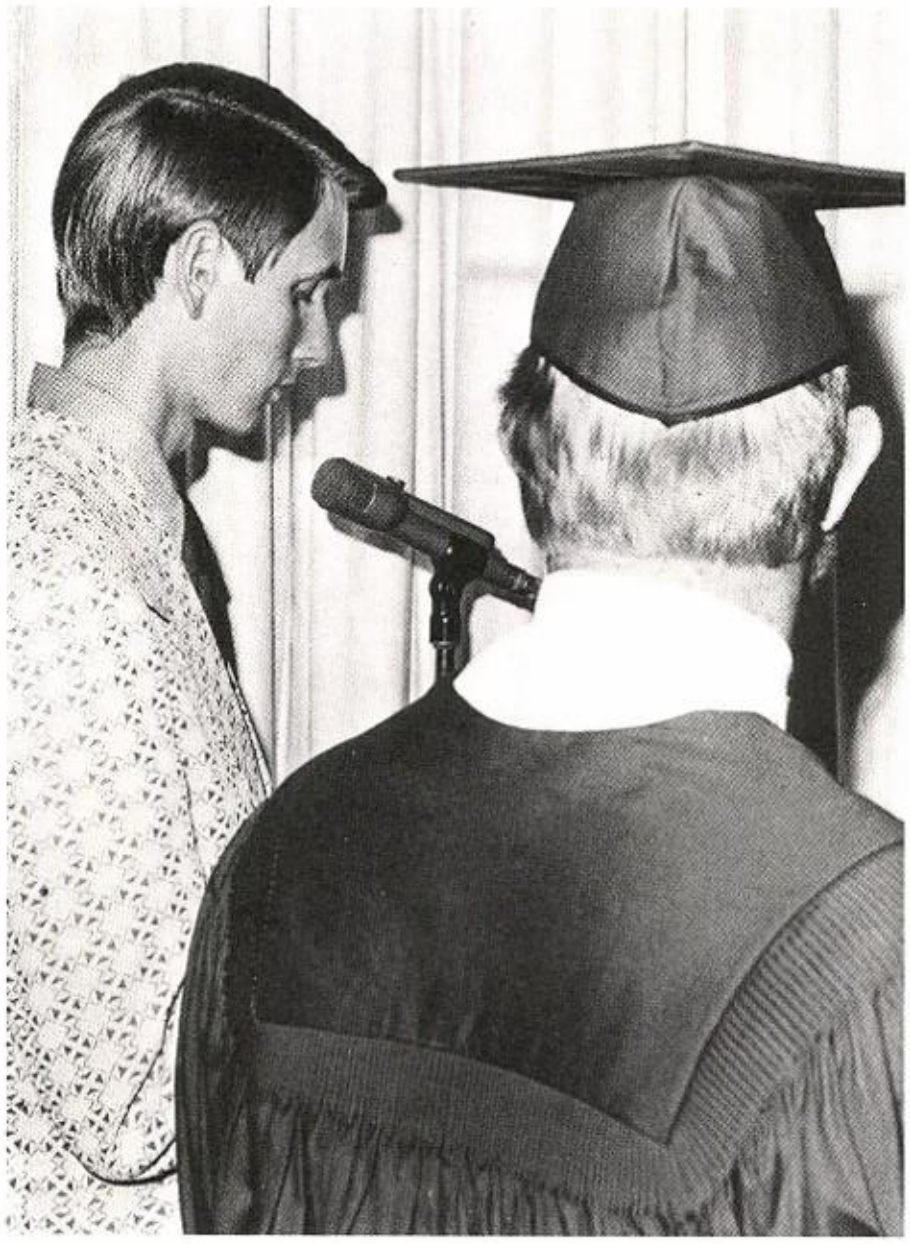
The Senior Class of 1972 gathered at Texas Hall for the commencement exercises held June 2. The graduating class numbered 574, eight more than last year. The seniors dressed in the traditional outfit of red gowns and caps with white tassels.



Coach Stewart watches from the side as the seniors cross the stage and prepares to instruct another group to rise.



After receiving her folder on stage, Diane Kissel accepts her diploma from Mrs. Barbara Baldwin and Mrs. Mary Lane.



Junior Doug Maner announces one of the graduate's names as he's ready to walk across the stage to accept his diploma.

Student Congress Strives to Involve All

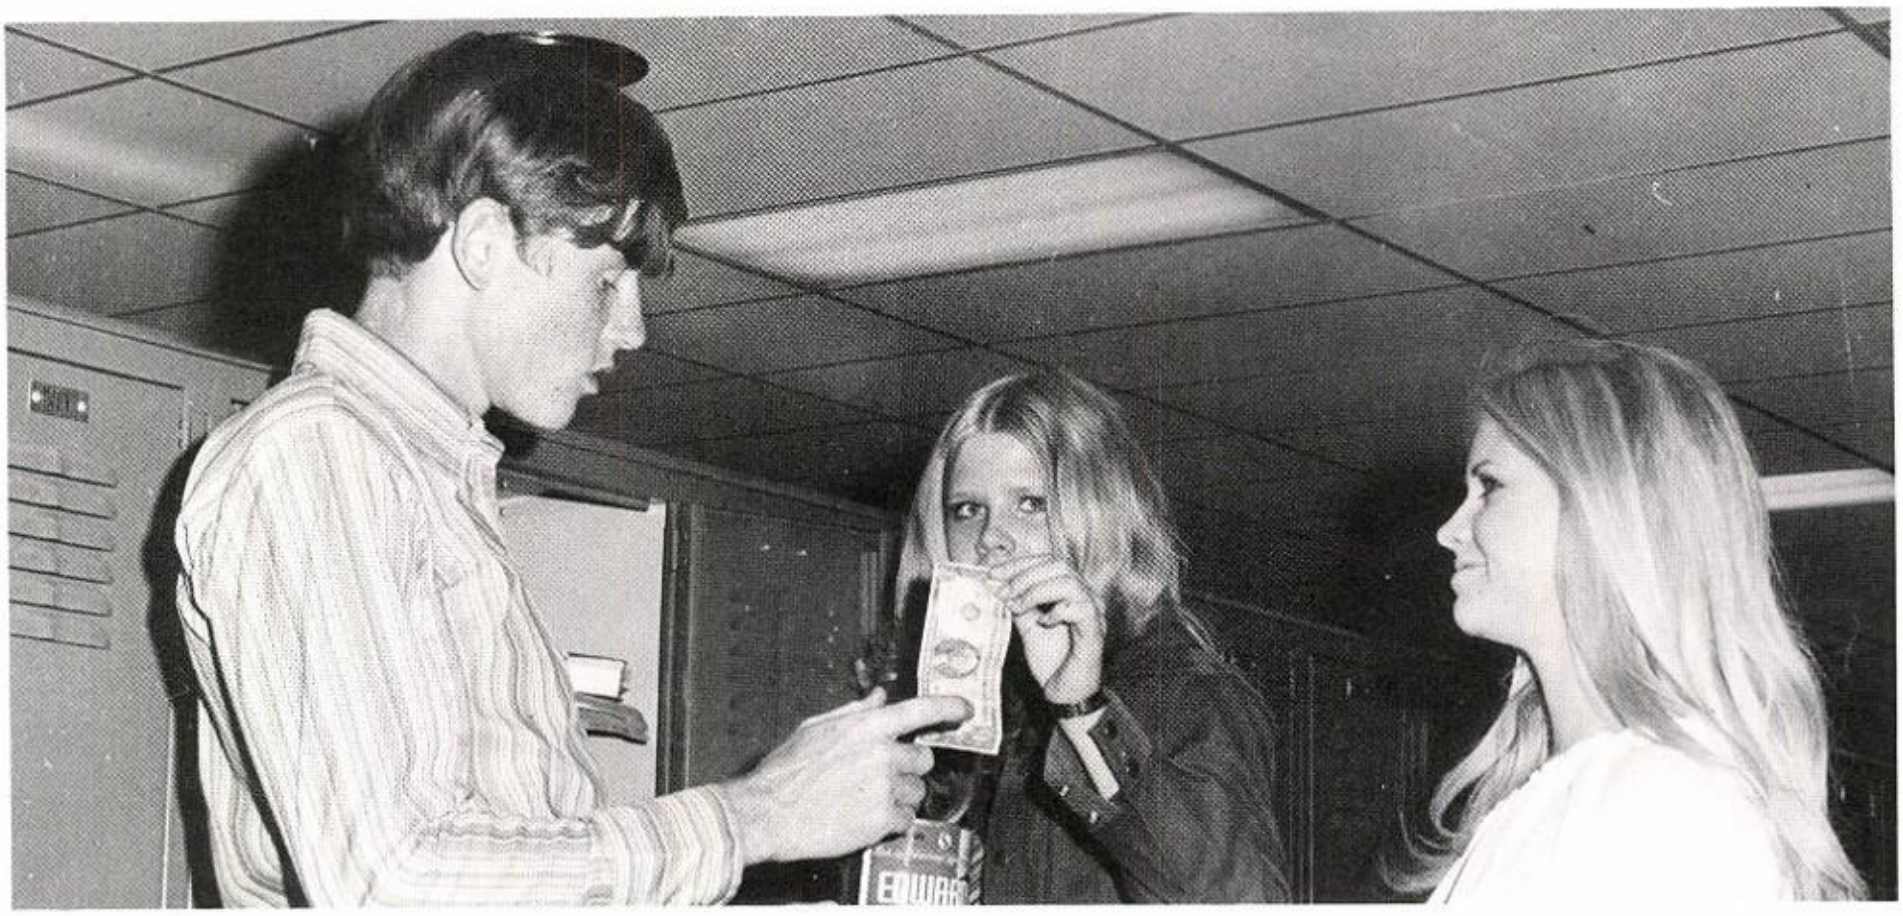
Marriage ceremonies performed by Rex Perry were part of Texan Day activities.

Working in the best interests of the school is the Student Congress. The Congress plans varied projects and activities to provide the chief unifying force between the three classes. Involvement of every student in Congress projects has been their major intent.

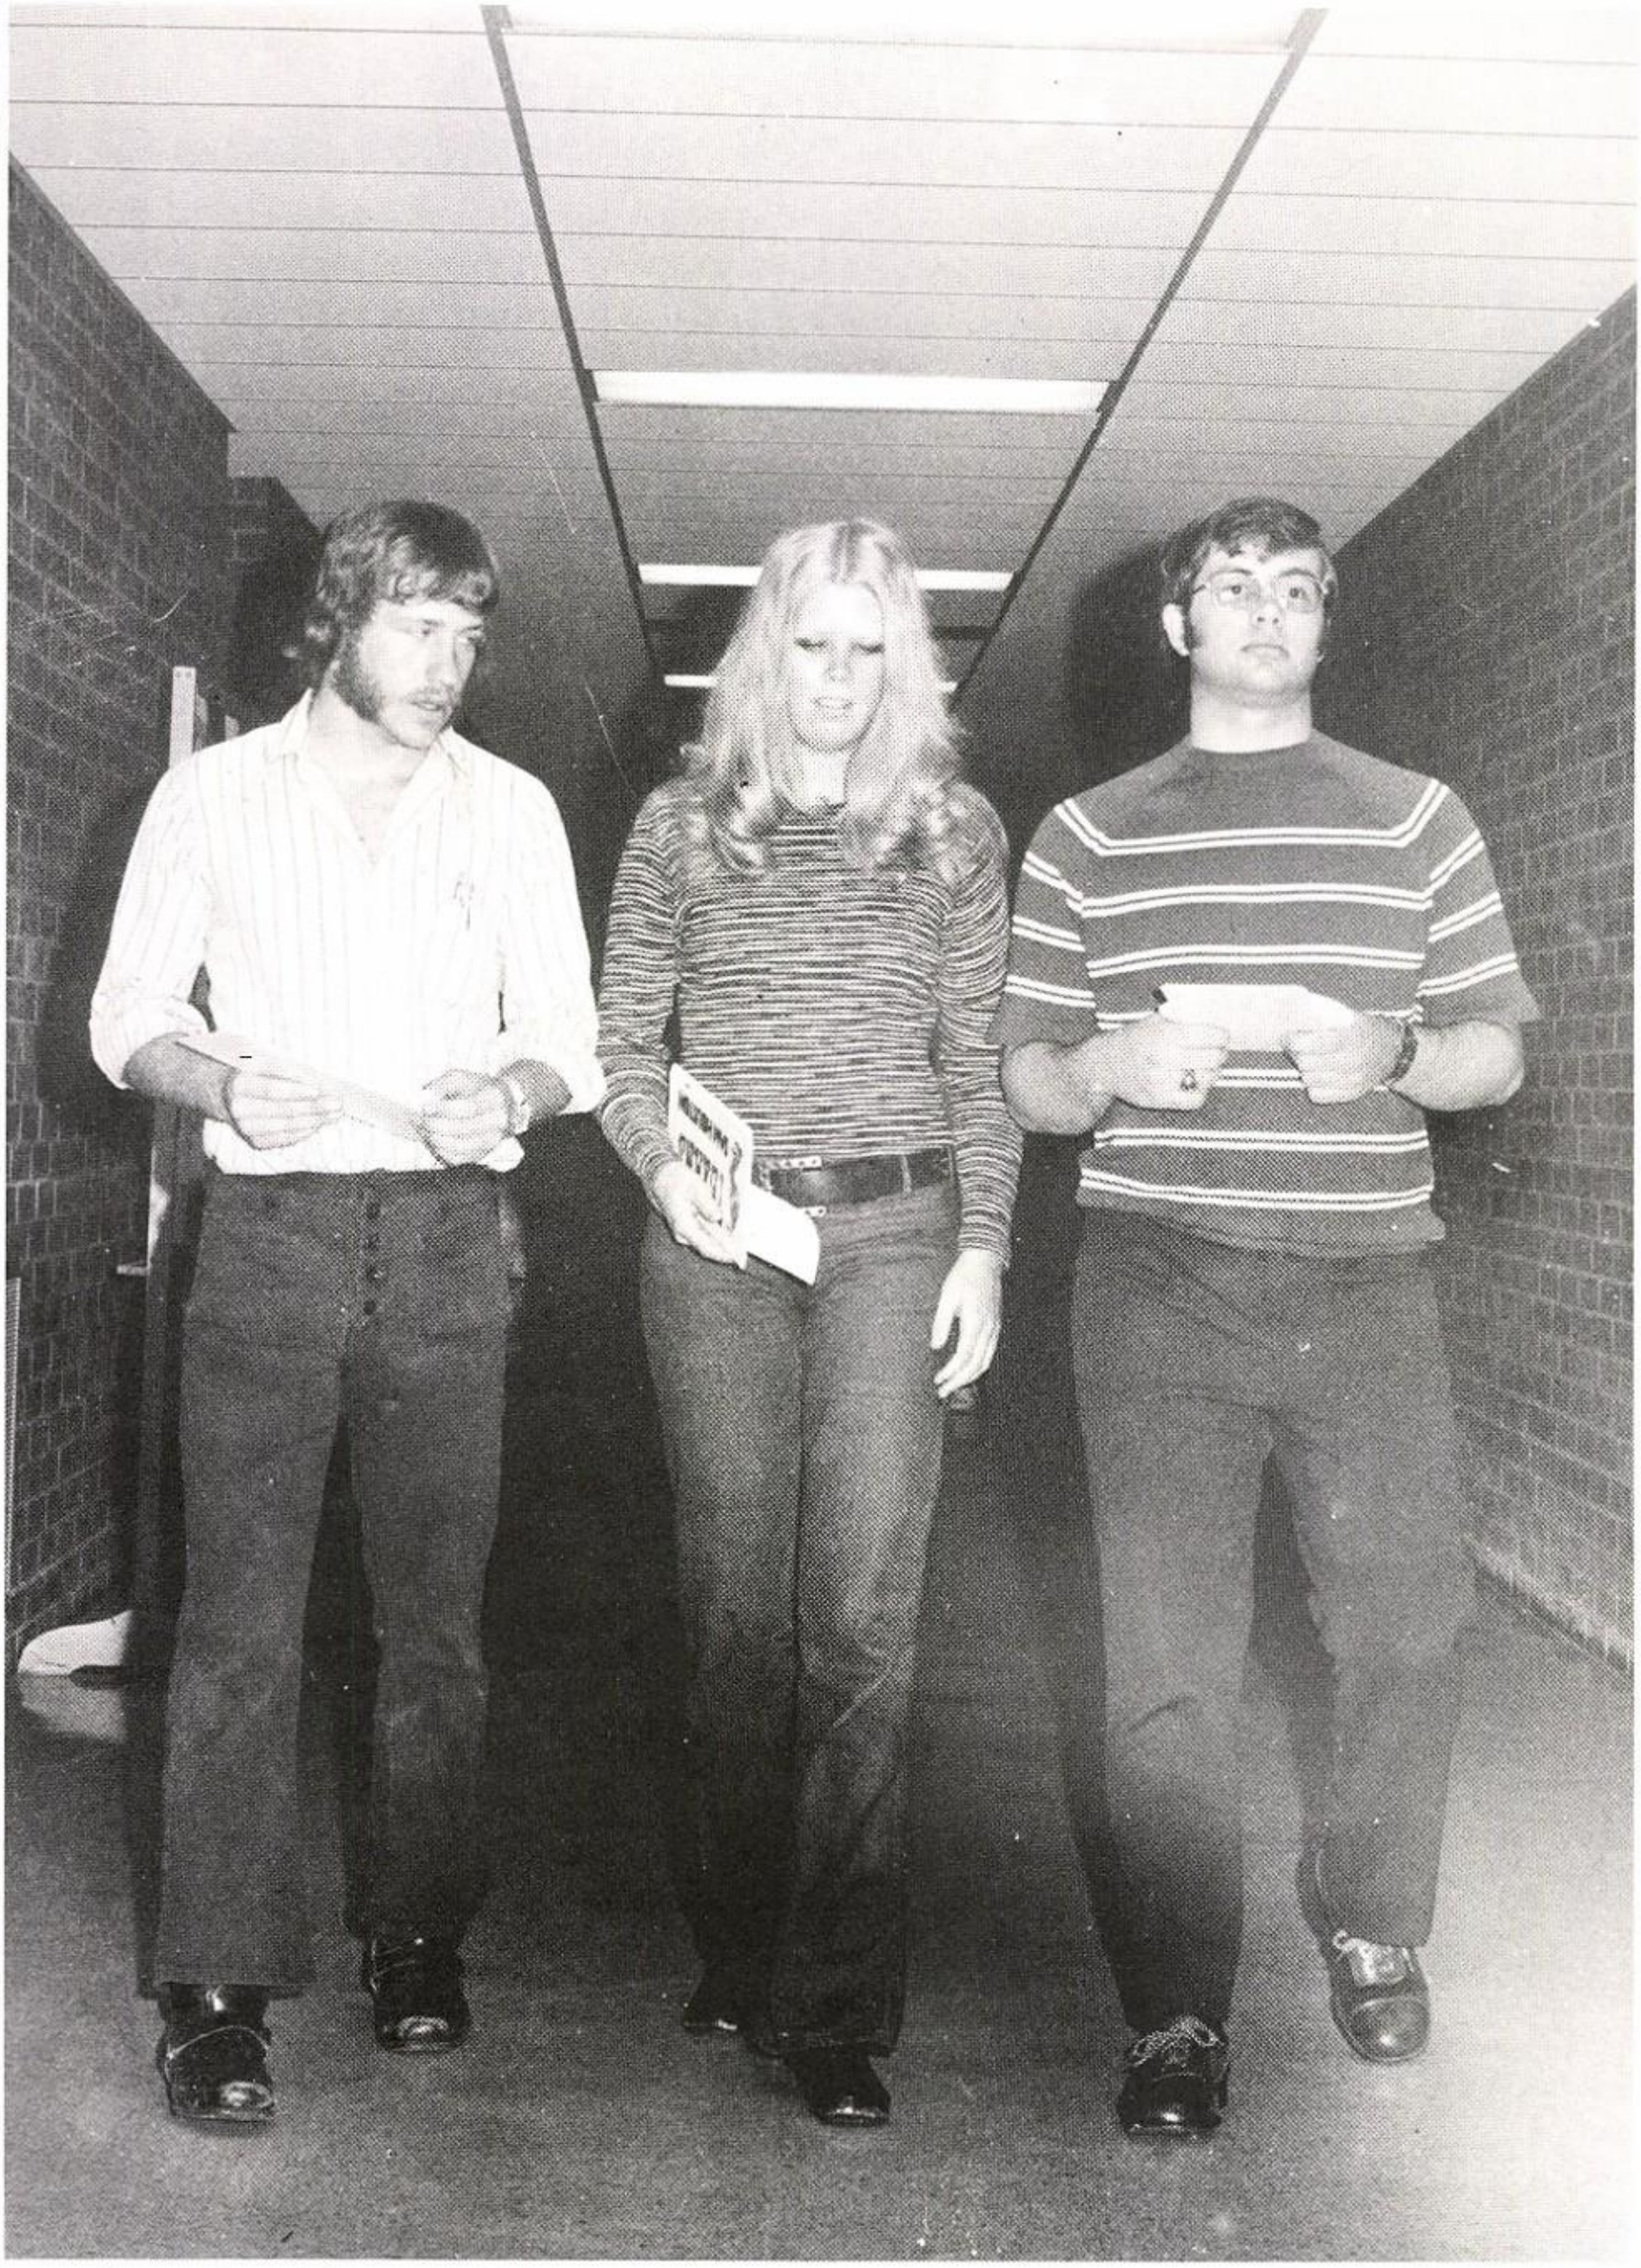
The Student Congress is made up of a House of Representatives and a Senate. Homeroom representatives comprise the House and club presidents compose the Senate.

Student Congress sponsored activities this year have been Howdy Day and Homecoming festivities, as well as the Texan Day project. For the first time, the annual College Night was held here at Sam. Plans were carried out with assistance from Student Congress. Representatives from 20 colleges from around the area were invited as speakers.

Officers are Rex Perry, president; Randy Burgett, vice-president; and Stacy Johnson, secretary.



Senior social chairmen Mary Hanzelka and Bugger McCants collect money from Stacy Johnson during the spirit chain drive.



Randy Burgett, Stacy Johnson, and Rex Perry discuss plans for selling license plates and decals as fund raising projects.

NHS Hosts Teachers' Party

Members of the National Honor Society are selected for outstanding scholarship, leadership, service, and character. A grade point average of 9.5 is required to remain in the club, as grade sheets are filled out and turned in each six-weeks period for evaluation.

Held in October, the exes' reception served over 500 guests, as club members prepared refreshments and made the arrangements. Also in December, a tea was given in the cafeteria for all faculty members.

NHS officers are Steve Loving, president; Dennis O'Donnell, vice-president; Brenda Melton, secretary; Ann Wettengel as treasurer; and Rusty Moore, historian.

Dennis O'Donnell makes room for over 500 guests at the NHS Homecoming tea.

Receiving some amateur coaching from Randy Haines, Pete Dolezal and Jim Smiddy play several practice rounds to build game strategy for the spades tournament.

Battle Royal Spurs Texans

A new club this year, the Math Club encourages students interested in careers in the engineering and mathematical fields. Getting students informed about the Junior Engineering Technical Society is one of the main purposes of the Math Club. JETS furnishes scholarships in math and holds an annual competition at Texas A&M that Math Club members can enter.

As a money-making project, the Math Club held a spades tournament Dec. 8 in the cafeteria. The three winning teams were awarded prizes.

An official constitution and by-laws were drawn up by the club officers, who were Pat Ware, president; Steve Cain, vice-president; Cathy Pogar, secretary; and Denise White, as treasurer.

ESPC Aids Community

Helping underprivileged children involves ESPC members Ronald Burns, Joyce Gilbert, Sue Williams, and James Edwards in the annual club-sponsored toy drive.

Improving social relationships between students at Sam by planning diverse social and humanitarian activities has been one of the main purposes for the formation of the Ethnic Social Progressive Club.

Members collected old toys from the student body to assist the Toy Drive sponsored by the United Fund. The toys were donated by the ESPC to needy children.

A waist-in dance was held Nov. 19 in Grand Prairie to raise funds. Admission charged was waist size.

Performing their duties as officers for the Ethnic Social Progressive Club are Bonnie Duncan, president; Joyce Gilbert as vice-president; Paula West, secretary; Sharon Colbert as treasurer; and Minnie Rollins as parliamentarian.

Forum Showing Displays Artists' Talents

Malinda Dunson, Lou Ann Underwood, Rusty Moore, Carol Tackett, Amy Currey, and Teri White collected first prizes at the "Young Art '72" exhibit at the forum.

Sponsoring "Young Art '72," Art Club members took on the responsibility of setting up the exhibits and selecting the judges for the showing at Forum 303. Open to all of Arlington, Jan. 21-28, over 150 pieces of art were viewed.

Every Sam Houston art student was eligible to participate, as club members served as hosts and hostesses at the show information table. There, any questions were asked, and all art sales were made after the show. Gift certificates were awarded to students receiving first, second, or third place and honorable mention.

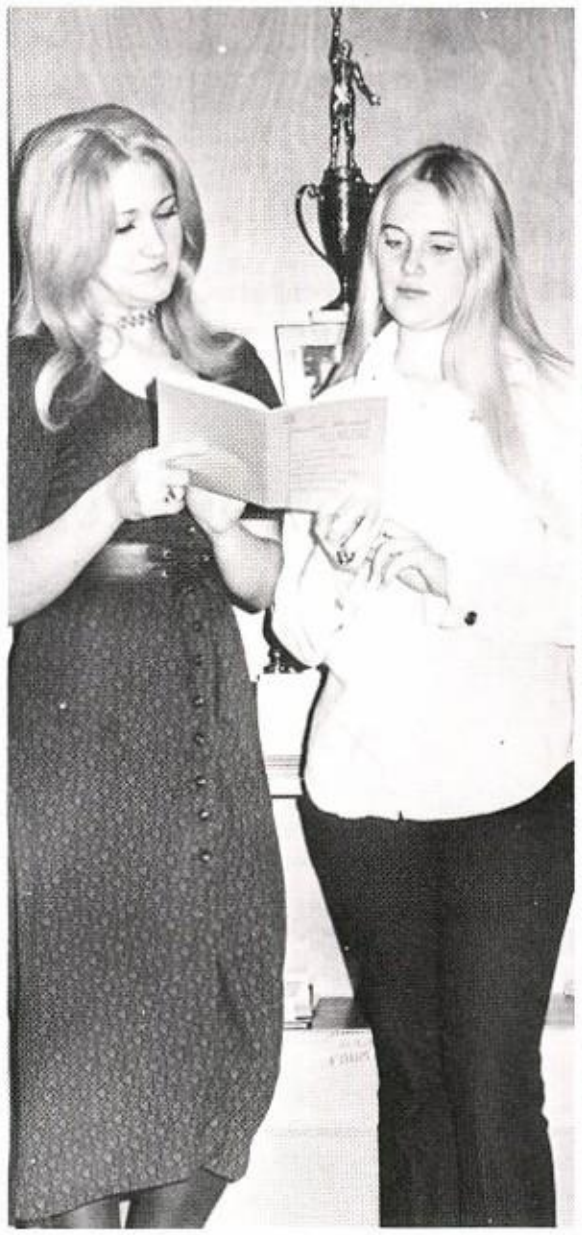
Serving as this year's officers for the Art Club are Rusty Moore, president; Cathy Martindale, vice-president; Teri White, secretary; and Jack Dumond, treasurer.

Q & S Inducts 15 Members

Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists, held two initiations this year. Five new members were added to the club at an all-staff party Feb. 28, while in May a progressive dinner welcomed 10 more journalism students to the society.

Membership requires a minimum of 10 points from attending workshops, seminars, and school-sponsored field trips.

Two of the new members inducted into Quill and Scroll, Lezlie Langham and Cindy Dake, work an old paper folder which was donated to the department last year.



Members Cheryl Mitchell and Cam Robertson look through the Q&S handbook.

Ceramic 'Creatures' Increase FTA Funds

Any student who is interested in learning more about the teaching profession may join FTA. The Future Teachers of America assist students preparing for a career in the field of education.

As a money-making activity, the club members sold miniature ceramic animal figurines. FTA members bought the small plaster-of-Paris statues and painted them individually by hand.

Members attended a regional convention in Dallas Feb. 25 and 26.

Serving as officers for the Future Teachers of America are Clarissa Carter as president and Sarah Hammett as secretary-treasurer.

Sponsoring the Future Teachers of America are Mrs. Jennifer McDowell and Miss Ginger Dean.

Working on their money raising project, several FTA members put a patina finish on plaster owls, frogs, and mushrooms with spray paint and metallic wax polish.

Juniors Held Scoreless in Powderpuff Game

Sponsored by the Rotary Club of Arlington, Interact performs services for community and school.

Club members go to different elementary schools to speak to third graders on today's moral and ethic concepts in the "Youth to Youth" program. Interact's "Help Sam Go to Pot" project placed five potted plants in the courtyard.

An annual money-making project, the powderpuff football game was held Dec. 16 at Hutcheson Field. The senior girls won over the junior girls by a score of 32-0.

Officers for the club are Cathy Pogar, president; Steve Cain, vice-president; Janet Riley, secretary; Pat Lawler, treasurer; Gary Ditto, parliamentarian; and Bill Farmer, sergeant-at-arms.

Trying to escape pursuing juniors Paula Moore, Tena Vernon, and Vicky Taylor, senior Gail McCraw flies through the air to the goal line for another touchdown.

At one of the club's weekly meetings, junior Sherry Jewell watches Larry Mayer rescue his white king out of check from the black knight placed by Paul Allen.

Chess Players Gain Tactics By Practicing

Meeting every Wednesday after school, the Chess Club enjoys more than playing chess. Card games are also a way of relaxation and provide time for visiting.

The 20 members of the club find plenty of time to practice and plan meets with other schools.

New members can join without any previous knowledge of the game of chess, as officers and present members gladly teach students.

Serving as this year's officers, Larry Mayer, president; Paul Allen, vice-president; and Sherry Jewell, secretary work along with sponsor Mrs. Vaudrene Hunt.

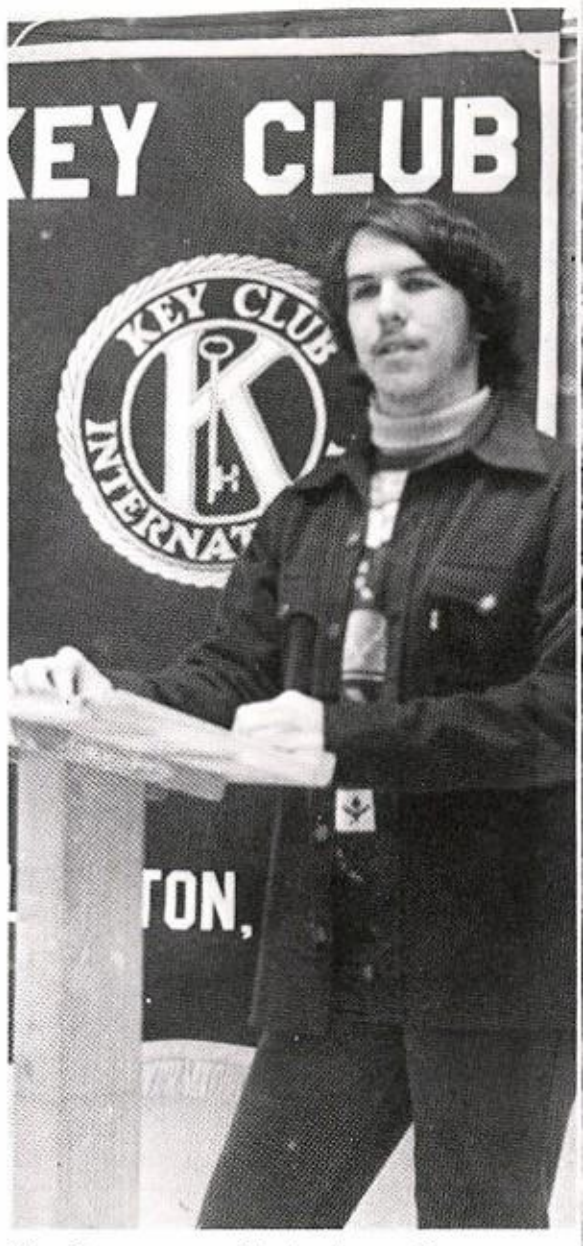
Leadership Set as Club Goal

Promoting the development of a better quality of youthful leaders is the Key Club. Encouraging responsibility and dependability in today's young men is the main purpose of the club.

Key club members are active in many varied activities in and out of school. Supporting the March of Dimes, members participated in the 20 mile "Walk for Mankind" to raise research funds. An all-school weiner roast at Randol Mill Park was scheduled for Feb. 10.

Acting as Key Club officers are Paul Griffith, president; Rex Perry, vice-president; Charles Apel, secretary; and Bobby Arnold, treasurer. Sponsor for the Key Club is Mr. George Hiatt.

Totaling the pledged amounts, Charlie Apel and Bobby Arnold plan the walk.



Planning an all-school weiner roast, Paul Griffith listens to suggestions.

Officers Vickie Braziel, Cynthia Farhat, Barbara Johannesen, and Karen Wiser plan their Homecoming project, decorating the locker rooms at the UTA Field.

MBS Backs Pigskin Team

An all girls' civic organization to promote school spirit, MBS also serves as a sister club to the boys' Key Club at Sam Houston. Completing its third year, the purpose of the club is to support school and community functions.

Club members were required to earn a certain amount of points from participation in school activities before entering the club.

As a surprise, the membership of 30 decorated the boys' locker room at the UTA football field before the annual clash with AHS.

Current officers for MBS are Cynthia Farhat, president; Barbara Johannesen, vice-president; Karen Wiser, secretary; Stacy Johnson, treasurer; and Vickie Braziel serving as pledge master.

Thespian Club Names Faculty As 'Favorites'

Thespian members John Rainone, Barbara Johannesen, Teresa Shouse, Ron Lutz, and Tom LeVesque discuss honors of being "Teacher of the Month" with Mrs. Vernon.

A newly initiated project this year is the "Teacher of the Month" program sponsored by the National Thespian Society. The club has also held an all-school poster party during Homecoming Week.

To be eligible for membership in Thespians, students are required to earn a minimum of 10 points. Points are accumulated by participation in plays and tournaments.

Serving as officers for the National Thespian Society are John Rainone, president; Ron Lutz, vice-president; Karen Wiser, secretary; Judy Makowski, treasurer; and as clerks, Phyllis Jones and Barbara Johannesen. Acting as sponsor for the club is Miss Mildred Peveto.

NFL Encourages Speaking

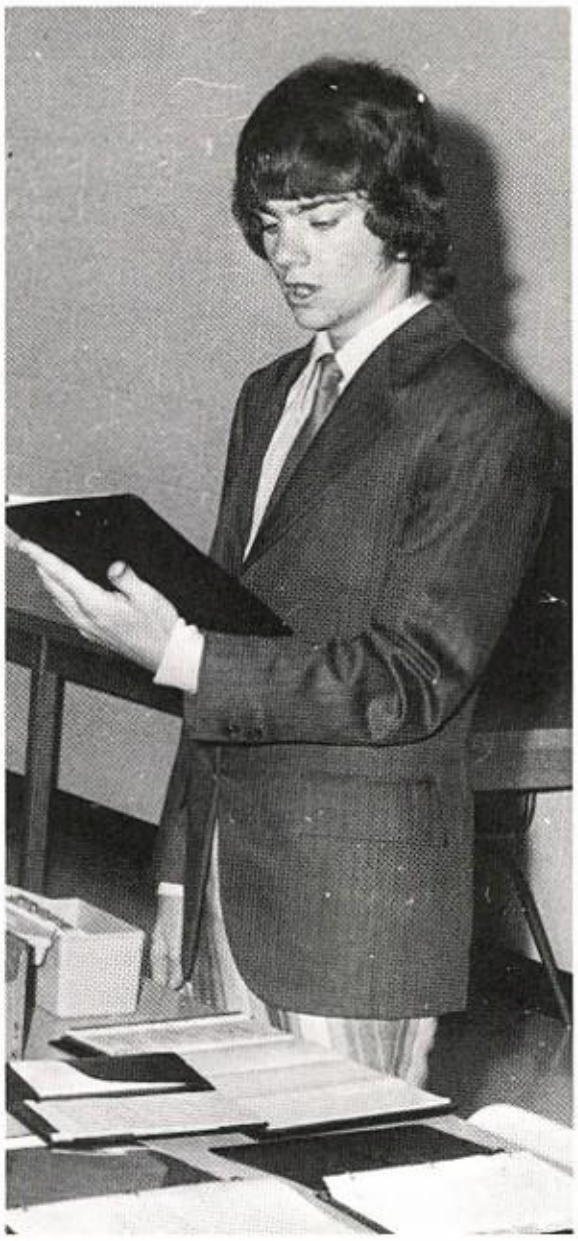
Gathering facts to speak affirmatively, Phillip Parker compares resources.

An honorary organization, the National Forensic League promotes more effective communication between people. Members must compete in tournaments as well as speak at many civic functions.

Prospective members of NFL must earn a minimum of 25 points. They are earned through participation in various means of public speaking. Members are active in numerous tournaments in the year.

Fulfilling their duties as officers for the National Forensic League: John Rainone, president; Larry Mayer, vice-president; and as secretary-treasurer, Doug Maner.

NFL sponsors are Mrs. Jackie Dyer and Miss Mildred Peveto.



Debater Phillip Rushing demonstrates the speaking ability of NFL members.

Jobs Include Foods, Sewing

Meeting every third Wednesday for breakfasts, HECE has speakers concerning community involvement and marriage preparation. Members held recycling drives and employer-employee socials for activities.

HECE officers are Ruby Sickels, president; Rusty Lee, first vice-president; Linda Small as second vice-president; Anna Yaeckel, secretary; Christy Miles, treasurer; and Sandra Rowe, parliamentarian.

Cutting pillowcase material for a Saybrook's customer, Ginger Parker participates in the HECE program which allows her to pursue her interest in sewing.

Working in the HECE program, junior Johnny Sims is employed by Hardee's.

Ecology Cans Brighten Area

A new organization this year at Sam is the Ecology Club. The club has only one requirement for membership which is caring about surrounding environment.

As a service project, club members acquired several metal cans and "painted" them with ecology club emblems. The cans were placed in strategic spots in and around the school courtyard to collect trash.

The Ecology Club's official constitution was drawn up by the officers, Gail Klapper, president; David Baize, vice-president; with Cathy Pogar as secretary-treasurer; Nancy O'Dwyer, committee chairman; and Danny Skinner as temporary administrative officer. Sponsors for the club are Mrs. Frances Elick and Mrs. Rosa Vernon.

Keeping the courtyard beautiful by depositing trash in club furnished cans are members Bruce Richards, Sherry King, Danny Skinner, David Baize, and Amy Currey.

FHA Holds Serviceman's Reception

Open to girls who have had at least one year of homemaking, the Sam Houston FHA has planned various projects throughout the year.

Members served cookies to returning servicemen at the USO at Love Field, Nov. 13. A formal sweetheart banquet was held Feb. 25 with Richard Ivy named beau.

Carrying out their jobs as officers for the Sam Houston FHA are president, Lisa Gregory; second vice-president, Elizabeth Awtry; third vice-president, Donna Dorris; with Denice Gregory as fifth vice-president, Nova Ingram as parliamentarian, Cathy Parker as historian, Beverly Chandler as secretary, and Denise Lowe as treasurer.

Leaning over Beverly Jeffery's shoulder to see the final plans for the sweet heart banquet, Liz Awtry approves them as do Marsha Edwards and Cathy Parker.

Returning for seconds, Richard Gambrell heaps Swedish meatballs and barbequed chicken on his plate, while Ginger Fowler adds her calories and waits her turn.

Unusual Foods Fare of FHA Dinner Party

Cherokee FHA is a club made up exclusively of senior students who have taken a family living, home furnishings, or a home management course.

Activities included a Christmas dinner during the holidays in the family living room. Entertainment was provided by Singing Texans.

For a money-making project, members of Cherokee FHA sold hot chocolate before classes in the morning. A special Valentine banquet was held in the family living room on Feb. 14.

Presiding over meetings are officers Greg Prickett, president; Danny Henderson, vice-president; Cynthia DeLeon, secretary; Peggy O'Donnell, treasurer; and Pat Lawler as historian.

FBLA Plans Buffet Party

The Future Business Leaders of America is a club whose purpose is to keep students informed about all aspects of the business world.

As Sam Houston's representative this year at district competition, senior Pam Pafford attended the regional convention.

In order to celebrate the holidays, FBLA planned a Christmas buffet for its members. It was held Dec. 15 at president Kaleen Hurley's house.

Performing their duties as officers for the Future Business Leaders of America are president, Kaleen Hurley, with Debbie Bench as vice-president, Peggy O'Donnell as secretary, and Jonna Ward, treasurer. FBLA sponsor is Miss Doris Goff.

While Kaleen Hurley discusses tentative plans for a money-raising project wit FBLA members, Peggy O'Donnell and Jonna Ward, club officers, offer suggestions

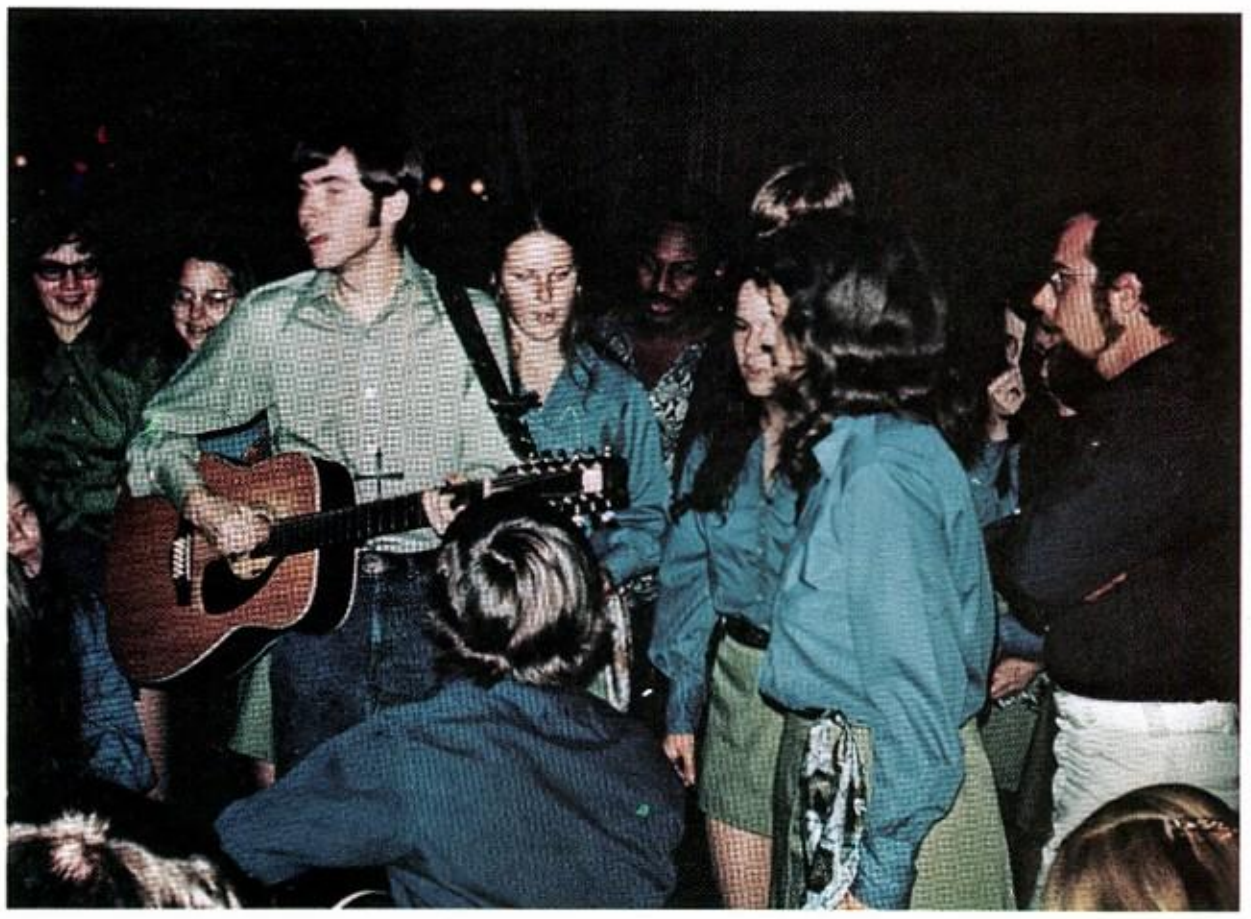
LARK Hosts 550 in TALA Convention

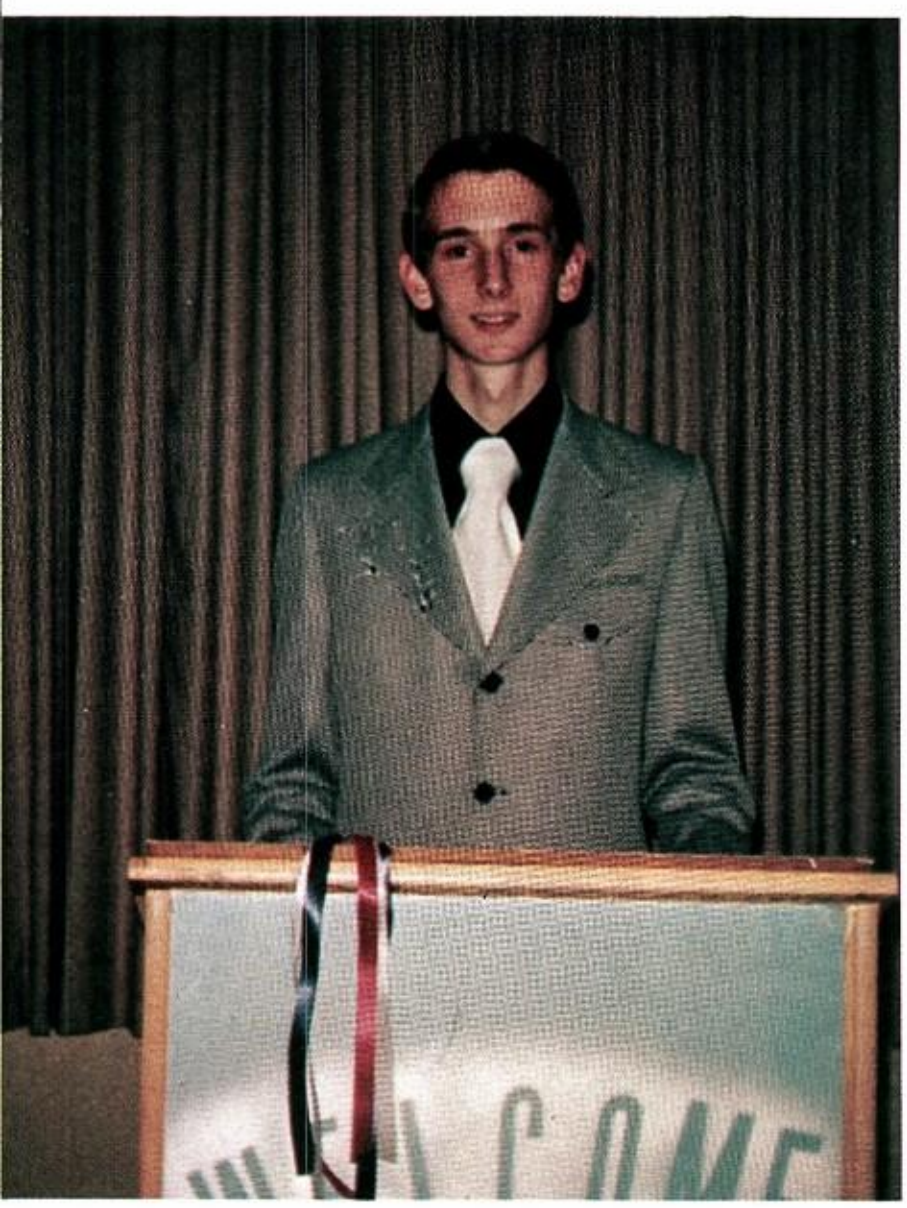
Acting as host for the Teenage Association of Library Assistants state convention, the Library Assistants' Recreational Club scheduled the annual meeting for Feb. 18 and 19 at Sam Houston.

The state TALA convention was LARK'S highlight of the year. A total of 550 delegates attended the convention. It was headquartered at the Inn of Six Flags and members attended various workshops.

LARK officers are Doug Maner, president; Jo Utley as secretary-treasurer, Judy Johnson, historian; and Jackie Wilson, social chairman. Sponsors are Mrs. Jimmie Russell and Mrs. Louise Clark.



The "Celebration Singers," a group of 50 people from the Dallas-Fort Worth area, performed for the convention during the registration at the Inn of Six Flags.



Because of his election last year as the 1971 TALA state president, Doug Maner held this convention in Arlington.

Preparing to take the scheduled Seven Seas tour for TALA, state members Lynda Bezdek and Kelly Roche climb aboard.

Unique Programs Create Specialized Skills

By being involved in auto mechanics, Dan Brigham is able to receive the satisfaction of seeing the results of his labors in a smoothly running automobile.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America have six chapters at Sam Houston. These organizations are individual classes with their own separate officers.

All VICA members participated in the District II area convention held at Trimble Tech March 10-11. Students competed in contests involving skill speed, parliamentary procedure, job application, public speaking, notebooks and projects. Winners went on to enter the state convention April 21-22 in Dallas.

The vocational courses included in VICA are industrial cooperative training, cosmetology, auto body paint and repair, radio-TV, auto mechanics and building trades.

Working on a transistorized television set, Frankie Stoner concentrates on registering accurate voltage measurements.

While a student demonstrates the manicure procedure, Mrs. Lasater gives guests a tour through the cosmetology room.

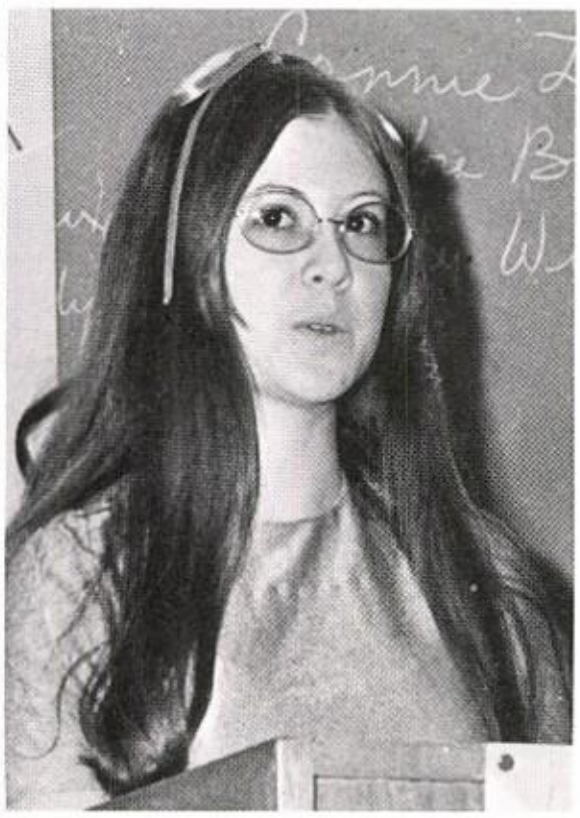
Two DE students, Laura LaSala and Sandy Petty, load their car before they head for the Area V competition in Waco.



DE student Linda Rattan makes a campaign speech hoping to be secretary.

DE, CVAE = Job Training

Distributive Education and Cooperative Vocational Academic Education are for students enrolled in vocational training.

Chapters I, II, and III of DE are led by presidents David Casal, Grant Bourland and Sandy Petty, respectively. Activities include candy sales, picnics and club breakfasts featuring guest speakers.

At the area DE contest held in Waco Feb. 4-5, Sam Houston placed nine winners who went on to participate in the state convention in San Antonio March 1-5.

CVAE members learn how to choose a vocation or career while enjoying hayrides and club breakfasts each six weeks. Officers for this year include Brenda Sweatman, Tressia Hurndon, Darlene Ruth, Jeff Hoover and Debbie Acuff.

Cooperative Vocational Academic Education, CVAE, is a work program made up of mostly sophomores, but also a few juniors and seniors. Included in the classroom phase of the program are choosing a vocation, health and hygiene, and job ethics.

Concerts, Competition Fill Band Schedule

The band has included in their schedule a contest at Big Spring, a concert at Forum 303, playing at the Teen Talent Follies and during the Texan Day activities.

Stage Band was featured in an all-school assembly along with a spring concert during the festival of Fine Arts on April 28. On May 14, Mother's Day, they presented a concert at Meadowbrook Park.

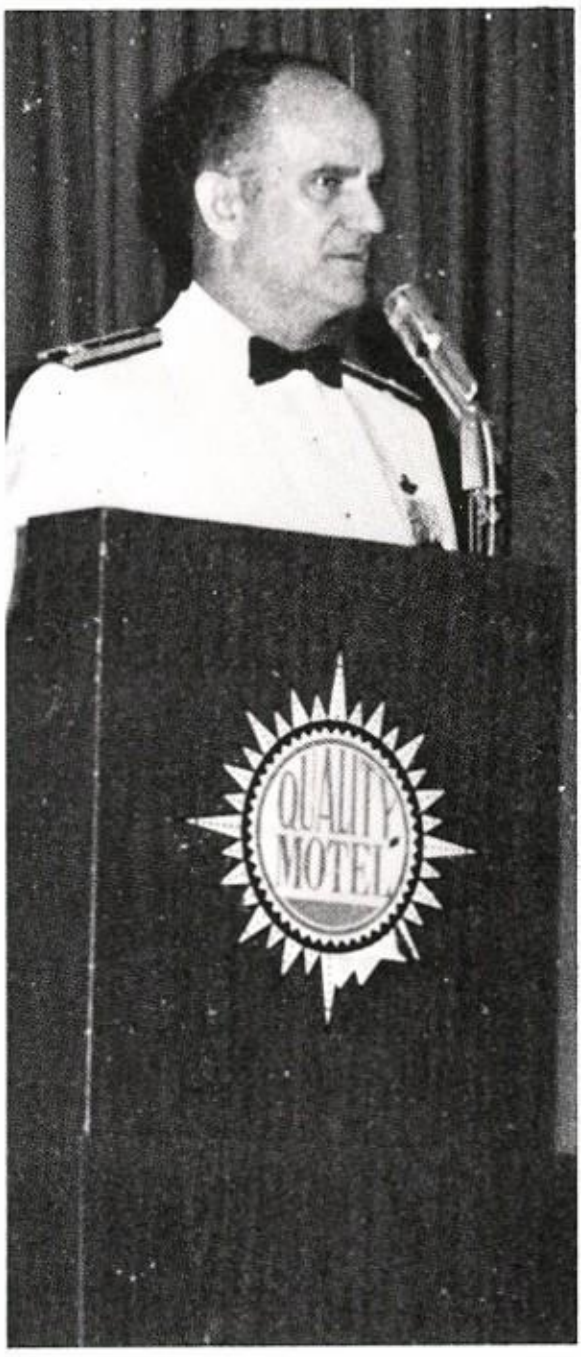
This year's band officers include Gary MacDonald, president; Kerry Prather, vice-president; Sue Phifer, secretary-treasurer; Karen Eades, sophomore representative; Becky Clark, junior representative; and Steve Loving, acting as senior representative.

Featured performers are Brenda Weems, Janet Brown, Sheryl Hampton, and Charla Glover as majorettes, and serving as Drum Major is Mike Ponder.

Honor cadets were Terry York, DAR; Ronnie Johnson, AFJROTC Medal; Bernard Egenberger, SAR; and James Robinson, ROA.

Flight sweetheart Rhonda Pennington received the honor of ROTC Queen. The cadets voted the day of the Military Ball.

The Fourth Annual Military Ball included an evening of dining and dancing. The music for the dance was especially provided by the Army Band from Fort Hood.



At the Military Ball, Colonel Clyde Kelsay gave the introductory remarks.

Members of the Sam Houston ROTC Color Guard include Marvin Place, Steve Wilson, Sherry Haney, Don Ballard, and Jeff Flanagan. The Guard presents the colors for pre-game activities during football season, as well as flag-raising ceremonies. On May 13, the Color Guard marched around the University and down Cooper Street in a parade for girls' softball leagues.

Fort Hood Field Trip Sponsored by Army

Chosen by the ROTC on the basis of appearance and personality are sweethearts Brenda Melton, Barbara Acker, Tracey Ashton, Rhonda Pennington, Sherry Haney, Carolyn Carbone, Jan Isaac, and Ruth Acker. (Not pictured is Cynthia DeLeon.)

The Texas 32nd AFJROTC honored four of its members as outstanding cadets for '71-'72. Cadet Lt. Col. Ronald D. Johnson and Cadet Majors James M. Robinson, Terry L. York and Frederick B. Egenberger received scholarships for their service.

Field trips included visits to Love Field, LTV, Great Southwest, the Fort Worth Air Route Traffic Control Center, Fort Hood, Texas Air National Guard, Carswell Air Force Base and to end the year, an open air show in Fort Worth performed by the Thunderbirds.

Sweethearts have been elected every year for the five flights of cadets. This fall nine girls were chosen with the addition of Staff, Squadron, Color Guard, and Drill Team sweetheart positions.

On April 21 the Fourth Annual Military Ball was held at the Cibola Inn. After a program consisting of awards and speeches, cadets and their dates danced to music by the 328th Army Band.

Eight of the 10 all-region winners include Dave Leister, Wayne Jolly, Bill George (all-state alternate), Troy Bradley, Janna Hopson, Rhonda Pennington, Monica Hughes, and Pam Hughes. Not pictured are Susan McGuire and Pat Smith.

"Sexy" Rex Perry swings his hips to the rhythm of "I Like the Sound of Funky Music" by the magnetic Crimson Bridge. "You've Got a Friend," 30 minutes of "Jesus Christ, Superstar," and several skits were a part of the group's show.

Choirs Contract Crimson Bridge for Show

In December, the Band and Choral Departments combined for a Christmas program. The A Cappella Choir began the program with the carol "Angels Heard on High."

Crimson Bridge, a five member musical rock group, was sponsored by the Choir Department for a two hour concert on March 14.

Other activities planned by the six choirs under the direction of Miss Pamela Sewell and Mr. Louis Harris were Christmas parties, ice skating meets and a social gathering at Burger's Lake.

Participation in contests won A Cappella the TCU Sweepstakes and all one ratings in concert performance for Sophomore Choir, while at North Texas State the ensemble received six superior ratings, 19 excellents and eight goods.

Serving as presidents of each individual choir are Bill George, A Cappella; Reuben Tomlin, Sophomore Choir; Bill Farmer, Chorale; Tina Brown, Girls' Choir, and Troy Bradley, Singing Texans.

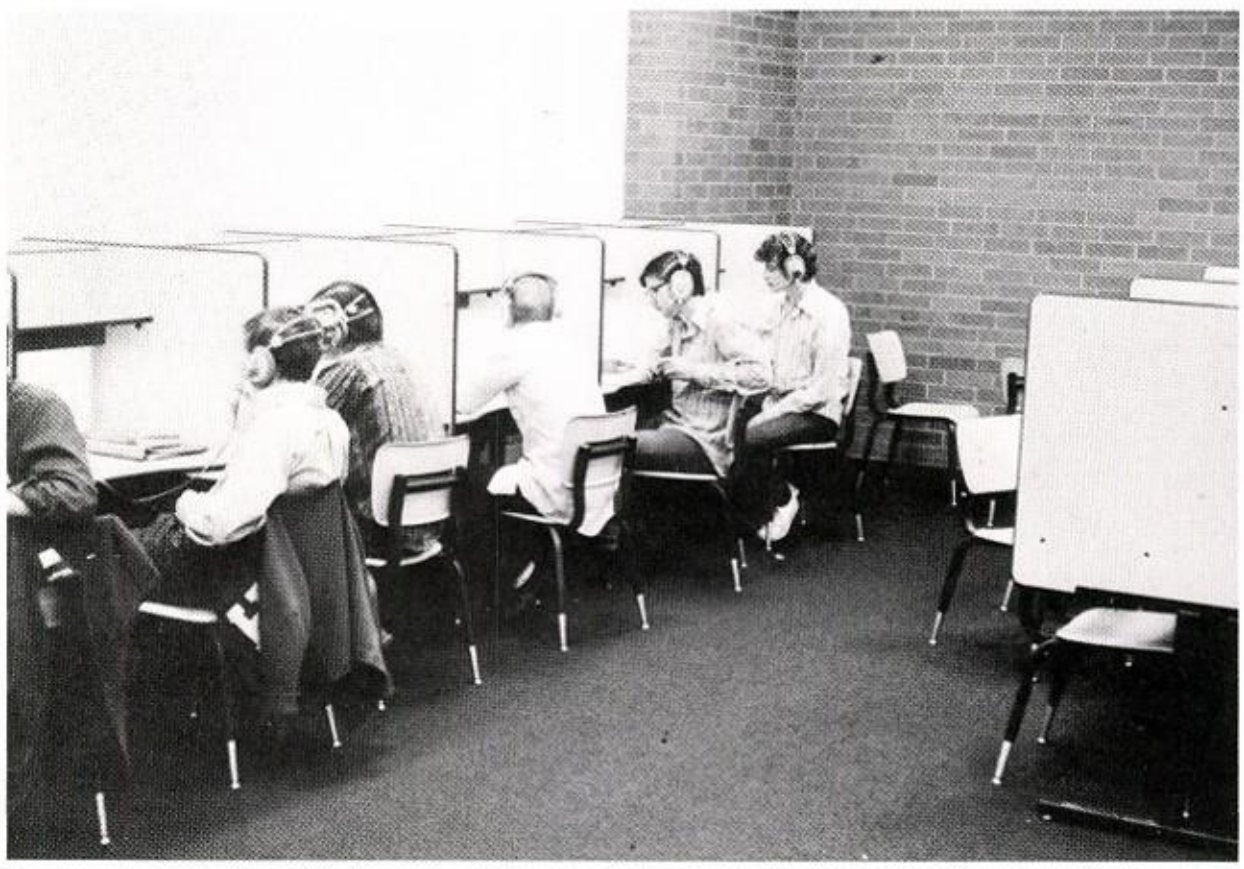
"If I can step around these people playing cards in the floor without dropping these dishes . . . ," thinks Clarissa Carter, helping during the Christmas party.

Planning new club projects, president Ann Wettengel reviews possibilities.

FLC Party Brightens Christmas Vacation

With a membership of 256, the Foreign Language Club holds monthly meetings frequently with guest speakers concerning the many aspects and advantages of knowing a second language. Skits in foreign languages liven each meeting with refreshments being served afterwards. Occurring in May, the annual picnic tops another year.

Foreign Language Club officers for this year are Ann Wettengel, president; Cynthia Farhat, vice-president; Dennis O'Donnell, second vice-president; Sandy Woodson, secretary; Peggy O'Donnell, treasurer; Ron Lutz and Tracey Ashton as social chairmen; and Kaleen Hurley serving as program chairman.



Mrs. Spinks' German classes take advantage of the study carrells located in the library. Repeating phrases helps the student become familiar with the language.

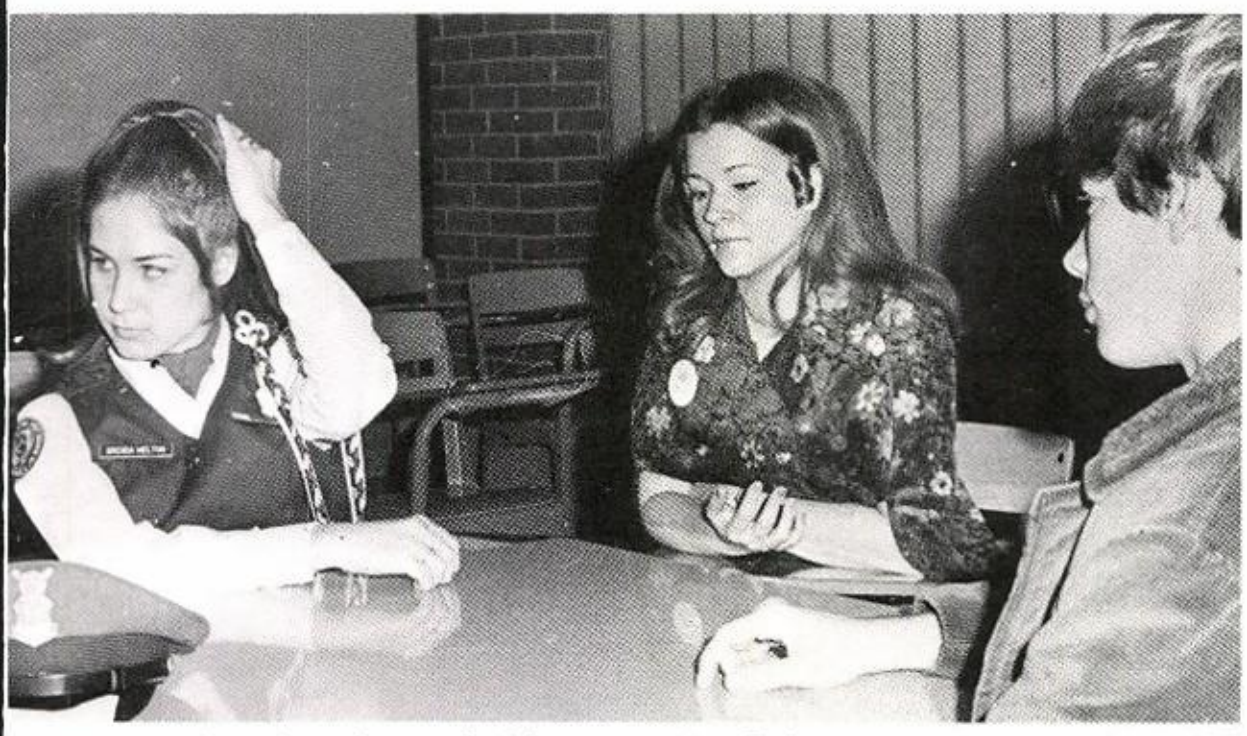
Party Planned Honoring Exchange Student

The American Field Service not only sponsors the foreign exchange student attending Sam Houston but provides the company of plenty of brothers and sisters.

Celebrating Christmas and his birthday with club members, Ricky Bogaert, this year's guest from the Dominican Republic, received an AFS jacket and a SHHS class ring.

On AFS Day, March 23, area for eign exchange students were invited to Sam for an assembly and to attend a luncheon in their honor.

This year's officers are Terry Vernon, president; Judy Makowski, vice-president; Louise Place, secretary; Karen Wiser, treasurer; Terry Donaldson, historian; Dennis O'Donnell and Rhonda Pennington, social chairmen; and Brenda Melton, communications chairman.



Trying to make plans for a birthday party for Ricky, the exchange student, AFS officers Brenda Melton, Judy Makowski, and Dennis O'Donnell list suggestions.

Ricky Bogaert enjoys the cool weather that never comes to his tropic home.

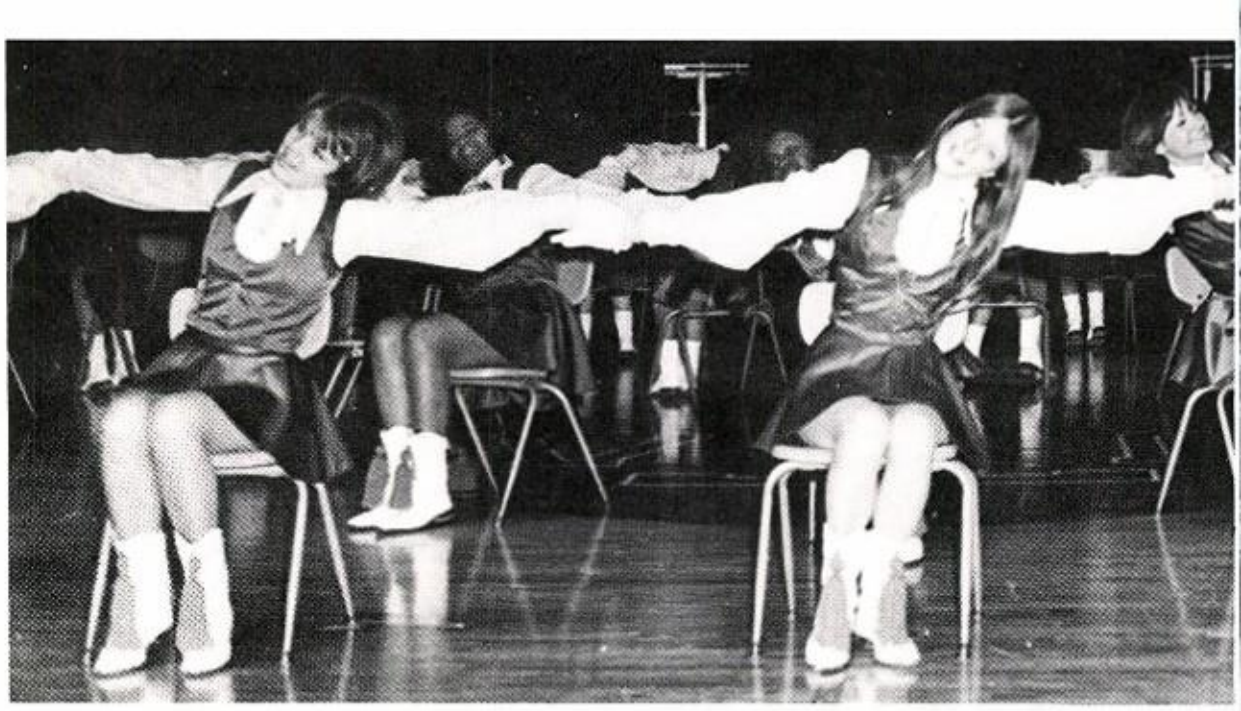
Tex-Annes Perform in Seven Seas Parade

Completing their second year, the Tex-Annes have supported all athletic activities by decorating dressing rooms, preparing candy for players before games and performing during halftime.

Seven o'clock practices aided them in preparing for their many appearances including the opening day parade at Seven Seas.

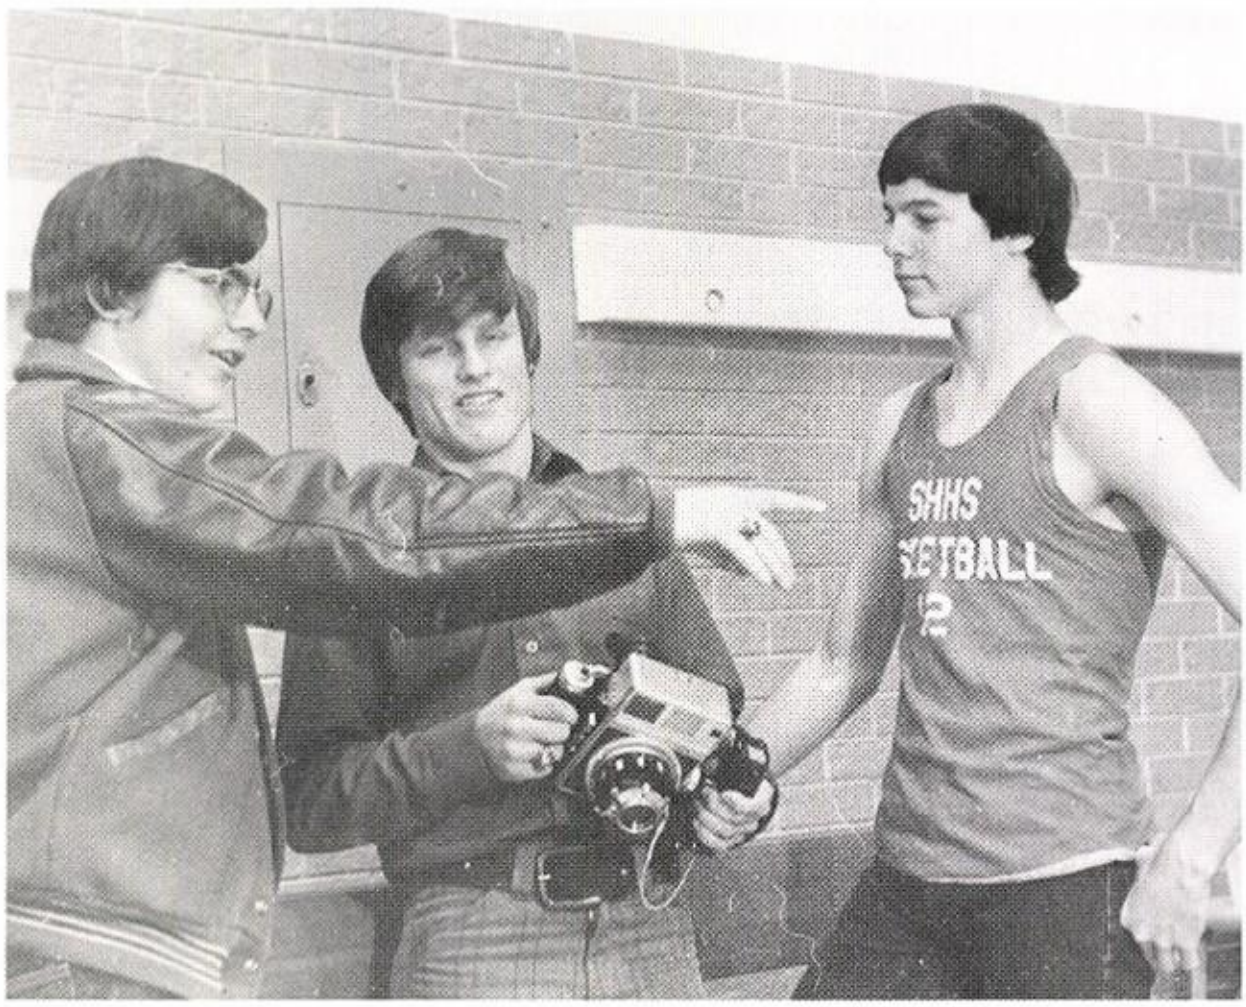
Throughout the year, girls of the week and month were chosen by officers and sponsor, Miss Susan Henry. At the annual banquet held in April, several other honors and awards were given.



Doing a routine to the music of "Miss Frenchy Brown," the Tex-Annes, including the new members, performed in Texas Hall during halftime of a district game.

The Tex-Annes include first row: Tess Barton (third lieutenant), Debbie Helton (first lieutenant), Sandy Tichenor (captain), Paula Frank (co-captain), and Mary Hanzelka (second lieutenant); second row: Linda Sherek, Mary Poe, Dianne Moody, Vickie Fearheily, Kenda Goldfuss, and Donna Franklin; third row: Glenna Forson (manager), Marylee Wettengel, Robbie Alford, Marla Gerald, Debbie Gross, Marsha Vickers, Karen Fulton, Kathy Matthews, Cheryl Callaway, Gloria Hope, Robi Davis (manager); fourth row: Christi King (manager), Tracey Ashton, Sheri Ray, Karen Adee, Terri Cutaia, Terry Donaldson, Lea Ann Hudson, Taryn Smith, Terry Gagan, Barbara Bocell, Paula Long, Polly Bailey, Andrea Hearne, Pat Skinner, Melissa Stephens, Joy Beebe, Susan Graig, and Sherry Rigdon (manager). Practice starts in November, but tryouts are held in January.

THSPA Awards All Texas Honor Rating,



Staff cartoonist and sports reporter Gary Templin listens to sports editor Don Somers instruct photographer Charlie Apel during the half at a basketball game.

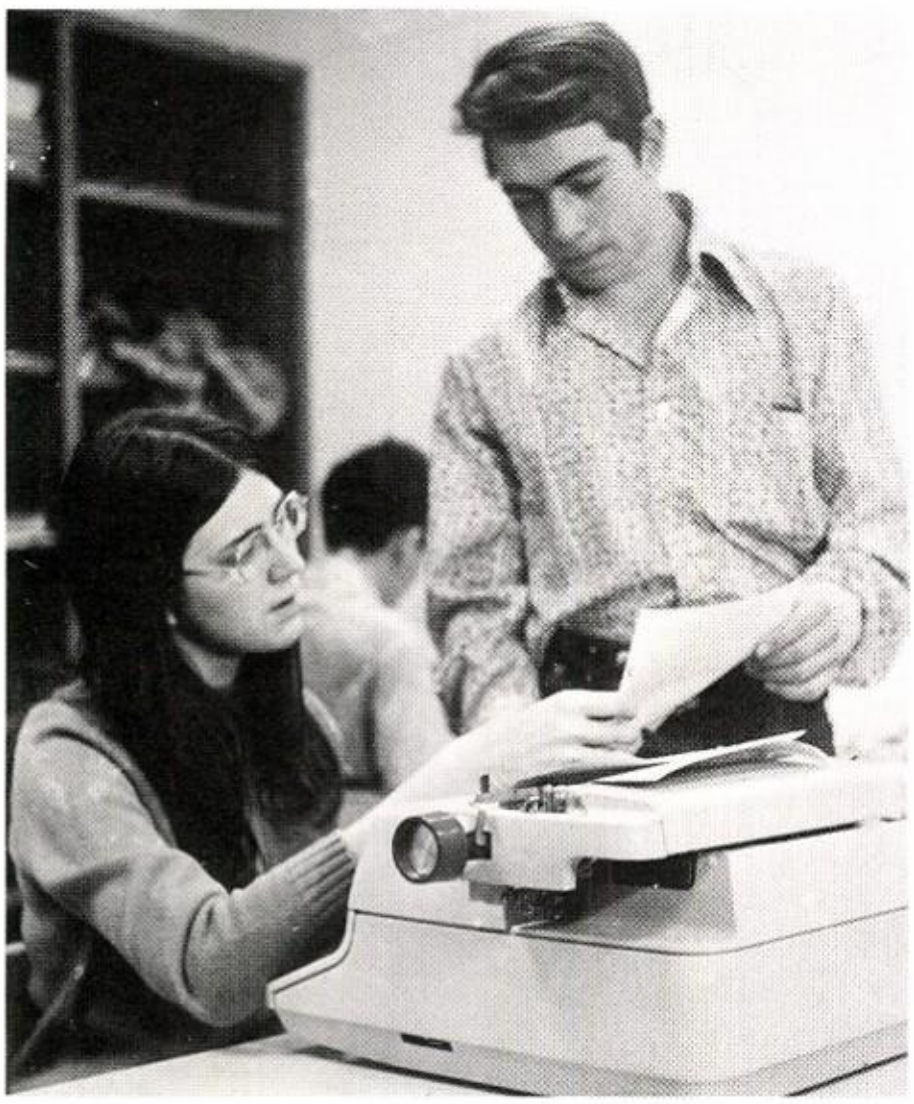
Keeping busy by meeting every deadline, the Texans Talk staffers maintain quality news stories.

Even though the staff is made up of only 11 members, Texans Talk received a special award while at competition. The Texas High School Press Association presented the paper with an All-Texas rating with a special honorable mention.

Always trying to improve the paper, the Texans Talk staff members gain new ideas by traveling to numerous seminars. Conventions attended by the staff were those held at Denton, SMU, and TCU.

Workshops were offered to demonstrate new and different ideas in journalism techniques.

The Texans Talk traveled to Austin to compete with other papers from all over the state.



Cindy Dake and Jay Westbrook, both page editors, consider and revise layouts to see how individual pages will look.

Page editor Randy Gathany looks through past issues of the Texans Talk hoping to get good ideas for his next layouts.

Special Honorable Mention to 'Texans Talk'

Part of ad manager Barbara Belcher's job includes phoning stores to see if they will advertise in the Texans Talk.

Marla Stephens, editor, adds to her string book, a resumé of all her articles, while reporter Carla Lairson watches.

Breaking away from planning her next feature, page eight editor Cheryl Mitchell listens to the week's assignments.

Page three editor Lezlie Langham decides on the subject to humorously write about in her next "A Texan Talks" column. Her column covers such diverse subjects as women's liberation, the commerciality of Christmas, and students' transportation.

Compiling the general index, classes editor Karen Jones awaits the bell.

Faculty editors Joyce Overman and Kathy Kennedy and organizations editors Jan Isaac and Pat Lawler re-examine the allocation. (Randy Burgett in background.)

'Cherokee' Combines Index

Predicting the week the '72 Cherokee will be delivered, classes editor Cam Robbertson conveys the news to activities editors Chris Krueger and Velda Vaughn.

Consisting of more changes than ever before, the 1972 Cherokee employs new developments and special effects used in publications. For the first time, the advertisements have been combined with the index so that more attention will be paid to the ads. This is a new concept in high school yearbooks.

Color pictures have been moved from the opening section to other parts of the book. The opening and division pages have been done in blue spot color to create a more colorful effect for the annual.

The 19 members of the Cherokee staff attended journalism seminars and workshops throughout the school year. These trips have included sessions in Denton, Austin and an advertising clinic at TCU. A tour of Taylor Publishing Company gave the staff an opportunity to view and learn the process of annual publication.

Meeting first period each morning, the staff also stays numerous hours during and after school making deadlines. To end every year the Cherokee and Texans Talk staffs produce the annual assembly.

Deciding on the number of colored pages, business manager Sandy Fry and editor Vickie Braziel go over the finances.

Checking over school ballots, personality editors Cynthia DeLeon and Cynthia Farhat anxiously await final results.

Lining up across from each other in the last game of the regular season, Sam Houston gave Arlington the toughest game it played all year. The Colts barely nipped the Texans 21-14, the closest SHHS has ever come to beating the "other school."

Texans Finish Ninth Season With 4-4 District Standing

After destroying Southwest in the Sept. 10 opener 27-11, Sam's varsity took two quick defeats before getting back on the winning streak. The Texans ended the season with a 6-4 record by capturing five of their next seven games.

The Texans fell first to Grand Prairie 14-0 in a defensive duel. Grand Prairie scored twice on two long runs by Gopher Don Marshall, while Sam could not manage a goal.

The following Saturday Sam met the Trinity Trojans at Pennington Field. On a mud-splattered field, the Texan offense just could not mobilize. Sam's lone score came on a 14-yard Terry Johannesen toss. The game ended a 27-9 Trojan win.

On Oct. 1, a clearly dominated Irving MacArthur chalked up a 21-0 halftime lead. After a scoreless first half the Texans engineered an unbelievable comeback. The winning goal was an intercepted pass, giving the Texans a 22-21 victory.

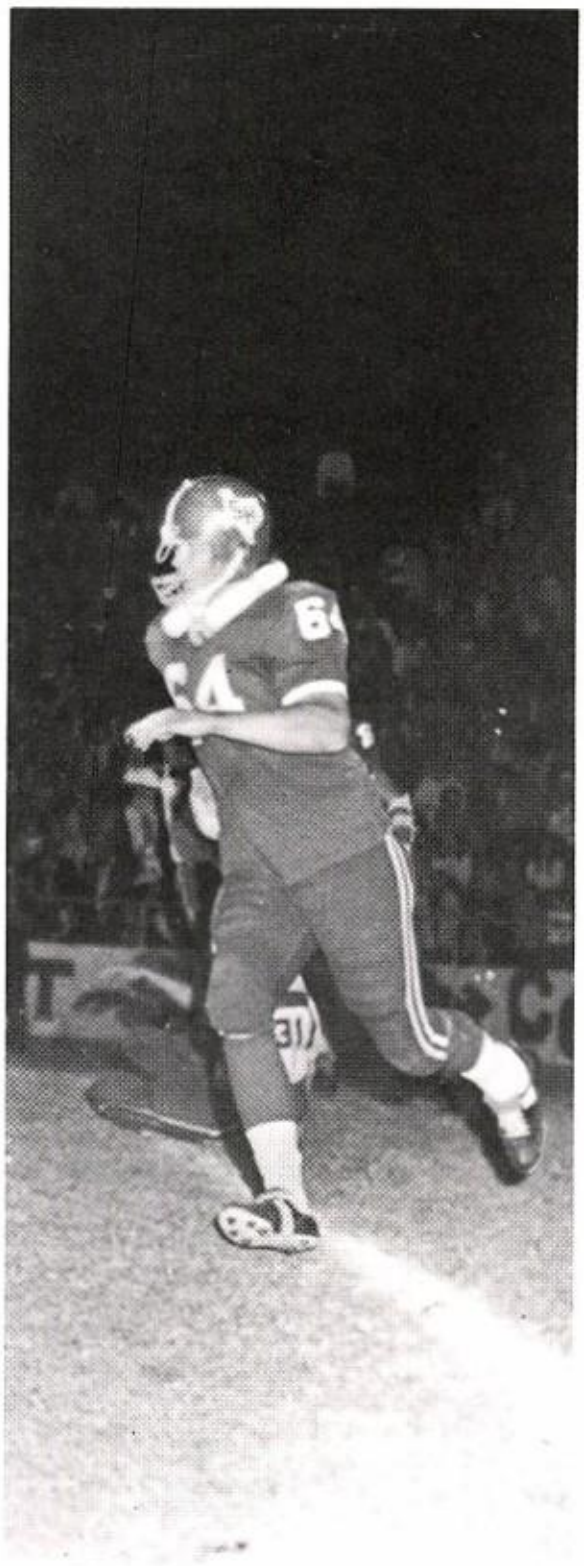
On Friday, Oct. 8, the Texans battled Lamar for the opening bout of the city title. Defense was the name of the game as Ronald Burns, sophomore of the year, led Sam to a touchdown and a shutout, 17-0.

The Texans gained their fourth win against the Irving Tigers the next week. A 23-point first half put the Texans out of reach with the final score a 23-15 Texan win.

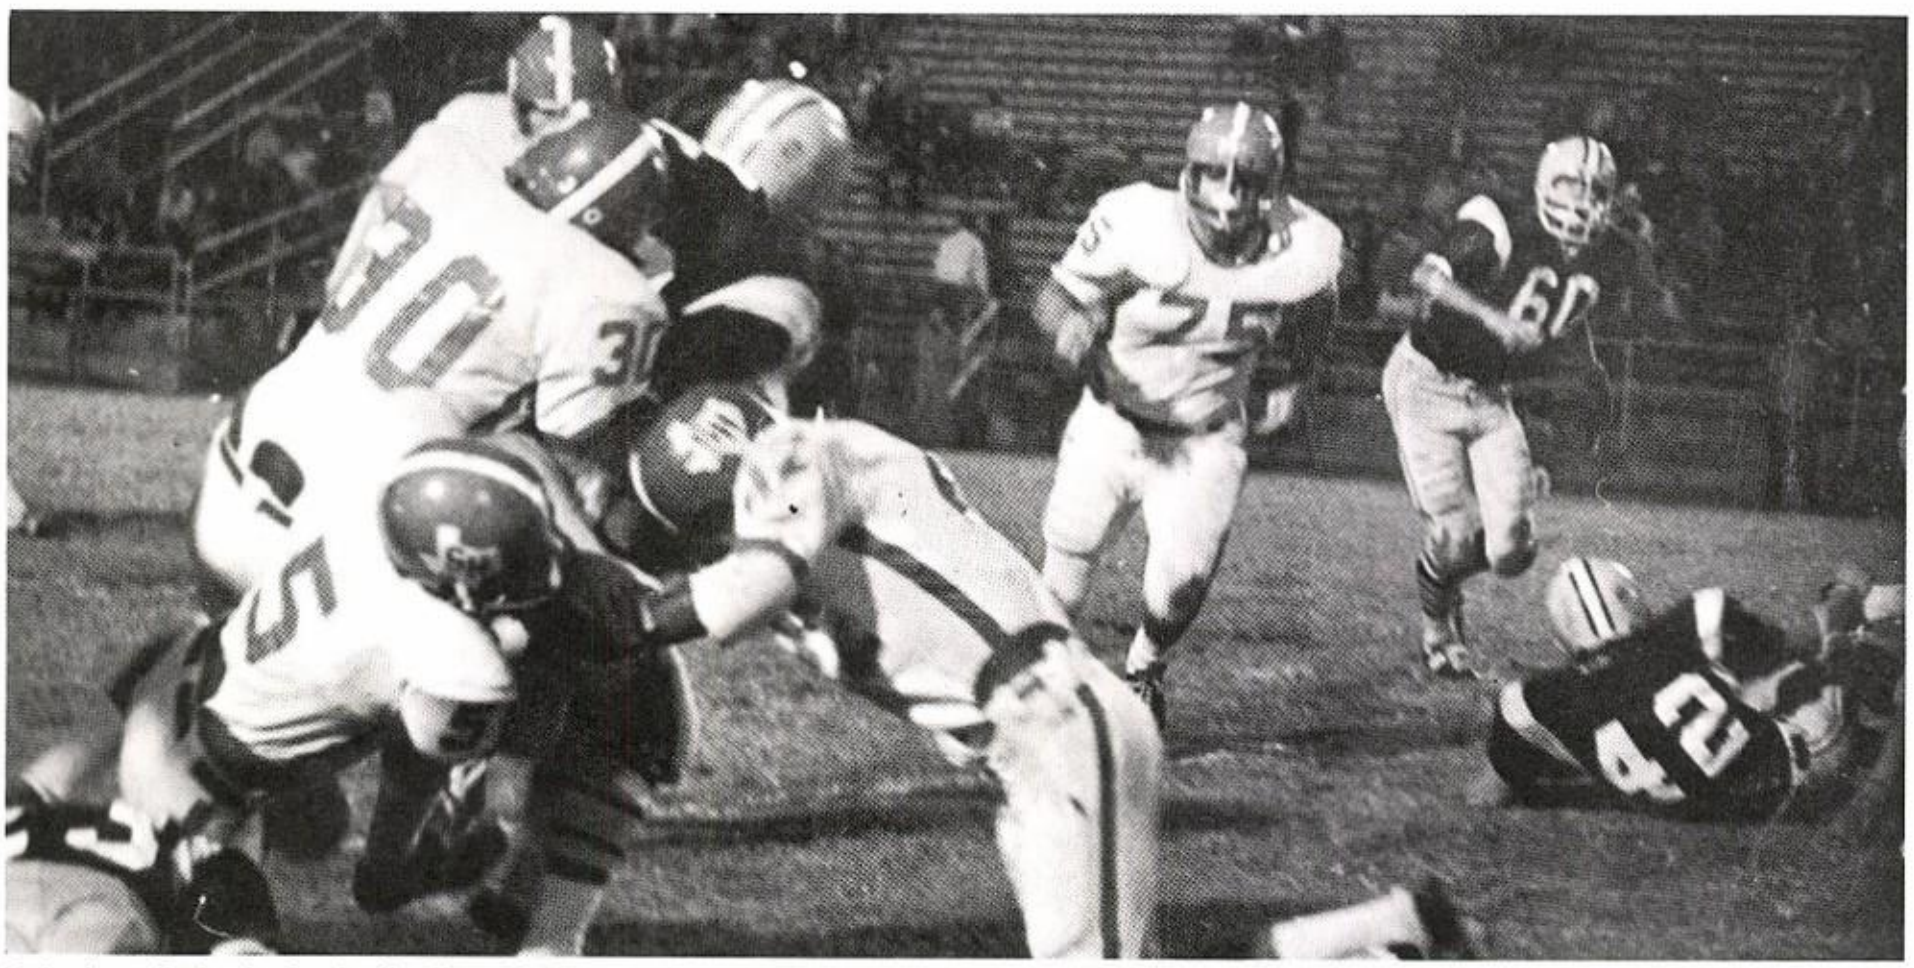
The final score revealed little as Sam fell to State ranked L. D. Bell at Pennington Field. Sam drew first blood and kept Bell on the defensive all night but were edged 35-26 in the final count.

Homecoming day, Oct. 29, proved to be a big one for Big Sam. The offensive scoring record was shattered with over 600 yards rushing. Four Texans broke the 100 yard mark with a 55-19 romp.

The last game of the season showed Sam Houston coming closer than any year before to beating Arlington. Sam fought as no 7-AAAA team had, but a 14-21 effort failed.

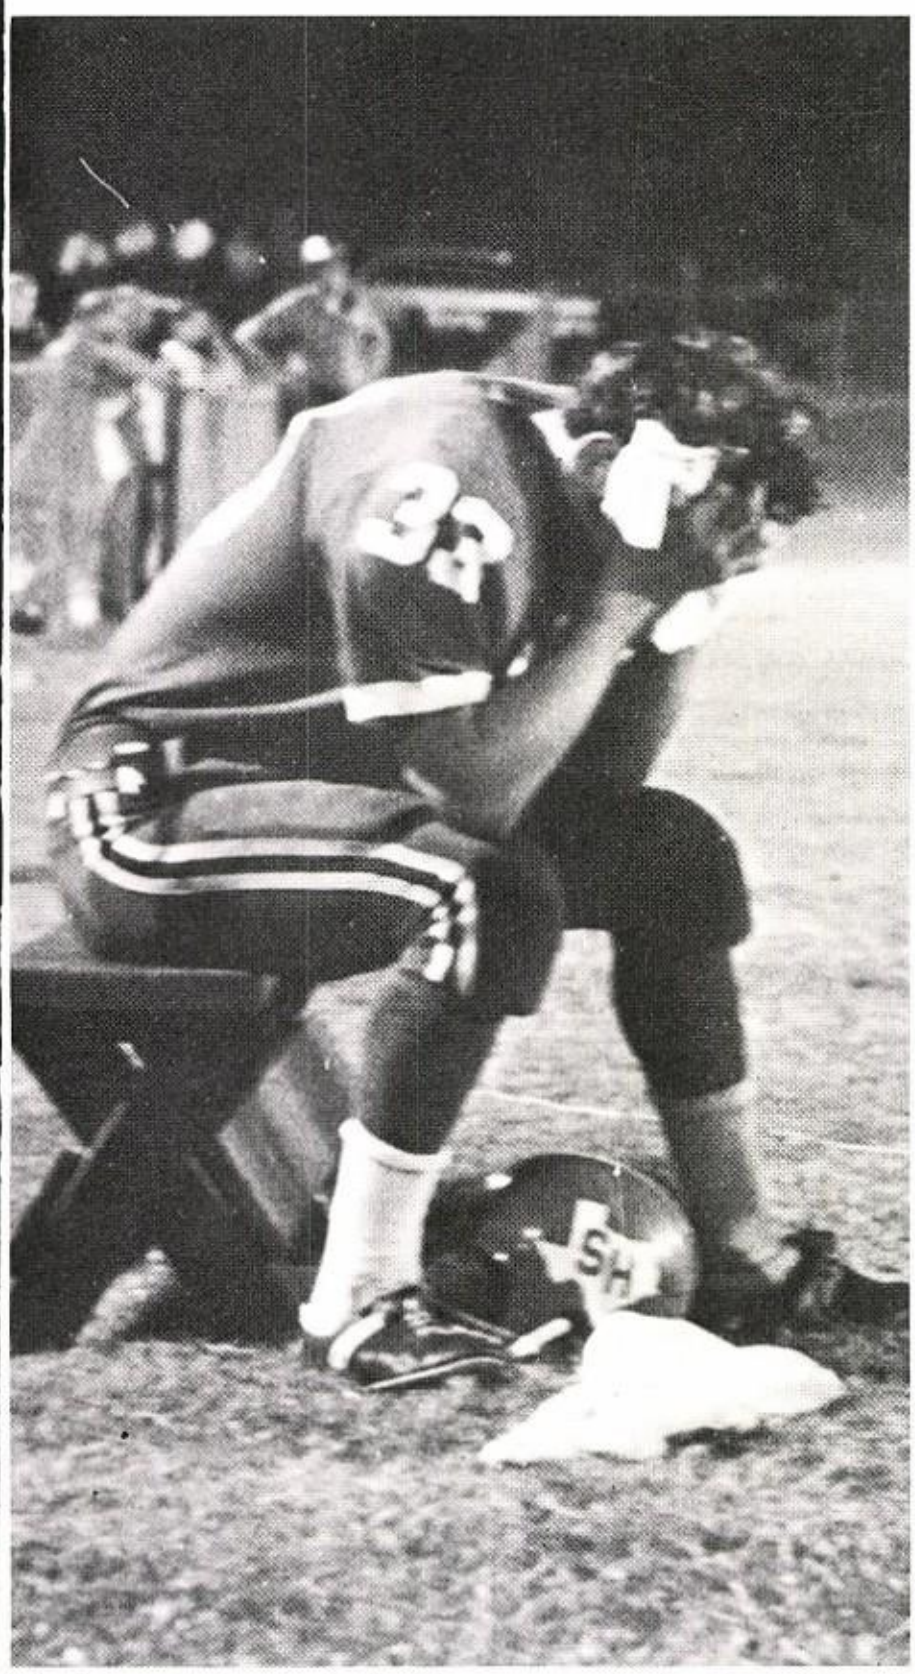


Rusty Rogers hustles for an assist.

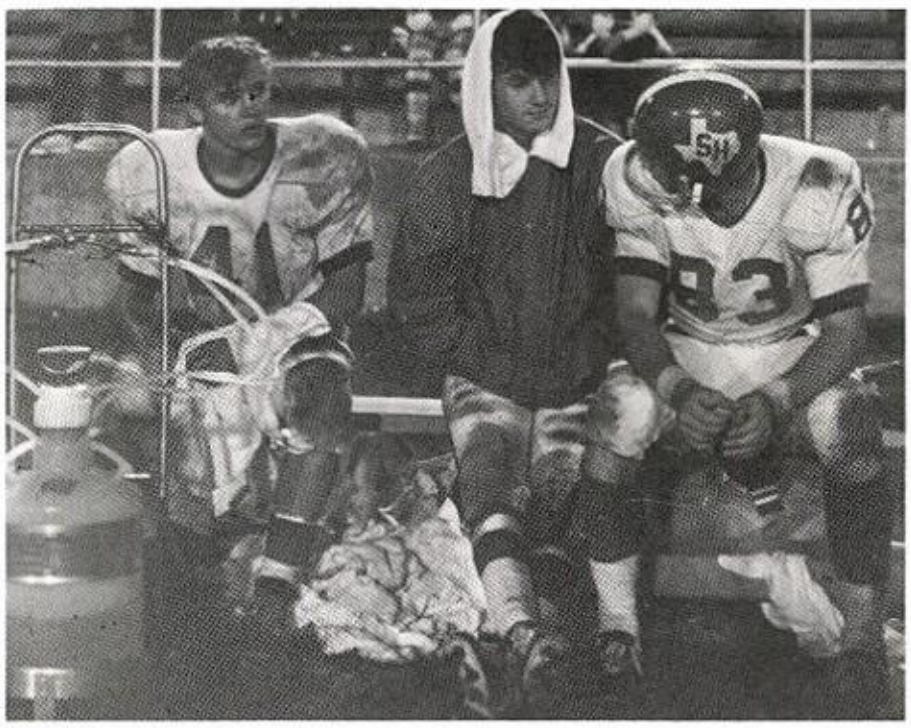


Defenders Richard Gambrell, Tim Nelson, and Ronald Burns demolish a Lamar back with big tackle Dan Patterson closing in.

Linebacker Steve Foster, running at top speed, and defensive end Donny Latham, maintaining his balance, help close in for the kill of a Grand Prairie foe. The game was played at the Gopher Bowl and was the first district contest for each team.



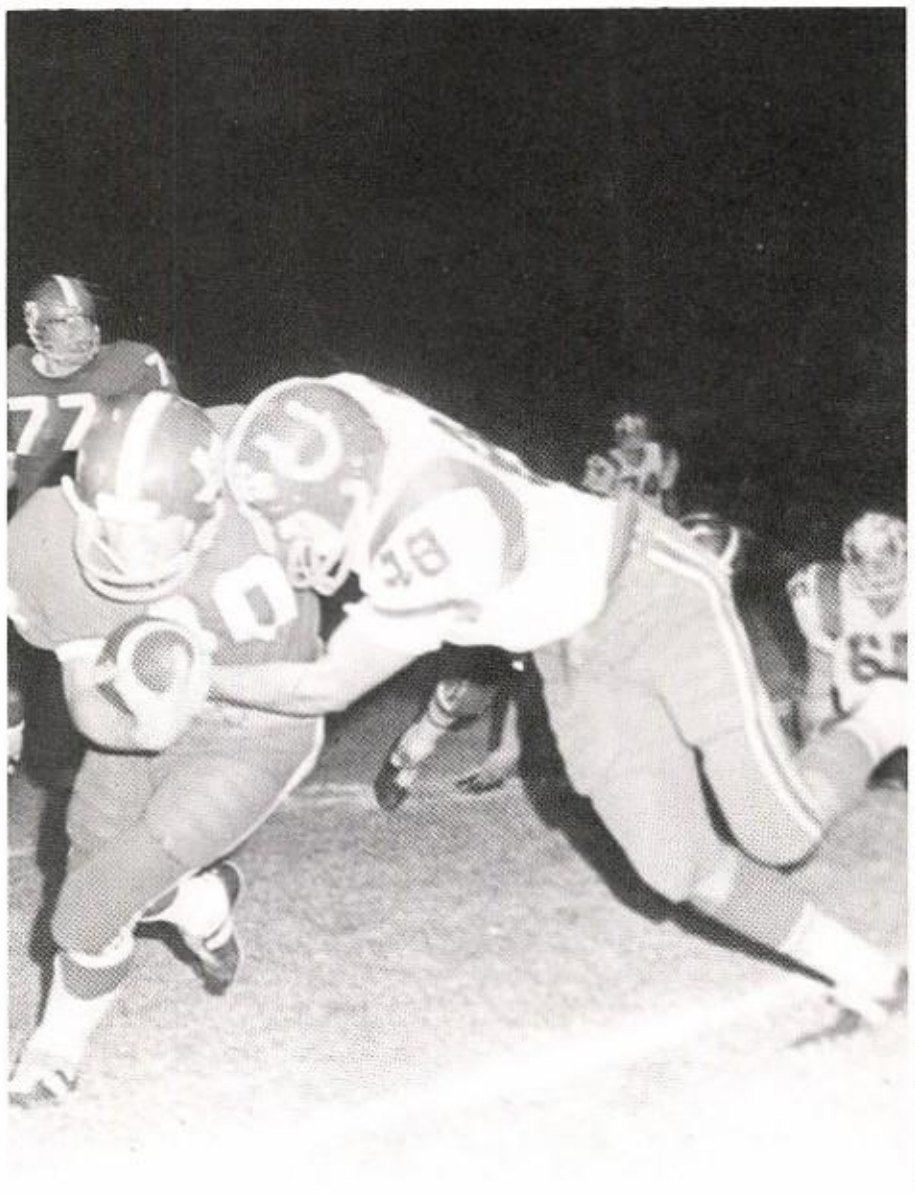
The heat of the battle is just too much for Paul Richards who had to sit out the rest of game against the Vikings.



Discussing strategic plans for finishing the game against Lamar are Kenneth Powers, Mike Phillips, and Glenn Jones.

Breaking a Lamar tackle, quarterback Terry Johannesen has an open field in which to do his fancy footwork for fans.

The team of Arnold and White works again for another point.



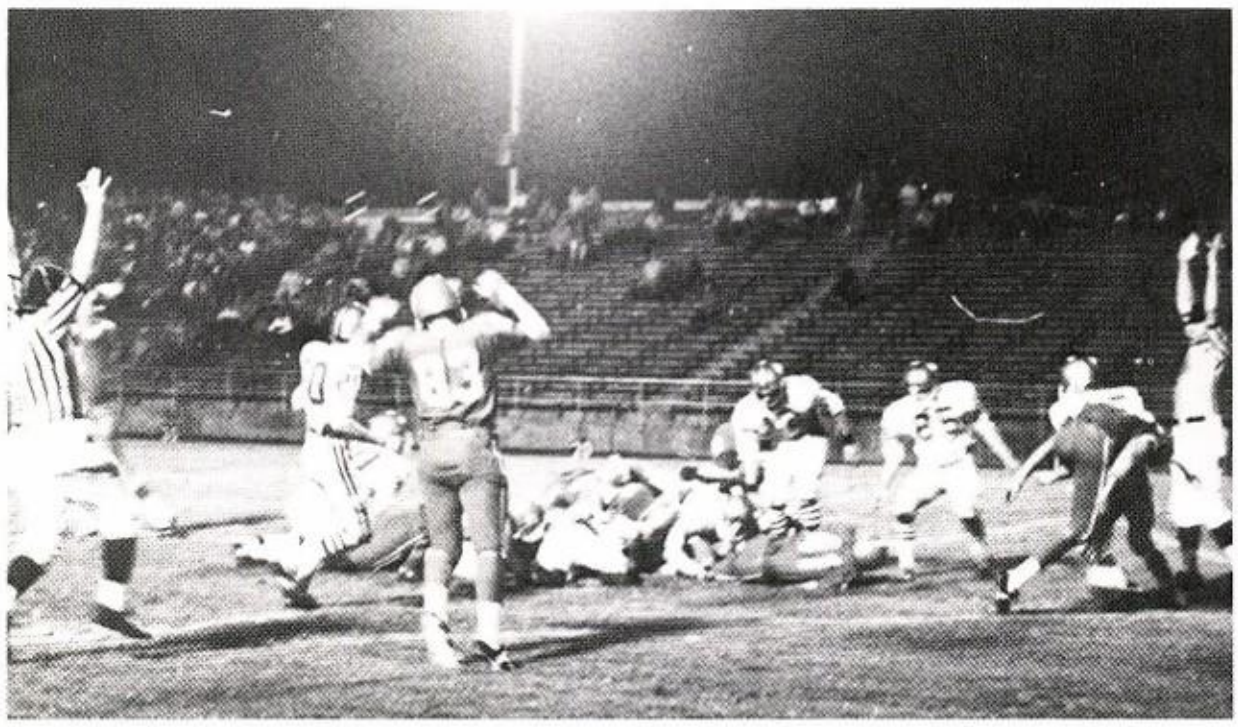
Gritting his teeth, Barry Bartos looks for the goal line.

Making a key reception to keep the drive moving, Glenn Jones helps spark Sam's tremendous 22-21 comeback over MacArthur.

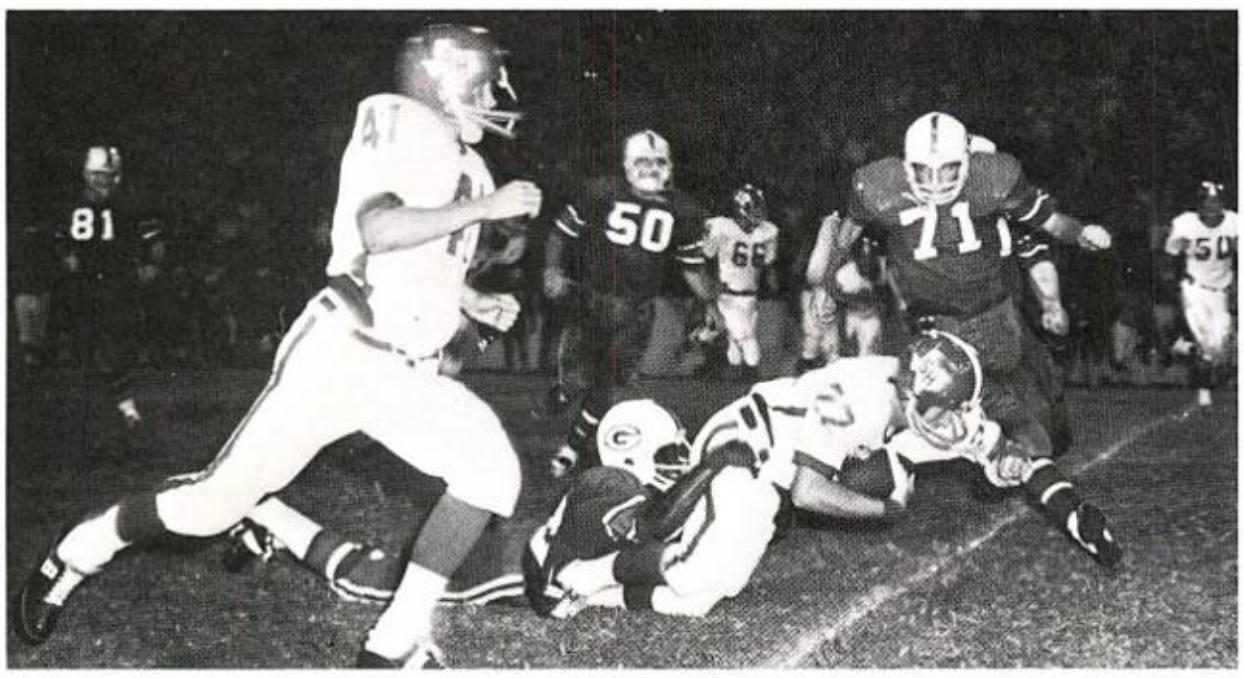
Mick McCollum hauls in a big tackle.

A perfect tackle by James Kirkpatrick smashes a Colt, killing the punt return.

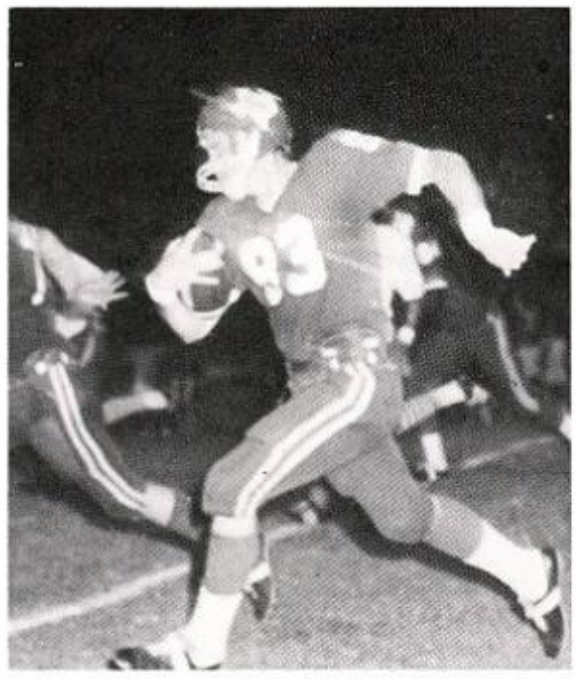
Hit hard, Jones hangs on to the ball.



With good blocking on the line by his teammates, Kenneth Powers scores again.

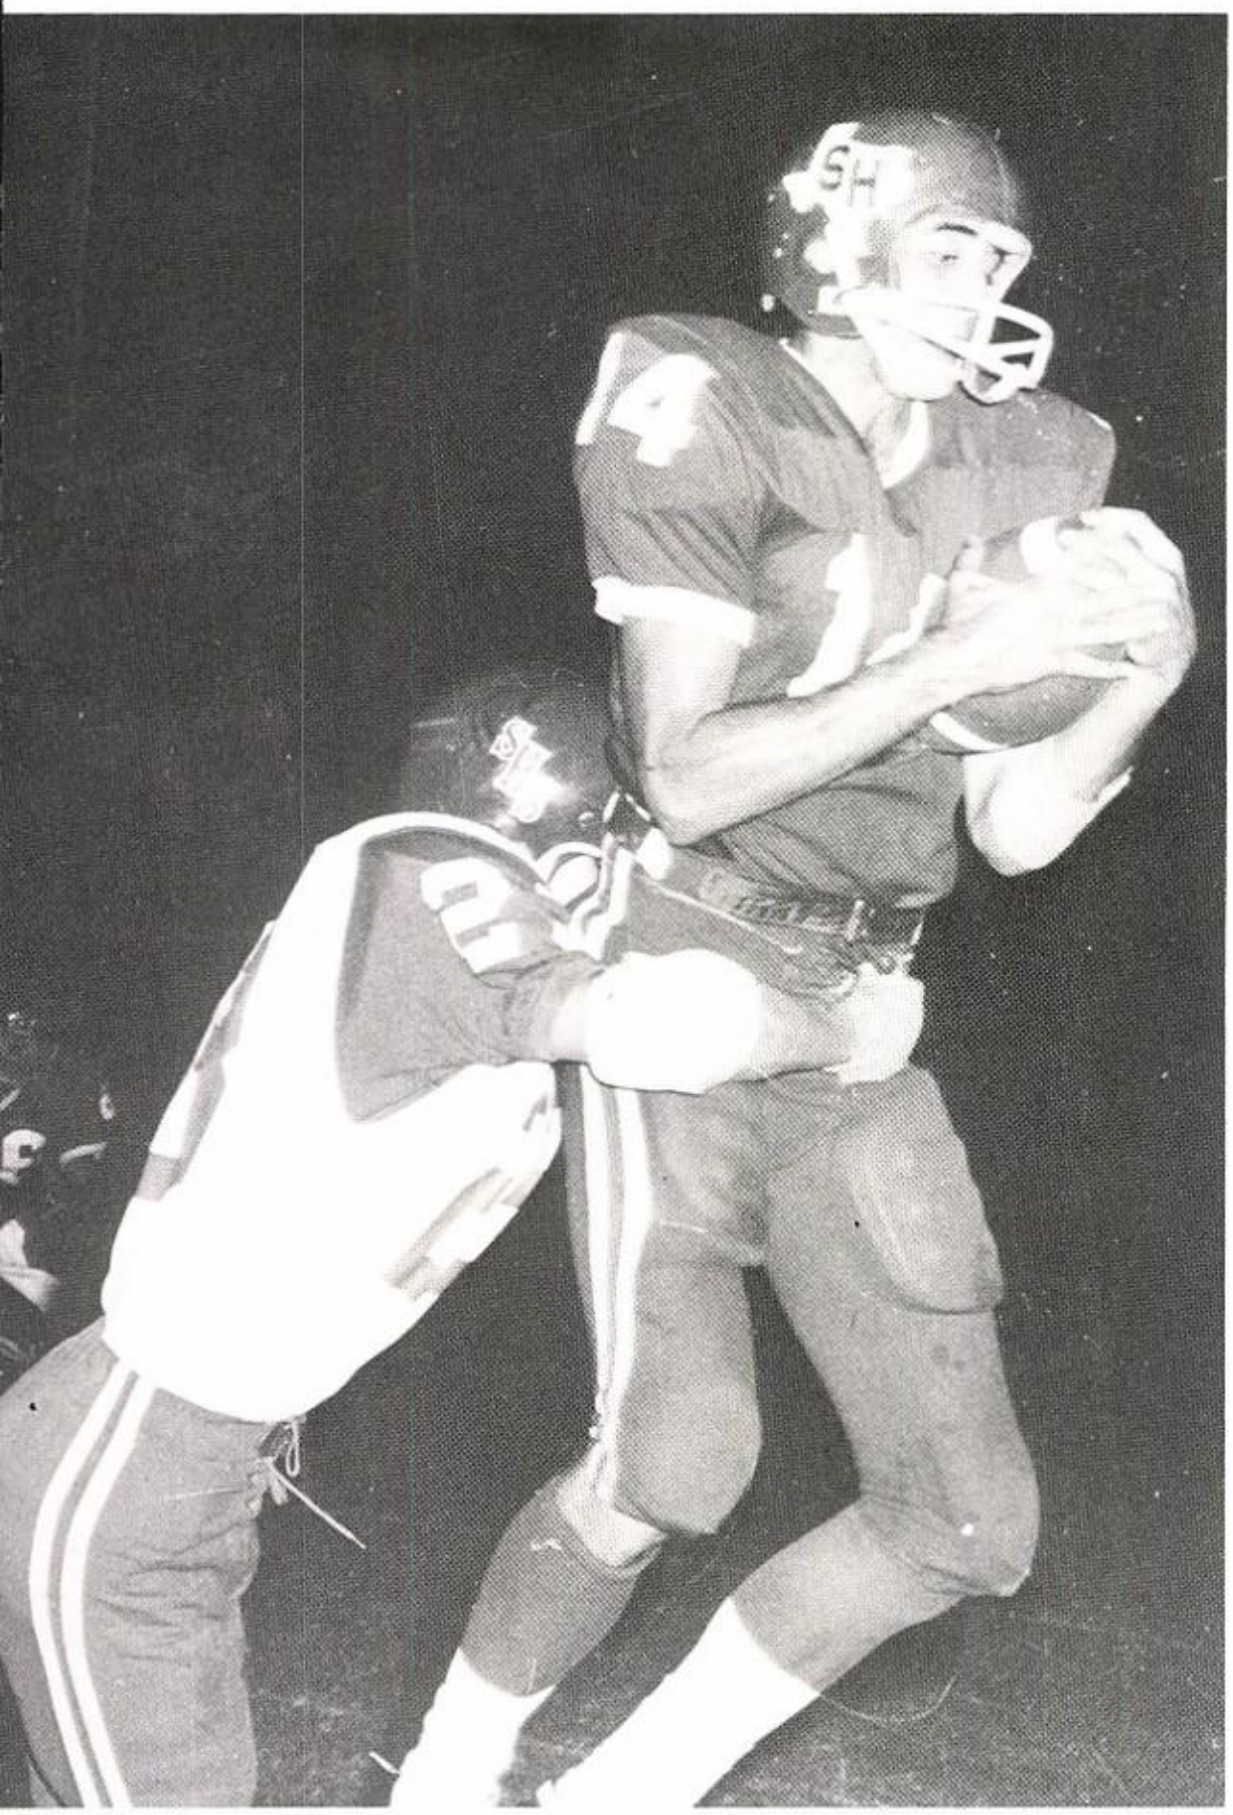


Getting a first down against the Gophers, Jeff Sustrik gives some extra effort.



Glenn Jones takes off for six points.

Stopped just short of a first down, Bartos scores later on an 81-yard TD run.



Catching the ball just as he is hit, Bobby Arnold proves that it can be done.

Non-District Finishes 2-0

In the opening game Sept. 10 with Southwest, Sam showed a strong defense and an explosive offense. The Rebels scored first on a field goal but were held to a total of 11 points, while the Texans managed to put 27 points on the board. Outstanding on offense were Kenneth Powers and Jeff Sustrik. Jay Folta and Albert Allison were defensive standouts for the Texans.

In the second non-district game SHHS played Spruce on Nov. 4 and overpowered the Apaches in a 21-6 battle. The Texans' first score was an 81-yard run by Barry Bartos who piled up a total of 157 yards on 16 carries. Other offensive standouts were quarterback Jeff Sustrik and tight-end Donny Latham. Standouts on defense were Ronald Burns and Mick McCollum who each caused the Apaches to suffer a turnover.

B-Team Wins District Two Years Straight, Completes Season with First 8-1 Record

With a team of 43 men the junior varsity chalked up an 8-1 record. They started off on the wrong foot by being defeated by the Southwest Rebels 16-0, but they ended their season with the most impressive record Sam's B-team has had.

In the first district game they defeated Grand Prairie 20-0. Derek Mott was outstanding on offense.

After playing three more games, they had still not been scored on in district play. They overpowered Trinity 29-0, MacArthur 33-0, and trounced Lamar 45-0.

In the next three contests the Texans were finally scored on in district play, but they held their opponents to a total of 30 points. They defeated Irving 50-8, smashed Bell 49-8, and beat Nimitz 56-14.

The Colts were given everything the Texans had and defeated 6-3. Outstanding defensive players were Glen Mead, Steve Cunningham, and tackle Dino Urquidi.

Banquet Honors Team, All-District Chosen

Coach Stewart presents Donny Latham with the Most Valuable Player Award. Donny was voted by his teammates "the one who could be counted on in any situation."

On Jan. 22 the Texans held their annual banquet. The guest speaker was Ray Renfro, receiver coach for the Dallas Cowboys. More than 300 attended the dinner. Gerald Nowlin received the lineman award, Donny Latham, most valuable player, Karl Joines, sportsmanship, and Kenneth Powers, the back award. Also mentioned were all-district players.

Guest Ray Renfro, coach of the World-Champion Cowboys, speaks about faith.

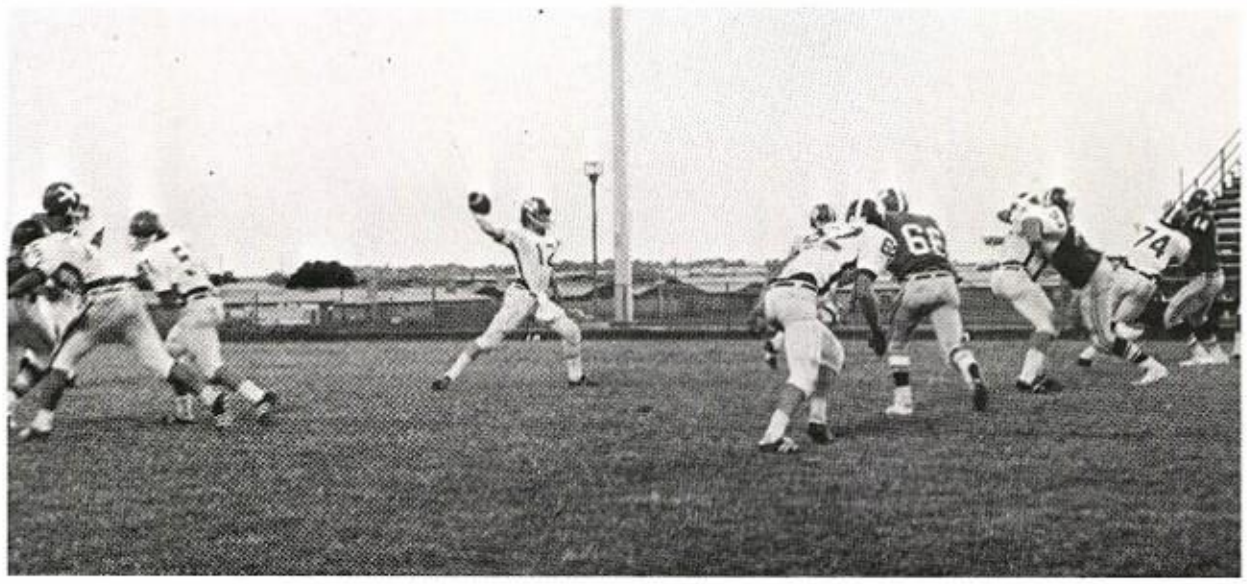
Senior Exes Hold Varsity to Scoreless Tie

The Annual Exes Game was held on May 26 at Sam Houston Stadium. It was the opening contest in the stadium and proved to be quite a defensive battle.

Turnovers seemed to plague both sides and neither team's offense ever really threatened to score. Most of the game was played in the center of the field. Mario Azios led the Varsity defense and standouts for the Exes included Kenneth Powers and Gerald Nowlin.



Quarterback Terry Johannesen attempts to throw the pass that will win the game.

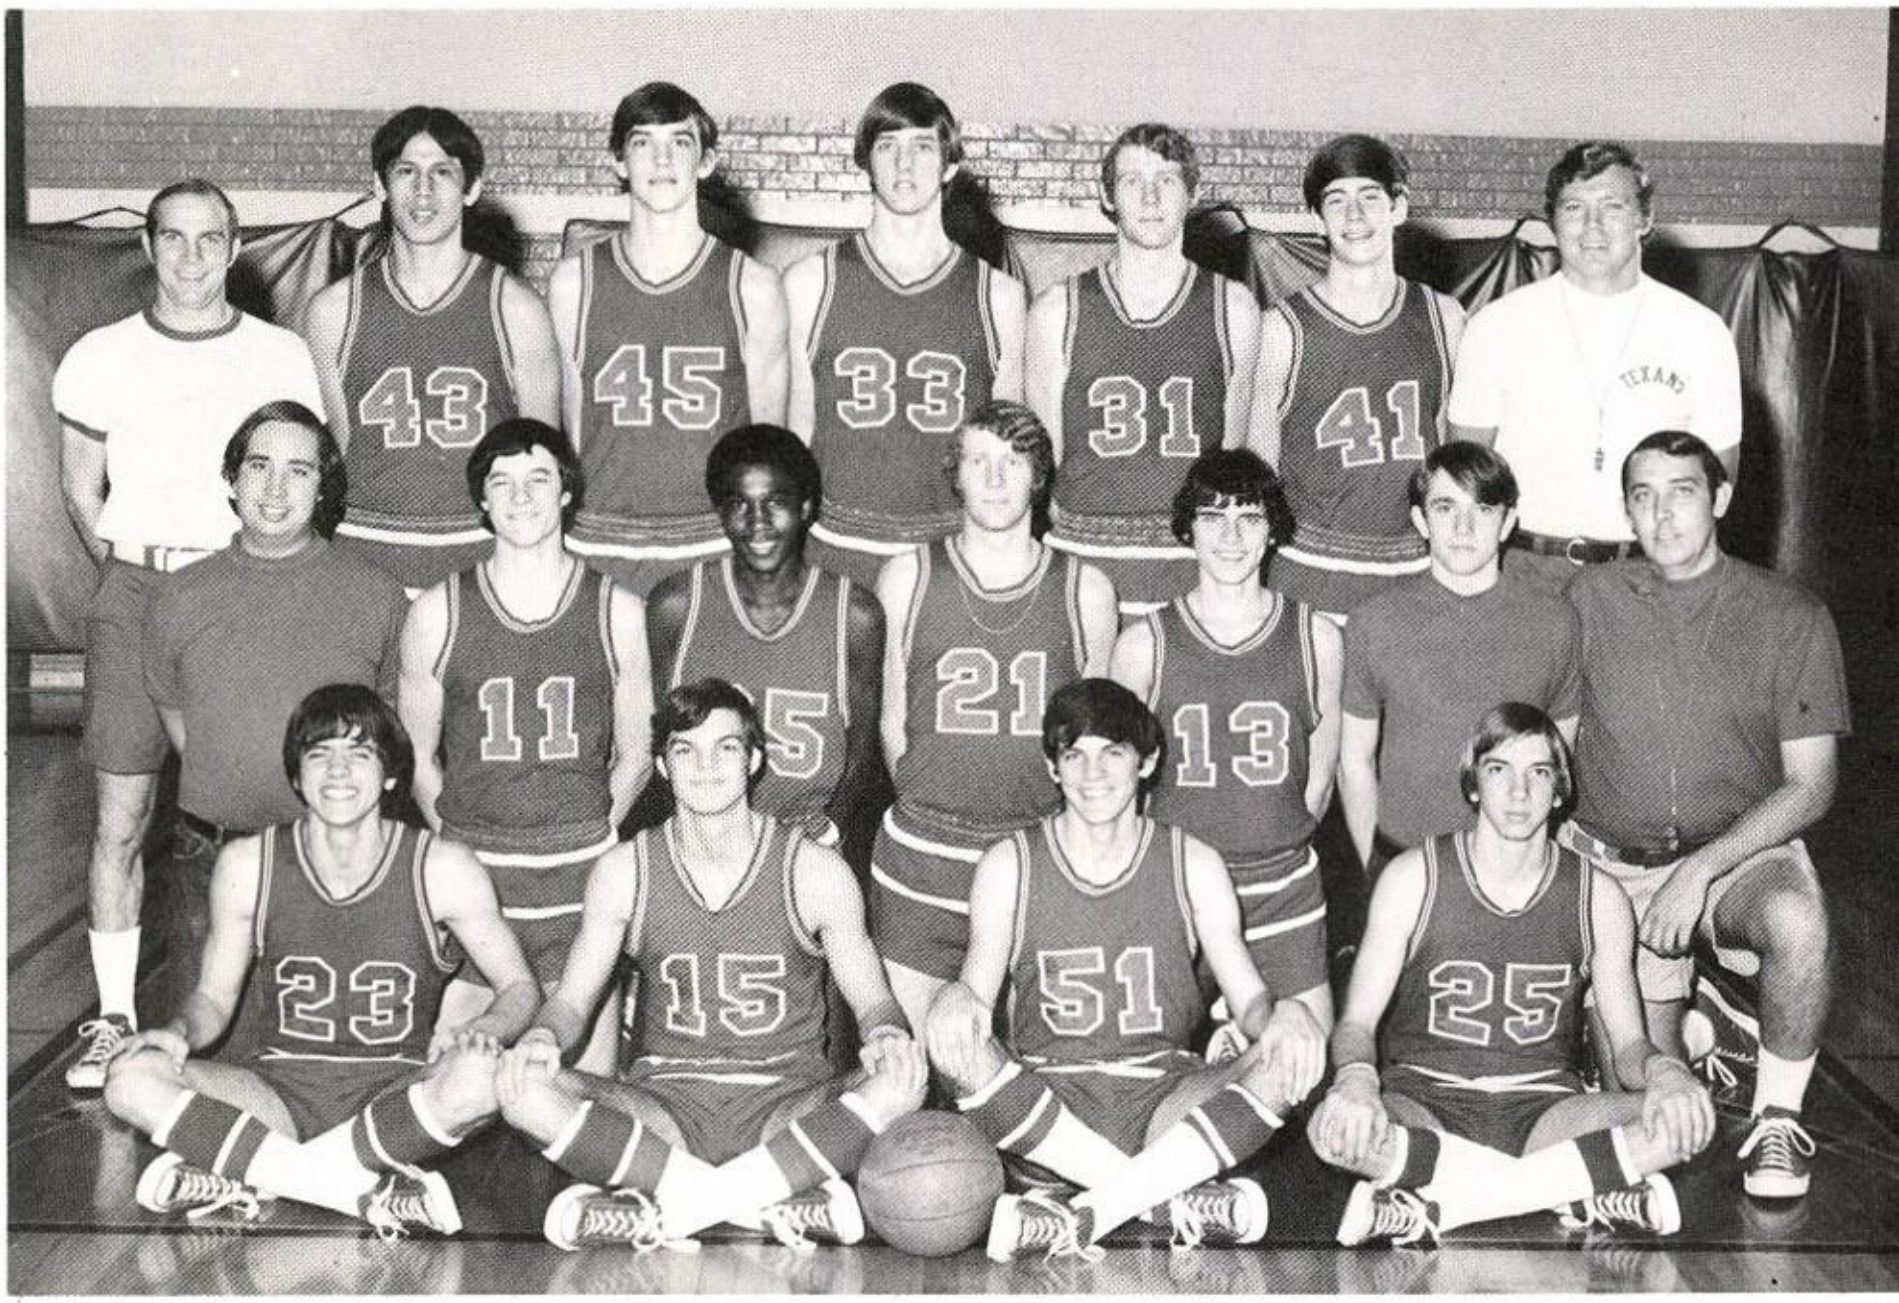
Sophomore Glenn "Termite" Mead prevents an Exes touchdown.

Kenneth Powers attempts to hurdle his way to a first down.



Finishing second in district are Coach Terry George, Terry St. Cyr, George Seaman, Grady O'Neal, Brad Russell, Dennis O'Donnell, Coach Billy Stewart, Tom Hayes, Gary Templin, Wesley Nute, Burt Russell, Jimmy Adkins, Mark Roberson, Coach Leon Bowman, Tommy Palazzini, Al Reed, Tommy Scott, and Vernon Gardner. They ended the season with a 13-3 record.

Roundballers Take Second Half of District

The district opener was a big win against the L. D. Bell Raiders. In a defensive battle against Irving MacArthur, the Texans managed 44 points to the Cardinals' 42.

On Jan. 7, Sam Houston played their high point game of the year, as they downed Nimitz 90-74. The Colts took a quick lead but were overtaken. The Colts won 85-73.

Sam went to Trinity to defeat the Trojans 86-77. Palazzini hit on 13-15 attempts for 27 points. Displaying an unbelievable offense against Irving Grady had 40 points in the game for a district high.

Non-regulars saw much action as Sam battled Lamar, defeating the Vikings, 54-48. Turnovers marred Sam's offense as they slipped by Grand Prairie 63-60.

The second half of district was started with an outstanding third period effort against L. D. Bell. On Feb. 1, the Texans played MacArthur here. Vernon Gardner took scoring honors with 20 points.

The Texans met Nimitz on their home court. Vernon Gardner's consistent shooting led Sam to an 85-61 victory. With an early start and steady ballhandling, Sam downed Trinity for a 4-0 record.

On Feb. 15, Sam, looking like champs, played Irving to a three point victory. The Colts proved to be no match, as Sam pushed their way to the playoff. Four players scored in double figures.

The Texans beat Lamar, cinching the second half of district. The Grand Prairie game was cancelled and the Texans played Irving for the title. The contest ended with Irving 71 and the Texans 57.

B-Team Posts 6-9 Record

The 1971-72 Texan basketball B-team started the year on a sour note, losing five of their opening seven contests. Six of these games were won or lost in the margin of five points or less; three were by only one point. The second half, the mighty Texans showed a change.

Led by Coach Leon Bowman, the Texan B-teamers met the Bell Blue Raiders but were defeated 52-48. Next, the B-teamers traveled on to MacArthur only to be shut-down by the Cardinals. Nimitz barely clipped the Texans in the final minutes as Sam fell 51-50.

Irving slipped by Sam Houston 59-58, and Trinity proved to be no match. The Colts took a 20 point decision and Lamar managed to have a four point lead at the buzzer. The Texans put it together against Grand Prairie with a 60-47 win.

The Texan B-team missed going undefeated by two games in the second half. Winning five of seven games, they lost to Lamar by one point in overtime. The Texans beat L. D. Bell by a small margin, then took a decisive win against MacArthur 57-42 and Nimitz 63-54.

The B-teamers then traveled to Nimitz to beat the Vikings 63-54. They met Trinity here and walked away with a 12 point victory. Irving defeated Sam, but the mighty team came back to take the Colts. Lamar beat Sam 64-63 in overtime.

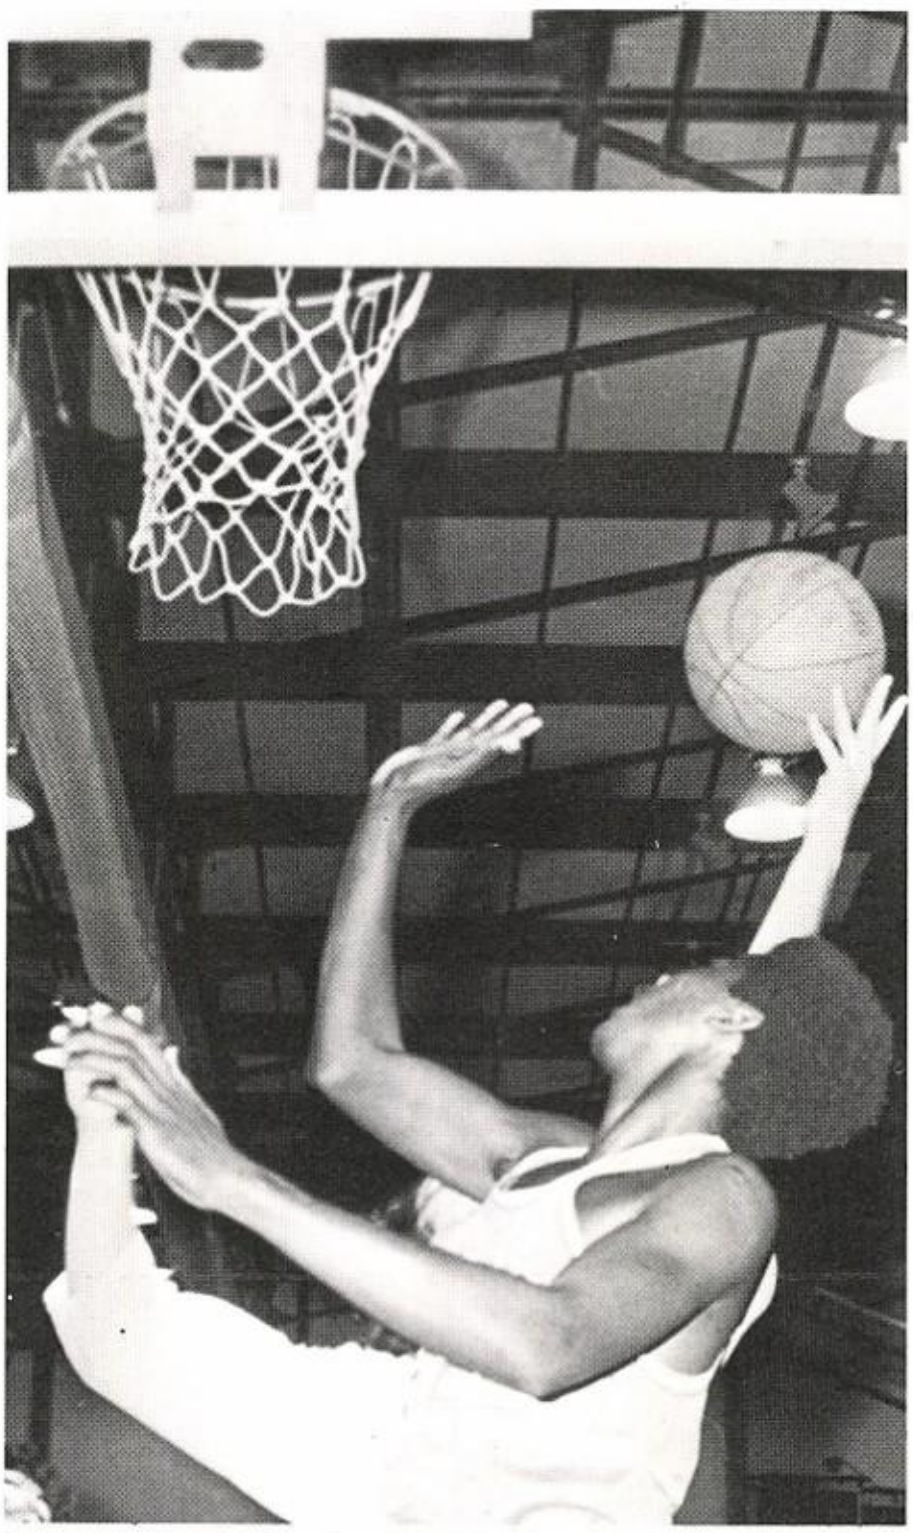
Exes Play Benefit Game for Mike Smith

Ready for the rebound, all players watch the ball, awaiting the final decision.

A benefit game was held on May 11 in the Texan gym in memory of Texan-Ex Mike Smith. The $260 that was donated went into a scholarship fund sponsored by Phi Delta. Sam's 1972 varsity won 77-70.

Joining Phi Delta in the effort were several UTA Varsity players, Arlington graduates, and Sam Houston Exes. From the 1970 Texan team that won 12 straight games were Gary Lantrip, Ralph Springer, Mike Hathcoat, Brad Bills, Dennis Modisett, Mike Bedard, Dennis Brewer, and Pete DeLos Santos.

A Phi Delta player stands helpless as an Ex-Texan scores.



Attempting to block the shot, Wesley Nute avoids the foul.

First Half Tight for Texan Hardballers

After posting a 7-3 record in non-district play, Sam's hardballers came back batting .500 in 16 district games. Depth was the biggest asset the Texans had with seven pitchers on the staff. There were three sophomores and three juniors in starting berths.

Winning the first six district games, the Texans fell to Bell in a hard fought 1-0 decision. Texan Reuben Tomlin hurled a one-hitter, but fielding errors cost them the game. The Texans staged a comeback against Nimitz but fell short of the Vikings' mark 5-3.

The Texans ended the season by downing Lamar and Trinity, but lost three important games to Nimitz, Arlington, and L. D. Bell. Larry Cope scored one run to beat Lamar as David Hicks shut out Trinity.

Trying to put it over the fence, junior Glenn Jones takes a big cut at the ball.

Track Captures District 7-4A Title Again

The Sam Houston thinclad team sprinted their way to the second straight year as district champs. Led by Coaches Jimmy Brooks, Bill Keith, and James Hyden, they won the district by a solid 33 points, sending many to regionals.

Sophomores Danny Jones, Jerry York, David Holtum, and Sam Sexton set a district record in the sprint medley in 3:44.7. Setting records in both intermediate and high hurdles, posting times of 39.5 and 14.5 was Mike Styne.

Senior Paul Acker left his mark by setting records in the 440 and 220 yard sprints and tying the 100 yard dash at 9.9. Junior Ricky Neuman set a distance record of 4½″ in the shot put.

Led by Mr. Steve Vaughan, the team competes in area tournaments.

Netters Place in District

The Texan Tennis Team, led by Mr. Steve Vaughan, worked their way to a first place tie in district play. Steve Burton, David McCord, and David Wernecke made the district 4-A all-district tennis team. Clarissa Carter and Debbie Dollar defeated fourth seeded Lamar to reach the semifinals in girls' doubles. Winning district in boys' doubles were junior Steve Burton and senior David McCord. They finished their season with the highest honor in Texan tennis history.

They finished district with a 19-5 record.

Girls' Volleyball Claims Third in District

Hard work and devoted hours of practice helped the girls varsity volleyball team finish their district season record with third place rankings. This is the second consecutive year in which the team finished third in district. This was also only the second year that Mrs. Sue Ellis coached the varsity volleyball team. They finished the season by winning 9 district games and losing only 5. The teams that managed to beat them in district play were Castleberry, Irving, and Arlington. At the Houston tourney hosted by Spring Woods, Sam placed fourth. Both Pam Morris and Donita Schenck made all-district honors.

FACULTY

Joining forces to make a team are Mr. Woodrow Counts, assistant superintendent of education, Mr. James W. Martin, superintendent, and Mr. Roy Wood, assistant superintendent of finance. These three men choose personnel and initiate policy.

Board Members Busy with School Policies

Public school board members are Mr. J. M. Farrell, Mr. Bill Bondurant, Mrs. Tye Barnett, Dr. Truett Boles, Mr. Charles Young, and Mr. Tom Foster (not shown).

Serving as a vital part of the Arlington city school system is the administration. Their job concerns planning, supervising, and organizing. Curriculum, selection of teachers, financial areas, and maintenance crews are just several of the responsibilities the superintendents fulfill for all Arlington public schools.

Administrators find spring is a busy time of year, as decisions must be made involving new courses and the selection of instructors for summer school and the following school year.

Keeping Arlington's school district running smoothly and carrying out policies set by the Board of Education are the six members of the school board.

Providing for new stadium facilities at Sam Houston was a major transaction carried out by members of this year's board. The school board plans for the installation of dressing rooms and concession stands, and for additional parking.

Standing before the newly erected school title, Mr. Bicknell, Mr. Key and Mr. Remynse are proud leaders of Sam Houston.

Students Led by Key, Remynse, Bicknell

Combining a total of 65 years of experience in educational work are Mr. Harold Key, principal, Mr. Bud Remynse, vice-principal, and the assistant vice-principal and dean of boys, Mr. Monroe Bicknell.

As Mr. Key is in the main office, Mr. Remynse and Mr. Bicknell have outer offices run by Mrs. Pat Powers and Mrs. Lorraine Brogdon.

Mr. H. W. Key has been the principal of Sam Houston High School since it first opened in the autumn of 1963.

"Mr. Remynse, your wife has called and said she had triplets; one girl, one boy, and one that looks just like you!"

"Did you say Hong Kong flu, an ulcer, mononucleosis, and a broken toe? You will be here when?" asks Mr. Bicknell.

Secretaries Keep School Moving Smoothly

The assistance of four counselors is available for troubled students. Mrs. Marjean Kitts serves as sophomore counselor, while Mrs. Betty Whitaker is responsible for juniors. The combined efforts of Mrs. Emily Lunday and Mrs. Tommie Williams aid seniors.

Serving as dean of girls, Mrs. Doreen Young maintains and records all girl absentees and schedules.

Clinic aid Mrs. Pat Edney takes care of all health problems including keeping immunization records correct and up to date.

Besides being Mr. Key's personal secretary, Mrs. Audine Whitten is responsible for financial records.

Employed in the front office as secretaries are Mrs. Helen Shumate, Mrs. Dorothy Skaggs and Mrs. Doris Brazzil, registrar.

The efficient library system at Sam Houston is maintained and supported by Mrs. Jimmie Russell and Mrs. Louise Clark.

Mrs. Pat Powers makes appointment to fit Mr. Remynse's busy schedule.

Mrs. Helen Shumate serves as a secretary in the front office, along with Mrs. Doris Brazzil, who serves as registrar. These ladies help coordinate paperwork.

Art Offers Two New Courses

Liberal arts at Sam Houston include speech, drama, photography, journalism, and art. All of these are chosen by students as electives and are one credit courses.

Speech classes are mainly concerned with teaching students the fundamentals of public speaking.

Live theatre, backstage productions, and literature are covered in Drama I, II, III.

Photography I and II teach the main elements of photo composition. The students take and print pictures used in Texans Talk and Cherokee.

Journalism I teaches basics of newspaper, and selected students from this course compose the Texans Talk staff which is called Advanced Journalism II.

Six courses are available for art students. Art I, II, and III and commercial art encourage creativity, and this year Art IV and arts and crafts are offered.

Musicians Work Extra Hours

Sam Houston's Music Department is divided into two major areas and includes over 350 students.

About 250 participate to form six choirs. The Choral Department contains sophomore mixed choir, a cappella, chorale and girls choir.

The Singing Texans and Texan Belles meet outside school.

Including four bands, the Band Department also teaches classes in music history, and theory. Concert, stage and training bands perform with a 65-piece marching band.

As Miss Sewell begins "Somewhere Over the Rainbow," the cowardly lion, Kaleen Hurley, points out the road to the Land of Oz for Miss Peveto and Mr. Harris.

With the importance of composition and literature being stressed in sophomore, junior, and senior English classes, Sam Houston has one of the area's most comprehensive English Departments.

Team teaching methods are used to increase students' understanding of world, British, and classical literature. Students were placed in basic, regular, honors, and pilot classes according to their individual achievement. Mini-courses were chosen by the senior English classes for the fifth six weeks.

Students who are interested in the field of social studies have a wide selection of courses from which to choose. There are seven different, yet related classes which are offered this year.

Seniors can choose from several one semester courses. Economics, contemporary social and economic problems, and civics all deal with past and present problems in America. Psychology and sociology, also one semester courses involve the study of man's behavior.

By studying past history, students seek to understand the present in the full-year American and world history courses.

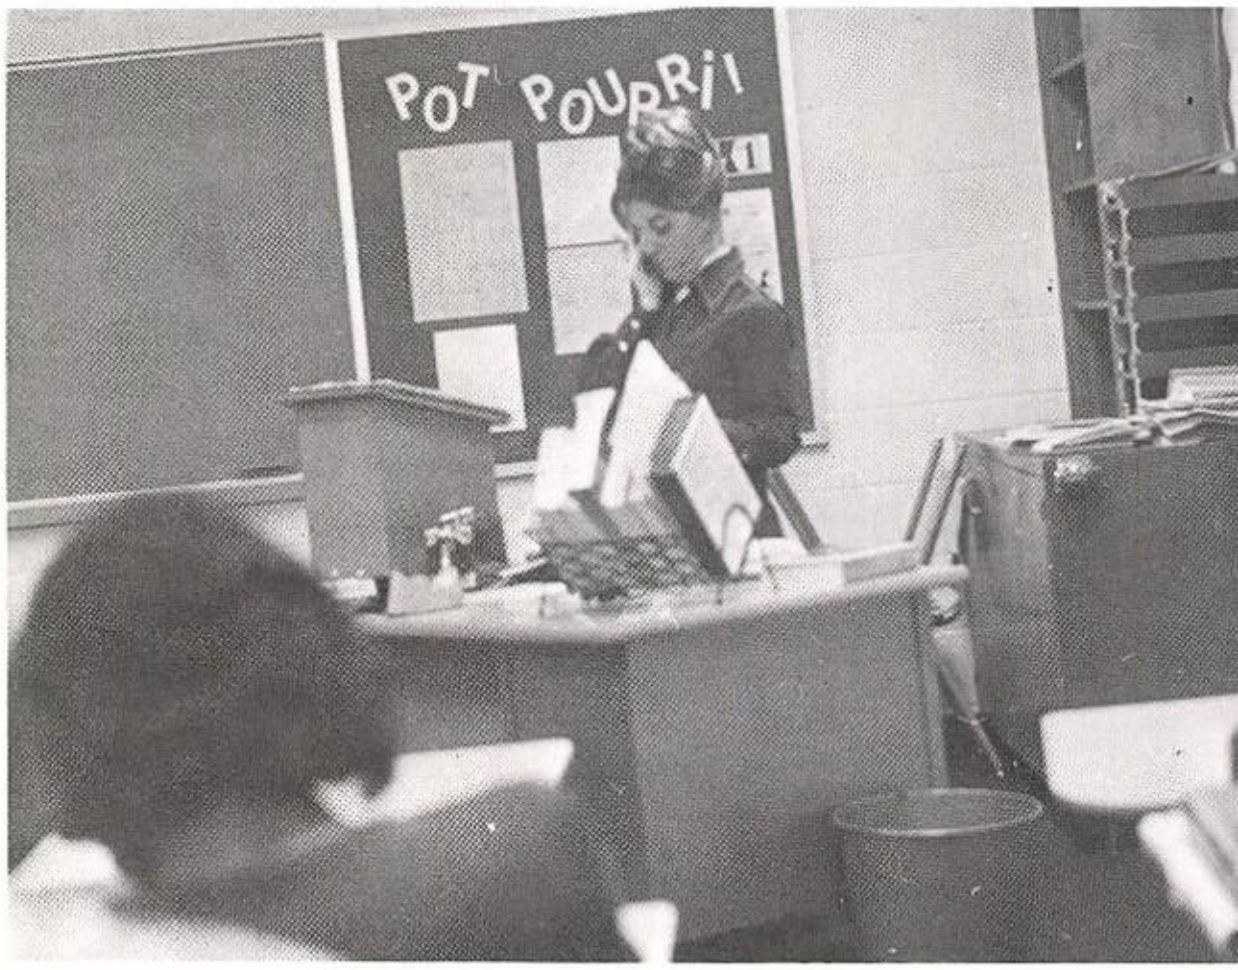
Russian Added to Foreign Language Courses

For the first time, the Foreign Language Department at Sam is offering Russian to students along with the four other languages.

Three years of Spanish, three years of French, two years of German, and a two year course of Latin are presently being offered.

The first year of a foreign language consists of the fundamentals of speaking and reading grammar and reading comprehension comprises the second year of study. The last year courses study the literature and culture of the country.



After a student's inquiry concerning the activities of the coming week, Miss Jean Anderson pauses awhile as she realizes what a busy time is ahead of her.

Mrs. Wiese presents a Spanish lesson on verbs to her first year students.

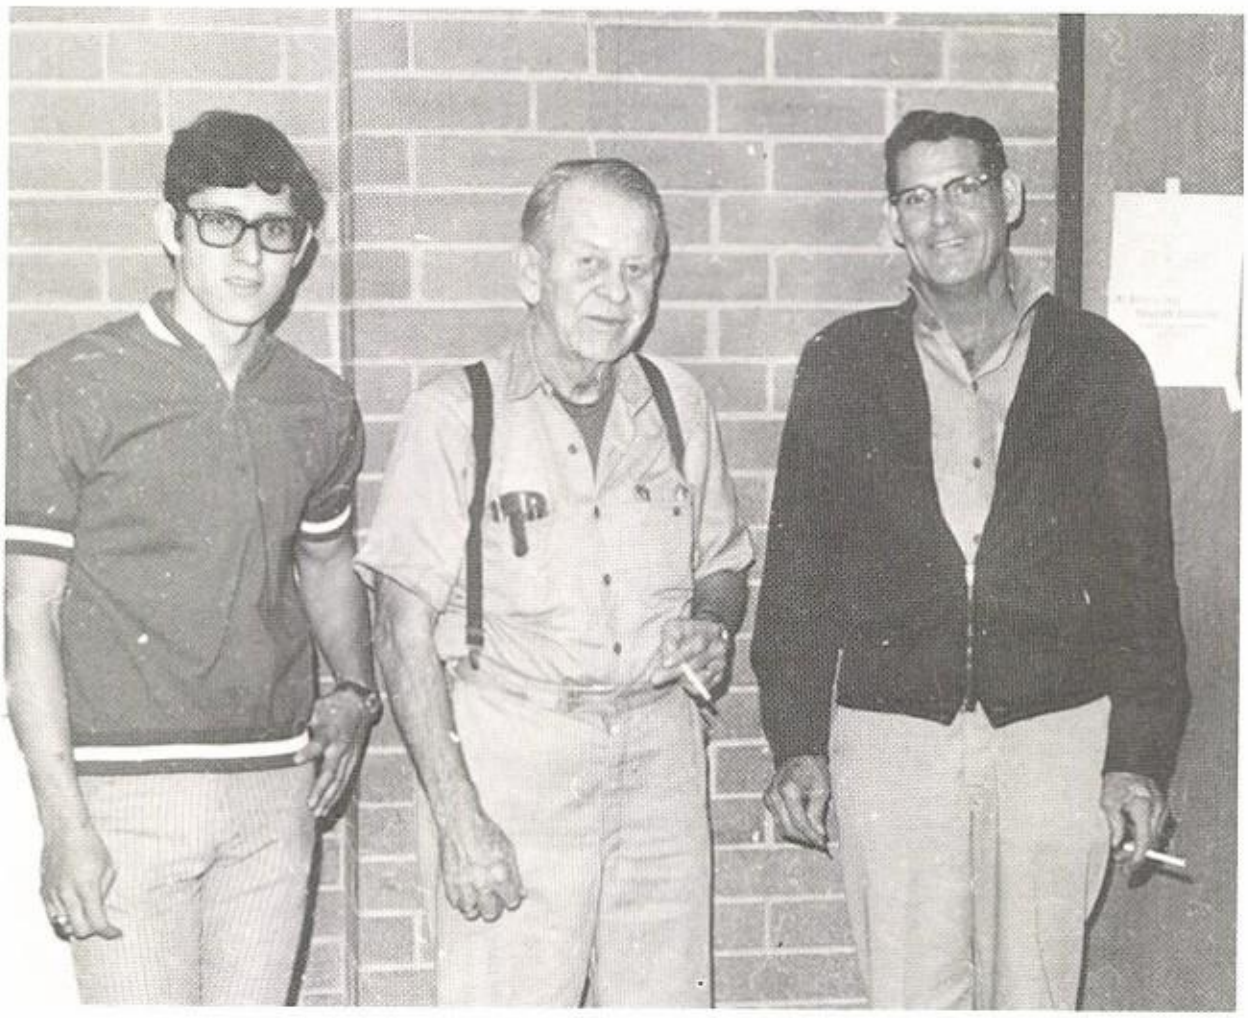
Staffs Keep Sam in Order

The cafeteria ladies prepare enough food to feed over 1000 hungry students daily. For a morning snack, the cafeteria force provides about 1000 cinnamon rolls per week. The number of personnel in the cafeteria totals 12.

The custodial staff, made up of 16 night and three day employees, keeps Sam in operating condition.

Backing the Texans in their spare time, the cafeteria staff sketches posters.

Mrs. Clark prepares cookies for lunch.



Custodians include Mr. Ralph Torres, Mr. Harry Robbins, and Mr. John Cummings.

The cafeteria staff prepares cinnamon rolls to serve in the morning. The staff consists of Mrs. Lee Clark, Mrs. Avis Dudley, Mrs. Otila Alcala, Mrs. Ann Lindsey, Mrs. Inez Gotcher, Mrs. Patsy Allen, Mrs. Martha Polk, and Mrs. Goldie Vaughan.

Mr. Bob Hurt
for several athletic team pictures

Seven Seas Staff
for allowing us to use their facilities for pictures of Tex-Annes and Top Ten Seniors

Citizen-Journal
for several baseball pictures

Mrs. Audine Whitten
for her time, assistance, and knowing all the answers

Mrs. Emily Lunday
for aiding us in getting information and gaining ideas

Faculty and Administration for their assistance, time, and encouragement

Rex Perry
for always being ready to help

Mike Murphree, Dennis Malcolm, and Kaleen Hurley for their assistance with the annual assembly

Sam Bids Farewell to Retiring Principal

The end of another school year has brought about the closing of a man's career. Throughout his life, Mr. Harold Key has given his time to the youth and their education.

In the nine years he has spent at Sam Houston, Mr. Key has helped introduce new concepts and courses. He advocated team teaching and the advanced math, psychology, and music courses available. He has enabled Sam Houston to have fine vocational departments.

Sports events and school programs have become significant in his life, for student activities are important to him. He has been instrumental in securing countless privileges for students. Hour-long lunches, early dismissals and an open campus are among the freedoms for which he has fought.

After graduating from TCU, Mr. Key's teaching career began in Ida and Graham, Texas. Various duties found him involved in a wide range of subjects — science, athletics, and math. He coached teams in football, basketball, baseball, and golf.

Principalships at Mineral Wells and Whitewright followed, and after seven years, he was named superintendent at Pilot Point.

In 1953, he was teaching math at Arlington High. Two years later he became vice-principal, a post he held for eight years. Then in 1963 he was chosen as principal of a new high school, Sam Houston.

In 1965, the annual was dedicated to a man who had been principal only two years. Once again, the yearbook staff honors Mr. Key, this time as a farewell tribute to his outstanding career.

As Desiderata, the theme of the annual, sets an ideal example by which to live, so has Mr. Key been an example for those persons with whom he has come in contact. The Cherokee staff feels it would be appropriate to close the book, end the year and bid farewell to Mr. Key with excerpts from Desiderata:

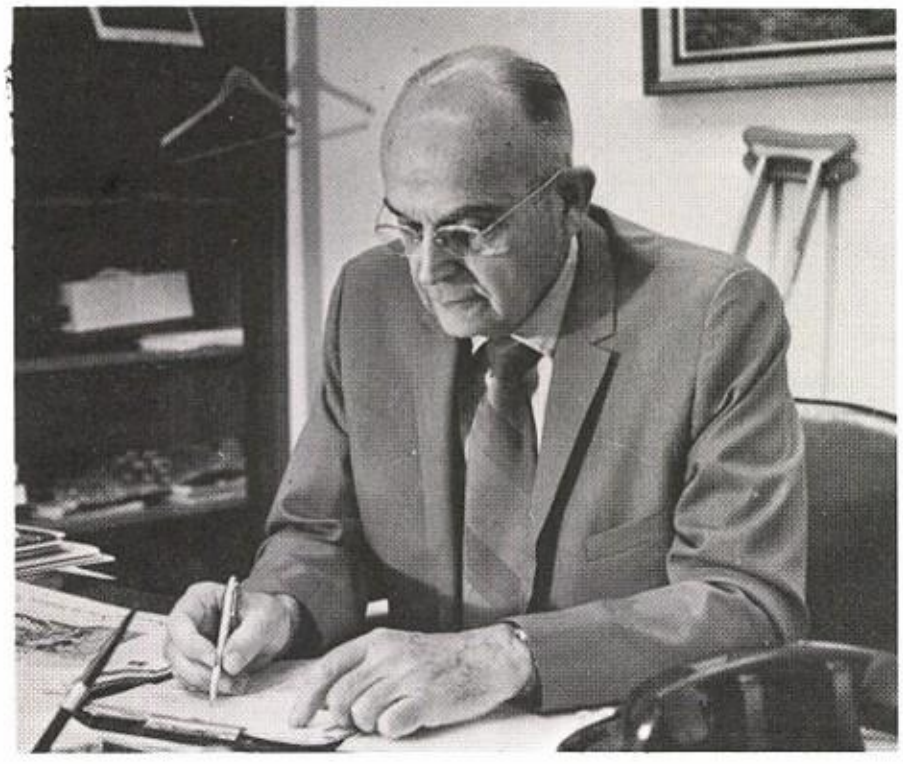
. . . with all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy . . .

On June 5 the cafeteria staff and faculty honored Mr. and Mrs. Key at a luncheon. Their gifts included a bikini, flowered shorts and a week-long Hawaiian vacation. The student body had presented Mr. Key with a set of luggage at graduation.

. . . As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly . . .


. . . whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul . . .
